By FAITH MYERS
REGULAR SERVICES

On Sept. 10 the First Universalist Church at 910 East 83rd st., began its regular services and the Church school classes at 11 a.m. each Sunday.

The Church School of the First Universalist Church is held at the same time as the adult service. A special worship service for children age 7 and older is held in the Sanctuary of the Church from 10:15 to 10:45 preceeding the adult service.

People of all races and backgrounds of faith are invited to the services and activities of the First Universalist Church. The Church is non-creedal and stresses helping the individual to develop and apply his own sincere philosophy of life.

DEDICATE ROOM

Top church leaders of the A.M.E. Zion Church, along with leaders of the National Council of Churches, recently dedicated a room in the Interchurch Center, 475 Riverside Drive, New York City, in honor of the first bishop and founder of the denomination, James Varick and Bishop W. J. Walls.
The room is located on the 6th floor of the massive building. Bishop Herbert Bell Shaw, Wilmington, N. C., presided over the ceremonies. Other bishops who took part were S. G. Spottswood, R. L. Jones, F. S. Anderson and D. C. Pope, along with Bishop Walls.

TRAINING CLASSES

Moody Parkway Bookstore will hold classes this fall on the subject, "Building a Better Sunday School." Designed to assist superintendents and Sunday school officers in successfully organizing their school, the classes will meet each Tuesday evening, September 26 through November 28.
Yvonne Rollerson, public school teacher, will conduct the sessions. Having received her B.A. in Christian Education from Wheaton college and her M.A. from the University of Chicago, she has been instructor of more than 100 South Side superintendents and teachers in previous classes.

The purpose of the training sessions is to develop effective workers in South Side Sunday schools.
Registration period is now in session and will continue until September 26. All classes will be held at the Moody Parkway Bookstore, 4729 South Parkway, from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.
Further information about the classes may be had by calling the bookstore at DRexel 3-1204.

TO PUBLISH BIBLE

Rev. King S. Range, pastor of Range Baptist church, 3808 Indiana ave., announced that he will publish an integrated picture version of the Holy Bible using black people of the East as characters described in the current Bible.

Rev. King said, "ever since I was a child I have read of Christ being a white man with fair hair. Yet, Revelation tells us that his hair was like wool, his eyes were like a flame of fire and his feet were like unto fine brass, as it burned in a furnace."
He continued, "Jesus was born of the Virgin Mary and she was of the tribe of Judah who were black people. Therefore, since we have no record as there Jesus Christ never had a photograph taken, we have only to go by the descriptions as given in the Holy Bible concerning Christ."
King plans to paint pictures of Christ in accord with the description given in the Bible and to also print a Bible with black men in leading roles.

RESIGNS

DURBAN, South Africa — E. Kerdachi, a Catholic member of the Durban City Council, has resigned from the Council's Bantu Negro Administration committee because it must carry out apartheid laws "contrary to the dictates of my conscience."
