

MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON NEWS

By C. ELLIOTT FREEMAN JR.
86 Harold St. Phone Gar. 3719

BOSTON, Mass., June 24.—Miss Mildred Washington, a graduate of Mt. Holyoke college, returned to the college last week to attend commencement exercises. While in the city she was the guest of Attorney and Mrs. Matthew Bullock of Windsor St.

William T. Dean Jr. of Pittsburgh, Pa., who has been doing graduate work in economics at Harvard university, left for his home Friday to spend his vacation as the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Lucille Martin of New York city was a visitor here last week, spending the week-end as the guest of her sister and niece, Mrs. Fanny and Mary Denison of Tremont St.

Mr. D. W. Jones of Washington, D. C., presiding elder, was the guest speaker at the morning services at Columbus Ave. A. M. E. Zion church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kearney of Hartford, Conn., who were house guests of Mrs. Hammond of Shawmut Ave., left the city Tuesday after spending a week here. While in the city they were the recipients of many social courtesies.

Prof. and Mrs. Everett Lawrence, accompanied by their daughter Edythe, arrived here last week from Tougaloo college, Mississippi, en route to Andover, where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lawrence for the summer vacation. While here they will also be guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Beverly of Somerville and Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Furr of West Medford.

Mrs. Lottie Roper of Walnut Ave. returned to the city last week from Pawtucket, R. I., where she was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Allen and daughter Dorothy.

William S. Baskerville, Harvard '32, left the city Thursday for New York city, where he will be the guest of his brother, Cuto Baskerville, for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Addie Tyler of Albany, N. Y., was a visitor here last week, spending a few days as the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Louise D. Clarke of Warren Pl., who was rushed to the Boston City hospital last week, is still seriously ill.

The Aristo club, Miss Teresa Lew president, held its second scholarship presentation at the League of Women for Community Service Sunday afternoon. A short musical program was rendered by Miss Alberta Carrington, vocal soloist, and Miss Charlotte Parham, pianist. Joseph Mitchell, well-known attorney of the city, was guest speaker.

The scholarship of $100, based on scholastic attainment, character and references, was awarded to Horace Joffrey Prescott, son of Rev. James B. Prescott, in behalf of the club by the president. Prescott, who is 17, is a graduate of the English high school, class of '32, and plans to enter Boston university of liberal arts to become a teacher. Among others applying for the award and receiving honorable mention were George B. Bowser of Lynn and Mabray Kountz of West Medford. The committee included Misses Gertrude V. Hadley, chairman; Gertrude Smith, Helen Chandler, Alberta M. Carrington and Charlotte Parham.

Miss Zenada Randall of Tremont St. left the city Tuesday for Atlantic City, N. J., and Philadelphia, Pa., where she will spend the coming three months as the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Irene West of Petersburg, Va., left for her home last week after spending two weeks here as the guest of relatives in Cambridge. En route home she plans to visit friends in New York city.

Harry Porter returned to the city Thursday from Pittsburgh, Pa., where he was called on account of the illness of his sister, who was injured in an automobile accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Ashby of New York city motored here last week, spending a few days as guests of relatives and friends.

H. Naylor Fitz-Hugh of Washington, D. C., who has been attending the Harvard business school, left the city last week for his home, where he will spend the summer as the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Mable Harris, evangelist, was ordained at the New England conference of the A. M. E. Zion church, which convened in New Haven, Conn., last week. Rev. Harris was appointed to serve in Winstead, Conn.

A large and appreciative audience heard the annual recital by the pianoforte pupils of Mrs. Anna Bobitt-Gardner at Recital hall, Conservatory building, Tuesday evening. Twenty-six pupils were presented, assisted by Mrs. Madeline Freeman, soprano soloist; accompanied by Mrs. Mary Goode; dramatic reading, by Miss Gertrude Smith, and an instrumental trio which included Miss Georgia Carter, cello; Mrs. Gardner, violin, and Miss Clarissa Cooke, piano. These numbers were enthusiastically received. Among those presented in group No. 1 were little Helen Williams, Beatrice Boyd, Louise Parks, Virginia Morse, Reeve Smith, Theodora Goodman, Ruth Morris and Floyd Boyd, who read. Those in group No. 2 who showed remarkable promise were Ena Harris, Dorothy Holt, Mary Ferguson, Dorothy Butler, Ruth Brown, Eugenia Butler, Hope Best, Esther Prescott, Mildred Galloway and Erminie Sampson. The last group included several pupils who have appeared at musical teas during the spring—Clarissa Cooke, Ruth Atkinson, Gertrude Smith, Pauline Davis, Dorothy Thomas and Clymene Davis. The ushers were pupils from the studio, Misses Amy England, Florida Wolfe and Lillian Thomas. Miss Rita Davis was the flower girl.

