

DAYTON

By MRS. M. TURNER

928 South Broadway

Phone Ad-1629

DAYTON, Ohio., Dec. 23—Members of the Blue Moon club were guests of the Entre Nous Industrial club Thursday. Mrs. J. Craven, director of the Household Workers training school, gave a talk on "Household Work." Both clubs held their annual Christmas parties this week.

Beta Omicron society, a club for girls out of school, held its regular meeting Monday evening at the Y. W. C. A. The officers for the year are Maria Smith, president; Della Stroud, secretary; Lula Cushenberry, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Robinson, and Miss Elizabeth Ryan, advisors.

Miss Elsie Austin of Columbus was the guest of Mrs. Abbie Carter of Sweetman street this week end. Mrs. Carter entertained with bridge in her home Saturday.

Among those present were Mrs. E. E. Campbell, Mrs. John A. Green, Mrs. Jessie Hathcock, and Miss Nellie V. Young.

Charles Higgins has been elected a delegate of Omega Psi Phi fraternity to attend the conclave in Chicago during the holidays.

The Kentucky club will sponsor a cabaret party at the Odd Fellows hall on Tuesday. Receipts will go to the Christmas funds to provide a Merry Christmas for the widows and orphans of the Montgomery county home, the Westside Day Nursery, and Mary Scott home.

Morris R. Taylor, assistant to Capt. Robert H. Mallory of Linden Community center, has submitted his resignation to the city, to accept a position as a worker in the Robert Gould Shaw house in Boston. For the past two years Mr. Taylor has been in charge of the program and personnel, but he has been with the center since 1932.

A cantata, "The Christ Child" by Hawley, will be presented at Linden Center Friday by the Linden Center vocal ensemble under the direction of Clarens Francois.

Mrs. Susie M. Purdue of 17 Krug street has been ill. Edward Caldwell of Summit street has been ill.

The Tabernacle Baptist church will present its Christmas program on Friday, Dec. 23 under the direction of Mrs. Ellyn C. Peters. Rev. Welby Broadbush is pastor.

The faculty of Dunbar high school presented its annual faculty play on Thursday in the school auditorium.

The "Just-Us" Girls gave a "Toyland ball" Saturday to get toys for the needy children for Christmas.