

MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON

By ELLIOTT C. FREEMAN, Jr.
86 Harold Street Phone Mlg. 6484

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 14—Miss Ruth Bublin of New York City left for her home Thursday. During her stay she was guest at a bridge and luncheon held in her honor, with Mrs. A. Jackson of Columbus Avenue as hostess.

Ralph Hadley of Tremont Street, returned Monday from Chicago where he was guest of his uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawrence, former residents of this city.

Mrs. Margaret Ormsby of New York City, is guest of Mrs. Anna Richardson of Tremont St.

John C. Marshall of Walnut Avenue, returned last week from Oak Bluffs; before returning home, he visited G. H. Johnson of Wood's Hole who is ill.

Visitors Leave

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Washington left last week after visiting here as guests of Miss Idola Washington of Cambridge, sister of Mr. Washington. They were also entertained by Lane Vins of Cambridge. Mr. Washington is director of mechanical industries at Tuskegee Institute, and is a former resident of Cambridge.

Mrs. Aubrey Hendrix accompanied by Mrs. Rosa Brown and Miss Doris Jackson motored to Springfield last week. Before returning home, accompanied by Miss Gladys Holmes, newly elected officer of the Massachusetts State Union, they spent the week-end at Camp Atwater.

Miss Ilenetta Banks of Fayerweather Street, Cambridge, returned Monday from Harwichport.

Miss Jennie Russell of Shawmut Avenue, who was called to Baltimore, Md., by the illness of her brother, returned Monday leaving him improved.

E. R. A. Concert

The Outer South End Community chorus, with Mrs. Dorothy Richardson, director, gave its initial concert Thursday in the court yard of the Whittier Street Health Unit. This group of 46 voices was the first of the newly organized groups to be presented. Those on the program were Mrs. Richardson, the Greater Boston Chorus, directed and organized by Mrs. Richardson and the E. R. A. civic chorus, E. Roberts Lunger, director. Miss Dorothy Paca sang.

Mrs. Eva Sisco of Lenox Street, was guest Saturday at a surprise birthday party held in her honor by a group of friends. Among some of the friends present were:

Mesdames Georgia Hinds, Carrie Griffin, Edna Brown, Florence Morrison, Mildred Showell, Hattie Hill, Adelle Gibbs, Gertrude Thomas; J. Waite, H. Grayson, T. White, S. Tolliver, P. Brown, H. Robinson, R. Richardson and others.

Lawrence Jenkins of Providence, R. I., spent the week end here as guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. L. Simmonds of Windsor Street. He was accompanied by J. Keller of New York City.

Mrs. A. E. Colbert of Spring Street, Everett, left last week on a motoring trip to New York City and Newark, N. J., where she will visit relatives and friends. Mrs. Colbert was accompanied by her niece, Miss Katherine Taylor, also of Everett.

Sponsor Bridge

One hundred twenty-five well wishers for the success of David E. Lane, candidate for Ward 12, filed the St. Mark's Social Centre Thursday attending the first in a series of prize bridge and whist contests, held in the interest of the campaign fund.

The affair was held under the direction of Mrs. Lottie Roper, assisted by a committee of young matrons. Score keepers were Mesdames Marion Washington, Otis Dixon, Eula Wright, Lottie Lewis, Olga Ferguson and Tulaiah McCurdy. Mrs. Alice Snowden was time keeper.

Attorney Julian Rainey won the grand prize, prize winners in contract, auction and whist were: Charles Gatewood, Miss D. Offey, Miss Ruth Williams, Mrs. Gladys Edwards, John Roberts, Curtis McClane, J. Lindsey, M. Davis and W. W. Wright. Those assisting on the committee were Mesdames Bertha Lane, Eudora Roberts, Elsie Richardson, Lucy Washington, Ruth Shelton, Pearl Frye, Abigail Hubbard, Ethel Freeman and others.

Miss Rosa Perkins of Hammond St., left Thursday for Washington, D. C., where she will visit her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berry.

Miss Alice Lovett of Walnut Avenue was week-end guest of friends in Hull.

Arnold Shephard of Philadelphia, Pa., was a recent visitor.

