

Fleming Seeks Pardon From Governor Cooper

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2. — Mrs. Lethia Fleming, accompanied by her attorney, Alexander H. Martin, was in Columbus to place an appeal before Governor Myers Y. Cooper, who retires Jan. 12 seeking the pardon of her husband, Former Councilman Thomas W. Fleming, who is serving a two years and 9 months' sentence for bribery in the Ohio penitentiary. It is reported that the governor has taken the matter under serious advisement in spite of the protest of County Prosecutor Ray T. Miller, who wired to the governor last week charging the governor with travesty of justice should he see fit to free Mr. Fleming before he retires.
