

Baha'is Schedule World Peace Day

"Youth For World Peace" will be the theme of the annual observance of World Peace Day 7 p.m. Sunday at the Chicago Baha'i Center, 116 S. Michigan ave., Room 1108.

The purpose of World Peace Day, according to Mrs. Lucille McCarrell, chairman, is to spread the recognition of America's spiritual destiny to raise the standard of peace in the world.

This year Baha'is are observing a Youth year with the overall theme of "Youth for One World."

Principal speaker for the evening is Dr. Herbert Donnell Odom, winner of the 1968 Civic Leader award and member of the Board of Directors of the Southtown YMCA. The Baha'i speaker is Larry Kramer, secretary of the Chicago Baha'i Assembly. Admission is free and refreshments will be served.

Mrs. McCarrell stated that now is the time for youth to join with adults to help build a true world society in which peoples and nations maintain their individuality, yet subordinate their particular interests to the welfare of humanity as a whole, and through their diverse contributions, create a world culture richer and more rewarding than any known in history.
