PLAN DRIVE FOR ABBOTT LIBERTY SHIP

Informed this week that a Liberty ship would be named "Robert Sengstacke Abbott" in honor of the late founder, editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender, a drive was launched to raise $2,000,000 in U. S. war bonds to pay for the vessel. Photo shows a group of prominent Chicagoans mapping plans for the drive. Seated left to right, are: Josephine Brooks, captain, Robert S. Abbott unit AWVS; Lydia Adams, owner of Lydia's Beauty school and president