Mrs. Marie Jones of Riverway left the city Tuesday for Gloucester where she will spend the next three months.

Miss Jean Westmoreland of Washington, D. C., arrived here last week as the guest of her father, Isaac Westmoreland of Walnut Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Simmonds of New York city were visitors here last week spending a few days as the guests of relatives and friends.

Miss Helen Thomas of New York city motored here last week to attend the graduation exercises of her brother and sister, James and Barbara Thomas. She was accompanied by her fiance, Samuel Gaines, and a party of friends.

W. D. Brown of the Highland pharmacy arrived here last week from Baltimore, Md., where he had been the guest of his mother for a week.

Many beautiful and striking gowns were featured in a fashion show sponsored by the 4-G club of the Massachusetts Ave. Baptist church, Cambridge, Tuesday evening under the direction of Miss Marion Hall. Besides a bridal party, there were morning dresses, street costumes, sports wear for children and adults, lounging costumes, afternoon, dinner and evening gowns for children and adults.

Among the modistes and models participating in the affair were Mesdames and Misses Gertrude Williams, Frances Steems, Christine Van Allen, S. Caution, Annette Elam, O. Jackson, Minnie Platt, Lillian Shafe, Mildred Edmondson, B. Melton, Phyllis Wood, Yvonne Goode, Isabelle Vaughn, R. Washington, Christine Platt, Hilda Redmond, Sarah Conyers, Juanita Leo, Olive Jackson, S. Carter, Hilda Proctor and others. A short musical program was rendered by Miss Orissa White, The Berryman sisters and Mrs. Christine Van Allen.

Mrs. Sarah Jackson of Wilmington, N. C., motored here last week to be the guest of her brother-in-law, Frederick Wright of Hammond St., and other relatives and friends for an indefinite time.

Miss Lillian Bratton of Worcester was a visitor here last week spending a few days as the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Mary Barton of Ball St. left the city last week for an indefinite stay in York and Philadelphia, Pa., where she will be the guest of relatives. Before returning she will be the guest of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner of Wilmington, Del.

Harry Sone of New York city was a visitor here last week spending a few days as the guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. N. Harris of Windsor St.

Miss Addie Wyatt of Riverway left the city Tuesday for Gloucester where she will remain for the summer months.

Miss Mable Baskerville, a student at Radcliffe college, left for her home in Baskerville, Va., where she will spend the summer vacation.

The Junior Students' Music club held a musicale-tea Sunday afternoon at the home of the vice president, Miss Edythe Harris. A large group of members and friends enjoyed a short program rendered by Miss Helen Holliday, Victor Bynoe, Misses Geraldine Roberts, Lillian Wilson and Eleanor Price. The club, which includes a group of young people in their teens, has Mrs. Jessie E. Shaw, organist of the Twelfth Baptist church, as their organizer and supervisor. Other officers of the club include Webster Burse, president; Gertrude Brown, secretary; Beatrice Coleman, treasurer, and Clarence Granville, chaplain.

Miss Helen Chandler was the guest at a surprise shower tendered her Tuesday evening by a group of co-workers in the department of public safety. The affair was held at Hugo's in Cohasset. Miss Chandler was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Minnie T. Wright, popular club woman of the city, was hostess Tuesday evening to a large group of friends at the League of Catholic Women. A short musical and literary program was rendered after which a delightful collation was served in a dining room decorated with carnations and American Beauty roses.

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas F. Benbury celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday evening at the Morgan Memorial church of all nations where Rev. Benbury has been co-worker for more than 30 years.

The combined conventions of the New England Baptist mission, Sunday school, B. Y. P. U. and Woman's auxiliary was held last week at the Ebenezer Baptist church, Rev. William S. Ravenel, pastor.

Miss Helena Hill of 2-A Florence St. was hostess Saturday evening at her home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Contee, who were married at the parsonage of the Columbus Ave. A. A. M. Zion church, Rev. Charles C. Williams, pastor, officiating. Mrs. Contee was the former Miss Virginia Conley.