Mrs. Daisy Harper of Humboldt Ave. left last week for Norfolk, Va., where she will visit her parents. She was accompanied by her nephew, George Shaw.

Planning Anniversary

The Carriers of Sunshine Club No. 356, I. S. S., will celebrate their twentieth anniversary. The organizer of the Boston branch, the state organizer and the national organizer are to be among the honored guests on that occasion in the early part of October. Charles Henry, prominent in musical circles here, presented "The Jubilee Parade" Friday evening over station WAAB.

Present Play

A play, the first ever produced, written and presented anywhere in the United States by E. R. A. workers, was enthusiastically received Friday evening at the Williams Municipal Building. It will be repeated Tuesday. Those taking part were Cornelius Crosson, Jack Bates, Grace Walker, Lorraine Mason, Eleanor Trent Wallace, Katherine Peters, Eleanor Laird King, Amelia McClenney and Granville Stewart, Harriet Jackson, Helen Holliday, Madeline Freeman, Bessie Earle, Dorothy Eller, Hazel Campbell, Gladys Pierce, Joanelle Bryant, Angelina de Vaughan, James Lee, Simon Gaskin, Lycurgus Lockman, Arthur Furr, Emmanuel Mansfield and Caesar Bennett. The play was written by Charles Plato and Jack Bates.

Mrs. Annie Young of Northampton Street, returned last week from Philadelphia, Pa., and Washington, D. C., where she was house guest of relatives and friends.

Miss Louise Pence of Westminster Street is improving; she will leave next week for the Cape to recuperate.

Charles Street A. M. E. Church. The pastor, the Rev. Oliver W. Childers, spoke at the Sunday services, taking as his subject, "The Loneliness of Jesus." Holy Communion was served. Miss Ruth Plenty, director of the Senior Choir was the soloist.

Planning the plan for the fall work were completed, with the church divided into several units under the following captains: Mesdames Susie Pleasant, Nancy Hargraves, Anna McNell, Mamie Allen, Anna Bisby and William Bright.

Rev. U. G. Leiper, presiding elder, died in Providence, R. I.

Rev. J. Jackson, acting pastor of the Eastern Avenue Baptist Church was the speaker at the funeral of Mr. Jackson of Philadelphia and others attended.

Herman Carter, a member of the choir and chorister for the Sunday school won fourth place at the World's Fair music contest.

Deaths Of The Week

Mrs. Louvenia Matthias of 12 Griggs Street, Cambridge, died Tuesday at the Cambridge City Hospital. Funeral services were held Friday at the Clarence H. Adams Funeral Home, 100 State Street, with the Rev. E. E. Thompson, pastor of the Massachusetts Ave. Baptist church, officiating. Mrs. Ella France Jones was the soloist. The deceased leaves several cousins, nieces and nephews. Interment was at the Glenwood Cemetery, Everett.

Miss Cecelia Funk of 18 Trumbull Street died last week. Funeral services were held at the Elliot Congregational church, the Rev. L. Pierce officiating. Interment was at Mount Hope cemetery.

Louis L. Costa of 747 Shawmut Ave., husband of Mrs. Lena Costa died Sunday at the Boston City Hospital. Funeral services were held at the St. Phillips Catholic church, the Father Donovan, officiating. Interment was at the St. Benedict cemetery.

John Latch, 12 years an inmate at the Marine Hospital, died Thursday. Funeral services were held Tuesday at the St. Phillips Catholic church, the Father Donovan officiating. Mr. Latch leaves a daughter, a brother and friends. Interment was at Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Mrs. Violet Barrows of 21 Onelda St., died Monday at the Boston City Hospital. Funeral services were held Wednesday at her late residence with the Rev. Charles Winthrop, pastor of the Gloucester Memorial Presbyterian church, officiating. Mrs. Barrows leaves a widow, Julius Barrows, a mother and children. Interment was at Mt. Hope Cemetery.

James Jordan, of 188 Northampton Street, passed away at the Boston City Hospital. Funeral services were held Friday at the E. L. Morrison Funeral parlors, with the Rev. J. Staples officiating. Interment was at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Eleanor Hickson of Yonkers, N. Y., left last week for her home after spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. Martha Shaw of Hammond Street and other friends.

