

Baha'is To Hear Ohio Teacher

WILMETTE — Miss Bettijane Walker of Youngstown, Ohio, will speak at the Baha'i House of Worship Sunday, June 16, at 3:45 p.m. The Baha'i House of Worship is located at Sheridan Road and Linden Avenue, Wilmette. Her subject will be "How to Believe."

Miss Walker, a graduate of Fisk University, is presently teaching in Youngstown.

Since becoming a Baha'i in 1953, she has actively promoted her Faith in this country and elsewhere. She resided in Cap Haitien, Haiti, for two years; taught at a Baha'i summer school in Kingstown, Jamaica; also taught courses at Green Acre Baha'i School in Eliot, Maine, and in Baha'i teaching institutes in Ontario, Canada.

She is a member of a statewide Baha'i committee for Ohio which co-ordinates teaching and proclamation activities for the Faith in that state.
