

FORT WAYNE, IND.

The public is invited to attend a Family Recreation night at Wheatley Social center Friday evening, May 10, auspices the Industrial Women's club, president, Mrs. Margaret Walker. James Dupee, custodian of the Kiwanis apartments is suffering from a broken arm. Mrs. Minnie Taylor of Rattle Creek, Mich. visited with relatives and friends the past week. Mrs. Louise McCoy was called to Mobile, Ala. to attend the funeral of her mother. Over 150 persons attended the Spring Semi-Formal dinner of the Sons of Turner at the Turner Chapel A. M. E. church Friday evening. President Garfield Dunlap; Rev. G. L. Hayden, pastor. The annual High School Girl Reserves banquet was enjoyed at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday evening. The following girl members of the Pathfinders club of the Wheatley Social center were awarded girl reserve ratings for meritorious work: Henrietta Warner, Elleen Hughes and Sussie Calhoun, Girls' Work assistant, Mrs. Edna R. Charlton. Shutins include Thomas Graham, St. Joseph hospital; homes, Mrs. Carrie Miles, Mrs. Rhoda K. Jones, Fred Walker, Jr. and Kate Blanks. Mrs. Naomi Phillips, Indianapolis Recorder contestant is making a fine record and the Ft. Wayne populace is backing her and expect a big victory. Allen lodge of Odd Fellows, 11032 and Household of Ruth 5522 will be host to a district meeting Sunday. A forum will be presented to the public at Mt. Olive Baptist church Sunday afternoon. Out of town speakers include Mrs. Lena Harris, state N. G. of Gary, Ind.; Luther Sweeney, W. G. of Indianapolis; Mr. Higgins of South Bend, Ind.; and local, N. G. Mrs. Lucy Wilson, W. G. Leroy Dickerson. Geraldine Unthank and Malissa Jane Wickliffe popular students of Central high school were prominent characters in the annual school opera Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Lulu Alexander of Columbus, Ohio enroute to the National Bahai Movement in Chicago, Ill. was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith. Rev. Graham Jordan, minister of the Mt. Olive Baptist church and wife attended the district convention convening in Noblesville, Ind. the past week. The order of Eastern Star district meeting in Marion, Ind. was attended by the following members: Mrs. Corrie D. Shaw, district supervisor, Mrs. Flozelle Rindy, W. M.; Mrs. Mamie Adams, P. W. M.; Mrs. Lucy Wilson, P. W. M.; Mrs. Mattie Grundy and Mrs. Goldia Hornaday, S. A. C.; Mrs. Belle McFadden of Lynn, Ind. is visiting her sister, Mrs. Adeline Rhoades, information clerk of the General Electric company. Miss Olive Myrt Diggs, manager of the Chicago Bee was an Easter guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Major Davis. The Beaux Art Music club under the leadership of Mrs. Susan A. Jordan received informally for Shelby K. Nichols, noted baritone of Chicago. The Swastika club was entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Gladys St. John. High scores resulted in Mrs. Helen Young winning the club prize. The Junior Red Star Circle sponsored a Mother and Daughter banquet Thursday evening. Miss Elma E. Alsup, Girls Work secretary of Wheatley Social center was the guest speaker. President Miss Vivian L. Shaw. Race students winning first place in track meet at Central high school are Christopher Dixie, John Charlton, Maurice Owens and Buddy Mourning.

The Church of God, Eliza street, is conducting an evangelistic campaign. Rev. E. O. Gettel is the speaker. Rev. C. M. Washington, pastor.

Anyone having news for The Chicago Defender call A 7196 no later than Friday of each week.

The Olive Rhodes Floral club enjoyed an interesting program meeting at the residence of Mrs. Marjorie D. Wickliffe Sunday. Mrs. Ida Mae Pippins presented an interesting talk. Mrs. Adalina Rhodes, president; Mrs. Naomi D. King, chairman of program committee.

Tony Ridley of Detroit visited his children and Dick Ridley the past week.

The Christian club of the Greater Mt. Olive Baptist church presented an interesting program Sunday. Rev. J. C. Taylor of Shiloh Baptist church was guest speaker and the choir under the direction of Mrs. Bessie E. Hicks rendered several selections. Rev. Graham Jordan, pastor.

The Mary B. Talbert Civic club met at the residence of Mrs. Carrie L. Wilson Monday. Plans for the State and National Federation were discussed. Mrs. Helen Young, president.

Mrs. Carrie Miles, prominent church and lodge woman of the city, died at her residence Sunday afternoon. Funeral rites were conducted at Turner Chapel A.M.E. church Wednesday. Rev. G. L. Hayden officiated. Surviving are the husband, Silas Miles; daughter, Mrs. James Black; mother, Mrs. Margaret Curtis of South Bend; sister, Mrs. Adah Pettiford of Chicago; and five grandchildren, and one brother, William Elliott of Detroit.

Revival services have been largely attended at the Shiloh Baptist church. Rev. J. R. Abernathy of Indianapolis, Ind., is the speaker. Rev. John Dixie pastor.

The Pathfinders Girl Reserve club of Wheatley Social Center conducted devotions at the monthly meeting of the high school Girl Reserve clubs at the Y.W.C.A. Henrietta Warner is president.

The Beaux Art Music club entertained informally at the residence of Miss Elma E. Alsup Tuesday evening after the annual meeting of the Wheatley Social center, honoring Shelby K. Nichols, baritone of Chicago. Mrs. Susan A. Jordan, president.

Members of the Bridgette club were entertained Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Jessie Smith and a delicious menu was served.

Softball, tennis, hikes and other outdoor activities are being sponsored by the physical education department of Wheatley Social center.

Mrs. Louise McCoy has returned from a trip to Mobile, Ala.

The Stewardess board of the C.M. E. church presented a pleasant Sunday program. Rev. A. L. Hodges is pastor. Mrs. C. Cooper, chairman of program committee.

Turner Chapel A.M.E. church Sunday school rendered a recital program Friday, featuring the Wilson quartet, Mesdames Adele Payne and Ella Winn, Mrs. Golda Hornady Jones, Miss Myra Ridley, Mrs. Mable Strum, Thurman Howell and Malissa and Buddy Wickliffe. Atty. N. W. Hudson, superintendent.

The Omega Alpha Omega sorority met Tuesday at the residence of Soror Coletta Turner. Plans were formulated for their forum program on May 25. Naomi D. King, president.

The Peerless Boys club of Wheatley Social center enjoyed its annual banquet Monday. James McDonald is the president.

MARION, INDIANA

Funeral services for Rev. Golden Blakins were held Monday at Second Baptist church. Rev. M. T. Battle, pastor, was in charge. Surviving are the widow, Maude; four daughters, Anna Lee, Magdalene, Pauline and Jeannette Blakins; the mother, Mrs. Bettie Blakins; two brothers, Estelle Blakins, Bennie Blakins, Lima, O.; and Mrs. Lucille Easley, Logansport. Funeral services for Alfred L. Smith, 81, pioneer resident of Grant County, who died Wednesday were held on Friday. William Jones is ill at his home.