

CINCINNATI NEWS

By MARION M. HUBBARD

4 Lincoln Terrace

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Aug. 11. — Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rogers, the popular newlyweds, are enjoying the hospitality of New York and Boston society. Many elaborate affairs have been given honoring them. Mrs. Irene Rogers (nee Bowler) will appear in the brilliant fashion show at Portchester, N. Y.

Mrs. Ella Bowler field of Yale Ave. had as her guest her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Chenault of Winchester, Ky., when they stopped over for a few days en route to New York city, where they will visit their sons and granddaughter, Mrs. W. H. Rogers, popular young bride who is summering in the East.

Mrs. Margaret Clarke spent last week-end in Springfield visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Spenka.

Lawrence Finlay is vacationing in Washington, D. C., where he is spending some time with his mother. Mrs. Mary Gordon Finlay will join her husband there and she too will spend her vacation with Mrs. Finlay in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Boggs Mann has returned after several weeks vacation in Atlanta, Ga., and points East, where she stopped en route to Atlanta. Mrs. Mann reports a most enjoyable trip.

"Nap" Johnson was confined at the General hospital due to injury sustained in an auto accident.

Mrs. Paul Hastings of Xenia, Ohio, was here spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Woodford, of Madisonville.

Misses Willa Embry and Nancy Blythe have returned to their homes in Kentucky after a successful term at the summer session of U. of C. Both of the young ladies teach school at Berea, Ky.

Mrs. Louise Penn Sandpiper has returned from Chicago.

William Estelle is vacationing in Baltimore, Md., it is reported.

Mrs. John Walker of Nashville, Tenn., is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Martha Howard, of Madisonville.

Swimming Party

A group of young persons went to Middletown, Ohio, last Sunday for a swimming party. Misses Adria Miles, Marietta Renfro and Healer Kinney were among the swimmers.

Wilber Woodson, executive secretary of the Detroit Y. M. C. A., and his two children, Geraldine and Theodore, were guests last Sunday of his father, Jesse Woodson.

Mrs. Minnie Buckner, mother of Mrs. Lucile Ferguson, was buried Wednesday morning from St. John's A. M. E. Zion church. Mrs. Buckner passed away on Sunday at 5 a. m. after many months' illness at her home on Gaff Ave.

Miss Edna B. Johnson of Gary, Ind., spent Sunday as the guest of Miss Ida Rhodes. Miss Johnson is grand secretary of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority.

The stork has paid a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jefferson of W. Ninth St. The gift to the couple was a fine boy, Harry Jefferson Jr.

Mrs. Sophia McGraph of Danville, Ky., was house guest of Mrs. William Bowen Jr. of Elmwood last week.

Mrs. Marie Penn Miller plans to attend A Century of Progress, and, too, she plans to take with her her two adorable children.

Mrs. Ida Broadus of Lincoln Ave. was hostess to the Churngold Breakfast Bridge club last Monday. The lovely prizes were won by Mesdames James Johnson, Bessie Bogle and Genevieve Chenault.

Mrs. Mamie Elliott is able to be up again after an attack of summer la grippe.

Attorney Elsie Austin was here last week from Indianapolis visiting her mother. Miss Austin spent a day with Miss Blanche Kalfus of Madisonville.

St. Julian Refro was visiting in Frankfort, Ky., while recuperating from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bowen Jr. of Elmwood are driving a smart new car.

Non-Pareille club met Monday afternoon as guests of Mrs. Consuelia Russell of Madisonville. The prizes were won by Mrs. Lucy Bell Owsley, William Owsley and Mrs. Margaret Greene, consolation. Mrs. Luella Harris of Lexington, Ky., was the out-of-town guest.

Mrs. Myra Bryant and her two children and Mrs. Chandler and her daughter, all of Birmingham, Ala., were guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Helena Jones, when they stopped over here en route home from Chicago. The party was motoring south.

Mrs. Grandison Embry Sr. of Madisonville has been ill for some time.

Miss Marie Thomas motored to Grand Rapids, Mich., taking with her Mrs. Anna Johnson. These ladies are expected to return after two weeks stay there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hull of Lincoln Ave. are the recipients of a stork present which arrived last Monday evening. The gift was a fine girl, a new Miss Hull.

Miss Ruby Elliott is here visiting Mrs. Allen of Hopkins St. Miss Elliott, a resident of Nebraska, will spend the summer here.

Miss Galthier Entertains

Miss Edna Galthier entertained her many friends Monday evening at the 1st Night club on Gilbert Ave. At the lovely dance the pretty Miss announced her marriage on the 'morrow to Walter Harris of Birmingham, Ala.

tendon, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Clarke, Miss Beamon, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Belsinger, Noteworthy among the guests were Miss Ruth Alston, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. John Billings, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crittendon, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Clarke, Miss Ruth Clark, Mrs. Cathleen Canady, Mrs. Marie Dunlap and her two lovely daughters Valora and Rose; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Finlay, Dr. Carroll, Dr. L. L. Hubbard, Joseph Hurst, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Horner, Miss Hester Kinney, Dr. and Mrs. B. J. Lockley, Misses Ann Mason, Estelle Mann, Elizabeth Merry, Mr. and Mrs. William McCaleb, Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Payne, Dr. James Ross, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ragland, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reddne, Miss Marietta Renfro, Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Stone, Mrs. Herman Schwering and Miss Dorothy Early. The out-of-town guests were Miss Vernan Jones, Dr. and Mrs. Horley Manuel, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Curtis, Dr. and Mrs. Leo Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warfield.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Beamon entertained at dinner the bridal party for Miss Edna Galthier's wedding Monday evening.