Curtis McClane of Hazelwood Street returned from a short vacation spent in New York City, as the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. Peters of Portland, Me., accompanied by Joseph Bell, motored here last week, spending a few days as the guests of Mrs. Sarah Harris of Warwick Street.

Miss Iola Banks of Fayerweather St., Cambridge, returned Wednesday from Poland Springs, Me., where she spent the past month.

Frank Snowden, accompanied by a group of friends, motored to New York City, Tuesday, where he will be the guest of friends for a week.

Miss Mary H. Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Holmes of Springfield Street, and teacher in the public schools of Lewes, Del., left after spending the summer here. During her stay, many social events were held in her honor, including an affair with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. Crosby of Greenwich Park as hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Handy of Forsythe Street, who spent a two weeks vacation in Mashpee, motored to Newport, R. I., over the holiday spending a few days as the guests of relatives.

Mrs. Sarah Edwards of Kendall St., attended the Elk's Convention in Atlantic City, N. J. Before returning she will visit friends in Philadelphia, Pa., Jersey City, N. J., and New York City.

Miss Jean Westmoreland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. K. Westmoreland, arrived here Tuesday from Washington, D. C. Enroute here she was the guest of friends in New York City.

Mrs. Nanette Beckett of Wascott St., who motored to Athens, Ga., to visit relatives and friends, returned home last week. Mrs. Beckett was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Beatrice Jones of Wales Avenue, Everett.

Among those spending the weekend at Camp Armstrong, Lake Cobbescontee, Maine, were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ryles of Cambridge, Mr. and Mrs. William Roper, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker of Cambridge, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Turner of Newtonville, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Freeman.

Entertains Friends

A group of friends were the guests of Marron Forte at his home on Broadway, Cambridge, Monday following the tennis tournament. Cards, dancing and a bountiful collation were among the features of the occasion. Among some of those present were: Miss Dorothy Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Gray, Frank Snowden, Miss Frances Mason, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Fleming, Miss Clarice Curtis, Otto Snowden, William Dean and others.

Miss Imogene Roundtree, of New York City, formerly of this city, left after spending the weekend as the guest of her parents and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson of Westminster Street motored to Westbury, R. I. spending the week-end with relatives of Mrs. Jackson, whom she has not seen for more than thirty years. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Percival B. Smith.

Mrs. Daisy Reynolds of Tremont St., left Monday for Chicago, Ill., where she will remain for an indefinite time as the guest of her parents and other relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Fleming, Prof. Harold Montague and Dr. Fleming, Sr. were among a group from Hartford, Conn., attending the tennis tournament.

Erskine Roberts who has been visiting relatives on Walnut Avenue, left Thursday, motoring to Tuskegee Institute where he is supervisor of mechanical maintenance.

En route home from a motor trip through Canada, Mrs. Charles Janssen of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Ira Bryant of Nashville, Tenn., spent a few days here as the guests of Atty. and Mrs. Matthew Bullock of Windsor Street.

Marriage Announcement

Much interest is manifested in the announcement of the marriage of the Rev. Willard L. Clayton, pastor of the Union Baptist Church, Malden for the past eight years and Miss Evelyn F. Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morris of Herbert Street, Everett, Tuesday in Brooklyn, N. Y. The couple will reside at 245 Harvard Street, Malden. Miss Morrison is prominent in church circles and a teacher in the Sunday school.

Mrs. Sarah Stokes of Wallow Place, Malden, returned last week from Norfolk, Va., where she was the guest of relatives and friends, whom she has not seen for over thirty years.

Mrs. Paul G. Stevens, supervisor of junior high schools in Baltimore, Md., left the city last week, after spending a vacation as the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Garner of Sidney Street, Cambridge.

Lloyd Howard of Harrison Street who has been suffering from a knee injury, is able to be around without his crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McLean entertained a group of friends last week at their home. Cards, dancing and a bountiful collation were among the features of the occasion. Those present were: Miss Nina Hill, Otis Williams, Miss Olga White, Paul Smith of Montreal, Miss Virginia Ridley, "Bud" Fisher, Miss Nell Hariston, Jay Powell, Miss Helena Ridley, Linwood McLean, Alton Williams of New Bedford, and others.

