PHYLLIS WHEATLEY CLUB.

Miss Malvina Williams of Butte, Mont., gave a delightful talk before the members of the Phyllis Wheatley Club Wednesday, October 15, social day, on the work of the Western Federation. Mrs. James rendered some fine musical selections. Mrs. Eva Jenner read a short sketch of the History of Illinois, and the club decided to study that subject this winter. Mrs. Will Taylor will have charge of that department.

Fenton Johnson's latest and best story, "The Black Fairy," was told by the president.

Light refreshments were served.

The Phyllis Wheatley and the Frederick Douglass Center Clubs will have four suffrage meetings during the year, beginning Tuesday, October 21, at 3032 Wabash avenue, at 2 p. m. Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCullough will be the speaker.
