

SUPERINTENDENT OF DRAINAGE

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Jan 19, 1918;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 9

SUPERINTENDENT OF DRAINAGE

Cleveland, O., Jan. 18.—Harry L. Kersey, prominent in Elk circles, was appointed superintendent of drainage by Mayor Harry L. Davis to succeed James Starkey, deceased. The appointment was made through the influence of Councilman Thomas W. Fleming.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.