

Urban League Staffers To Talk At Conference

Two members of the Chicago Urban League staff will join with Dr. Percy Julian in a unique community conference on Monday. Joining the re-known scientist at the Inter-Community Human Relations conference will be Alvin Prejean, deputy director of the league, and Warren Lehman, housing specialist.

Titled, "Human Relations: Pride and Prejudice," the all-day session will be held at All-gauers of the Villa Moderns in Highland Park. Aimed at promoting better understanding through meaningful education, the program is being co-sponsored by the following organizations:

Adult Education Council; American Jewish Committee; American Technition Society, North Suburban Chapter, Woman's Division; Anti-Defamation League, Midwest Region; The Bahai's of Glenview; B'-Nai B'rith Women, North Suburban Illinois Council; Board of Deacons & United Presbyterian Women, Glenview Presbyterian Church; Catholic Inter-Racial Council;

Congregation Beth Hillel Sisterhood; Congregation Beth or Sisterhood; Ebenezer A. M. E. Church; Evanston Human Relations Council; Glencoe Human Relations Committee; Glenview Human Relations Committee; Lake Forest-Lake Bluff Human Relations Council; National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; National Council of Jewish Women, North Shore Section;

National Council of Jewish Women, Evanston-Niles Section; National Women's Committee, Brandeis University, North Shore Chapter; Niles Township Human Relations Council; Northbrook Human Relations Committee; North Shore Congregation Israel Sisterhood; North Shore Hadasah; North Shore Human Relations Council; North Shore Service League; and the North Shore Unitarian Church.

Prejean, recently elevated to the position of deputy director, will be the resource person for a session called, "Land of Opportunity — For Whom?" Lehman will be resource person for a session called "Blockbusters and Block Builders."

Mrs. Louis Berns is chairman for the all-day conference.