

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Dec 4, 1915;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 6

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday, December 5, at 4 p. m., there will be a musical program of rare merit with Miss Estella Grigsby, Miss Nannie Mae Strayhorn and Miss Mattie Miller to give piano numbers and Miss Annis Hackley, soprano, and Prof. A. C. Elgar, violin. Mrs. Antoinette Crump Cone will give one of her characteristic talks on music which adds interest to familiar hymns often sung without knowing the circumstances under which they were written. The above named artists rank among our most talented young people whose future means a brilliant success. Next week our Woman's club will devote the evenings of December 7, 8, 9 and 10 in the bazaar at the Y. M. C. A. when they invite their many friends to meet them there and make it a success. Mrs. Hattie Jimison, chairman of our booth, has left nothing undone in giving us a pleasant season.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.