Miss Edna Galthier and Walter Harris of Birmingham, Ala., were married Tuesday morning at St. Andrew's Episcopal church. Only a few of the family's closest friends witnessed the ceremony. The wedding party approximating 14 persons. Mrs. Thelma Smith of College Hill was the matron of honor. The wedding breakfast which followed the ceremony was housed at the Louise Inn on Lincoln Ave. Covers were laid for 14.

Mrs. Luella Harris of Lexington, Ky., was the house guest of Harvey Warren's mother, Mrs. Lula Warren, of Beresford Ave. while visiting here. Mrs. Harris left Tuesday morning to return home.

The annual orphan feast, which was held Tuesday night, was quite a success. An enormous crowd broke all previous attendance records. First prize, which was awarded the holder of the lucky number, was given Mrs. Robert Greer, the prize being $25. Second and third prizes were $15 and $10 respectively.

Prof. George Parks of Richmond, Ky.,

has returned home after attending the summer session at the Cincinnati university.

Herbert Miller, executive secretary of the Pittsburgh Y. M. C. A., and Mrs. Miller spent a few days here with his father and sister, Mrs. Bertha Jordan, of Beecher St., Walnut Hills.

Mrs. Louis C. Washington of Delhi entertained Mrs. Sophia McGraph of Danville, Ky., Wednesday afternoon.

Slammers Meet

Le Bob Ton Slammers met Wednesday with Mrs. Marion M. Hubbard. Miss Ethel Humphrey was a guest of the evening. Mrs. Bessie Robinson played for Miss Ethel Crockett, who was absent on account of illness. Prizes were awarded winners as follows: Mrs. Myrtle Hale, first; Mrs. Irene Robbins, second; Mrs. Bessie Robinson, third; and Miss Humphrey, guest award.

Mrs. Madelon Forman and her two sons of Hampton were guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Beamon of Rockdale Ave.

Mrs. Ruth Colley and her daughter Sarah returned Wednesday after a week's stay with her mother, Mrs. Loretta Embry, of Richmond, Ky.

Mrs. Camille Cole is in New Richmond, Ohio, recuperating from a recent illness.

Mesdames Mary Finlay and Angie Belle Michem and Miss Margaret Palmer took a group of Wilberforce Ivy Leaf Girls and high school girls to Middletown on Wednesday for a swimming party.

Mr. and Mrs. Norsleet Lowe left on Thursday morning touring the East for their vacation.

Mrs. Katherine Crosby has been ill for several days.

The Suburbanites were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Woodford of Madison Rd. on Thursday evening. The lovely prizes were won by Mrs. Louis Kalfus, Charles Howard and the consolation by Samuel Bulluck. Mrs. John Walker of Nashville, Tenn., won the guest award.

A group of A. K. A.'s left Friday night for Chicago, where they will attend the Boule of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority. Among them were Miss Beatrice Taylor, Mesdames Viola Lockley, Mattie Jackson, Margaret Bowen, Angie Belle Michem, Laura Troy Knight, Henrietta Ingram and Misses Dorothy Gross, Hazel and Valerie Griffith, Virginia Jones, Mamie Knight, Helen Buckley, Sadie Samuels and Mrs. Laura Knight Turner.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Eliza Penman of Madisonville entertained Mrs. Sophia McGraph at dinner. Covers were laid for eight and a most enjoyable repast was served.

The home of Mrs. Mable Leak Smith housed the call meeting of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority on Friday.

Mrs. Margaret Clarke was hostess to a breakfast for 12 honoring Mrs. Stanley S. Granum (nee Breta Walker) here spending the summer with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Franklin J. Walker of Beresford Ave. Mrs. Granum is making her home in Austin, Tex.

Mrs. Mayme Ford left Saturday night for Chicago to attend the A. K. A. Boule.

Mrs. William Bowen Jr. of Elmwood drove to Danville, Ky., Saturday to spend the week-end as the guest of Mrs. Sophia McGraph. Master Nolan Bowen will spend the month of August in Danville with Mrs. McGraph.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blattner of Chicago spent a few days here with her mother, Mrs. N. B. Phillips, of Lincoln Ave. The couple planned to leave Sunday morning, driving to Chicago, and taking with them Mrs. Phillips.

Sunday evening Rev. U. S. Robinson closed a successful two-week revival at Brown's Chapel A. M. E. church. It is understood that Rev. Robinson will soon return to his home in Chicago.

Mrs. Mayme Henderson of Madisonville was hostess on Monday morning to the Churn Gold Breakfast Bridge club.

Mrs. Emma Horner of Newport plans to leave Wednesday noon for Chicago for a two-week stay.

West End Branch Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. Industrial Federation held its annual Camp Gray picnic in College Hill. Reports of the girls from the city association who attended the conference were enthusiastically related. Among the interesting topics discussed was the industrial recovery act. Misses Eva Jerker, Vera Thatcher, Birdie Cole and Amelia Kleesatel were the delegates from the city association; Miss Vera Woods, industrial secretary, and Misses Alice Laury, Alice Terrell and Mrs. Iona Browning were representatives from West End who attended the picnic. Miss Josie Sellers, industrial secretary, presided.

The last week-end at the Y. W. C. A. camp proved extremely enjoyable to the group of older girls who attended. Among them were Novella Jackson, Edna Davis, Lucille Webb, Nellie Morgan, Anne Reed, Blanche Elston, Mary Oliver, Florence Lee, Mary Elizabeth McNorton and Anne Perry. Miss Josie B. Sellers, industrial secretary, was the leader, and Miss Doris Wooten, general camp director. Tennis, swimming, boating and games were enjoyed by the campers.