Miss Helene Ridley, teacher in the public schools of Durham, N. C., left the city last week, after spending a vacation here as the guest of relatives and friends.

Angelo Herndon was the guest speaker at a meeting held Saturday at the Dudley Opera House, under the direction of the League of Struggle for Negro Rights.

Misses Myrtle and Genevieve Green of Harrison Street entertained guests over the weekend at their country home in Marlboro.

Hold Rally

The first in a series of house raffles was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Marshall of Walnut Avenue, in interest of the candidacy of David E. Lane for representative of Ward 12. It was very largely attended and proved very interesting.

Miss Jessie E. Jackson of Columbus Avenue left Thursday for a month's visit as the guests of her sisters, Mrs. S. F. Weaver of New York City; Mrs. John T. Lundy of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Pearl Jackson of Suffolk, Va.

John V. Farnell of Harold Street, accompanied by friends, motored to New York City last week to be the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Maud Oliver of Fayerweather Street, Cambridge, entertained a few friends at her home Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Marion Westmoreland of Washington, D. C. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. Smith, Mrs. Hattie Higginbotham, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Russell, Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, Miss Jean Westmoreland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Artis, Isaac Westmoreland, Miss Grace Robinson and others.

Mrs. Harvey H. Ferguson and Mrs. Janie Harris of Washington, D. C., have been the house guests of Mrs. Butler of Woodbine Street. Many social affairs have been held in their honor.

Casper Ferguson of Rockland Street, returned last week from Camp Atwater, where he spent the summer.

Miss Dorothy Williams of Madison, Conn., who has been attending summer school left last week for Washington, D. C.

Entertained at Tea

Mrs. J. Whaley of Washington, D. C., who has been the house guest of Mrs. Eula Hibler of Mt. Pleasant Street, Cambridge and Mesdames Janie Harris and Harvey Ferguson, who were the house guests of Mrs. Butler of Woodbine Street, were the guests at a tea held in their honor Sunday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. Ella Whiting of Walnut Avenue.

The hostesses on the occasion were members of the Elm Hill Club. Mesdames Ethel Coles, E. O'Banyoun, Katherine Averett and Ella Whiting. Among those present to greet the guests were: Mesdames Eula Hibler, F. V. Hughes, Anne Duckett, Samuel Laviscoun, Eva Thornton, Lella Austen, Alice Snowden, Rhena Elliott, Hilton Snowden, Benjamin Rutler, W. F. McCoy, Eleanor Stewart, Eliza Laviscoun, G. Whittemount, Clara Brown, J. A. Ackery, Misses Irene O'Banyoun, D. Snowden, Irene G. Barker, Messrs. Gould Wilson, Frank Snowden, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pasco, Dr. and Mrs. John B. Hall, Sgt. and Mrs. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Frye and others.

Among the Churches

Charles Street A. M. E. Church: the pastor, Rev. Oliver W. Childers, occupied his pulpit at the morning services taking as his topic, "Things that Accompany Salvation." The subject at the evening services was "Why We Should Believe in the Bible," which was also ably discussed by Rev. Childers.

Mrs. R. Brown of Auburn Street, an usher, and wife of William Brown died suddenly at the Boston City Hospital. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Brown also leaves two children. Under the direction of Atty Irvin T. Dorch, the fall rally opened at the Sunday services.

The sixty units of the church have begun to function in that interest.

Eastern Avenue Baptist Church, Malden: the pastor, Rev. H. Jackson, spoke at the morning services, taking as his subject, "The Rummage Sale." He also spoke at the evening services on "Sinner Forgiven." Among the members on the sick list are Mrs. Ira Davis and Mrs. Martha Wilson. The usual services of the church school were held.

Miss Marion Wallace of New York City was a visitor here last week. Among the various social affairs held in her honor was a party held at the spacious home of Miss Delphine Coleman.

Mrs. Annie Everett of Shawmut Ave., left last week for Richmond, Va., where she plans to spend the winter as the guest of relatives; she was accompanied by her nephew, Roger Smith.