

THE BUCKEYE STATE

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
News Office, 2525 Central Ave.
Phone Prospect 2230

Cleveland, Ohio, June 1.—Delvin Johnson, a member of the popular Johnson family of E. 93d St. and well known for his thrift and good business judgment, is being afflicted with complications from every side for purchasing the 12-suite two-story brick apartment building at 22d and South of Cedar Ave. near Quebec Ave. Mr. Johnson is a brother of Miss A. O. Taylor, one of our popular school teachers.

Juvenile court authorities were seeking a home for Johnnie, a 12-year-old nephew of James Sykes, 4306 Scoville Ave., who was shot to death last Tuesday by a police officer during the following arguments. Johnnie had been a charge of the Hudson boys' farm the past two years and had been paroled from the institution and reached home a few hours after the tragedy.

Clarence Thomas, 2175 E. 89th St., was taken to the police hospital last Monday night after he struck a policeman with whose car he is said to have collided on Westwood Ave. During the argument, Thomas said to have reached for his hip pocket when the policeman shot Thomas. It is said Thomas' car was stolen.

Waiters to Meet in Cleveland

The third annual convention of the Waiters' and Cooks' National association will be held in Cleveland Aug. 21-23. This is the word from Fred P. Clarke of the Union club and chairman of the publicity committee. Over 2,000 visitors are expected to attend the sessions. Among the Clevelanders who are prominent in the national body are Richard C. Smith, head waiter at the Wade Park Manor, one of the prettiest and best of the head waiters at the Union club, a member of the executive committee. Both are two of the most efficient and popular head waiters in the country.

The second battalion, 373d Infantry, is looking for a camp at Canandaigua on Lake Erie Sunday, June 10. Capt. Charles Frye is in charge of the Cleveland company.

According to latest reports in political circles, Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming, Dwight R. Williams and Anthony Chester K. Gillespie will seek the endorsement of the Republican organization for the state legislature.

The West Side Neighborhood club was honored by being entertained by Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Pope at their cozy home on W. 11th St. last Tuesday evening. The guests were Mrs. Della Eubanks and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson. Mrs. Eubanks winning the laurels of the evening and being awarded the prize. Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Wright will entertain at the next meeting at their home on W. 53th St.

Misses Ella Mae Smith and Myrtle Wiggins, club workers, will attend the Fisk university commencement exercises. Miss Smith will then visit relatives in New Orleans, La.

The Survey club gave a very enjoyable and successful dinner at the Cedar Yacht Saturday evening. Miss Ella Mae Donald is due credit for the successful efforts of the committee of arrangements. Eugene Frazier, the president, is due for a share of the credit.

Miss Davis of Mt. Zion temple choir is reported to be making preparations to go to Liberia for research work.

The Jay Dee club was highly entertained Sunday afternoon by Frank Williams at the home of Eugene Apple of 12, 160th St. Mr. Apple is president.

Miss Eliza Jane Reid of the Associated Charities is receiving her master's degree from the Western College of Western Reserve university at the close of this semester.

Cards are out announcing the graduation of J. Francis Gregory, honor student at Case School of Applied Science, engineering department, this week Thursday at the Church of the Covenant, in Euclid Ave. More will be said of this remarkable graduate in the next issue.

Mrs. Oglesby (white) of the Bahai movement, hostess of Mrs. T. R. Thompson, was the speaker at the monthly luncheon of the Cleveland Federation of Women's clubs at the Y. W. A. last Monday. The federation endorsed Mrs. Fleming for the state legislature.

W. C. Thurston, John C. Early and Annabel Young were elected delegates to the state convention.

The International Order of Twelve and Knights of Tabor will attend the annual sermon of Olive temple, No. 1, of Cleveland will attend.

Alpha Fraters Meet

W. A. C. Hush of Philadelphia, director of the bureau of home missions and church extension of the Methodist Episcopal church, will be the principal speaker at the closing rally of the local go-to-high-school-go-to-college campaign of the Alpha Psi Alpha fraternity to be held Sunday at 4 p. m. at Cory M. E. church, E. 25th St. and Scoville Ave., according to Dr. Robert S. Martin, one of the founders of the national movement and chairman of the local committee in charge of arrangements. An interesting program has been arranged, including several excellent musical numbers. High school students are especially urged to attend this meeting as much practical information of value will be given to those who are interested in continuing their education. W. R. Small, son of the late Congressman Rob. Small, is president of the local chapter, and George P. Hinton, manager of the Cleveland People's Finance corporation, is secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mills, Mrs. Ella Banks and William S. Bingham of Salem motored to Cleveland to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bessie Carter at St. John church last Sunday.

Mrs. Marie Taylor, brother of E. 80th St., received word from Pittsburgh last week announcing the marriage of her aunt, Mrs. Jessie Peoples, formerly of Cleveland, to Marian Haydon of Pittsburgh. The ceremony was performed in Bethel church of that city.

Mrs. Mollie DeBraun of E. 80th St. has been confined to her bed by illness. Mrs. DeBraun is one of our best known club and lodge workers and has been greatly missed.

It is reported that Dan House Sr. of E. 80th St. has suffered another paralytic stroke. His many friends wish his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Hamlin, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. McQueen, are taking a lake trip to Duluth, Minn., and return.

The Bonae Puellae club met Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. J. R. Shuman. Two members were absent on account of illness. The hostess served a most delicious repast. Next meeting at the home of Mrs. Gladys Smith, 227 E. 49th St. Mrs. J. R. Shuman, president; Mrs. Ethel Robinson, secretary; Mrs. Willie Clement, reporter.

The Ethel Cherub club held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Emma Pauldo, 234 E. 61st St., Sunday at 4 p. m. A very interesting program was given. A delicious course was served followed by a given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th St., was one of the 250 Friends who received the Friendship ring at the Central Y. W. C. A. (white) at E. 18th St. and Prospect Ave. Thursday evening of last week. The Friendship ring is the highest honor in the program. Miss Trig is a high school senior, good physical health, loyalty to one's school and efficiency in all undertakings. Martelle is a member of John Adams High School Friendship club, an organization which very few of our group have been invited to join. It is a part of every Cleveland high school activity.

Mrs. E. K. LeStone, 225 Central Ave., was taken to Charity hospital Friday evening to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends wish her recovery.

The Mildred Jovial Whist club was delightfully entertained by Miss Mary Bell on last Monday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Viola Welch in Longfellow Ave. Plans were completed for the next meeting to be given June 11 at the Caterers association, 226 E. 40th St.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Eliza Scott entertained her Sunday school class, the Busy Workers, at the home of J. C. Hudson. The class consists of 12 members. After the transaction of business a splendid literary program was rendered.

Miss Martelle Trig, 15, youngest daughter of E. 15th