

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Jan 31, 1914;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 5

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday afternoon, February 1, at 4 p. m., Mr. W. H. A. Moore will speak on "Recent English Poetry." Several musical numbers will follow. Last Sunday the overcrowded house indicated the interest in the visitors from the West Side Institution. Wednesday evening the Center Boys' Unity Club gave a social in honor of the parents. Mrs. Edna Johnson read the program, when musical numbers and addresses were given by the boys. Much credit is due Mr. L. Lloyd Stone, physical director, for his organized efforts in club life. A large delegation of parents and friends were in attendance. Several came from the Y. M. C. A. Refreshments were served. Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m. the Center Woman's Club, with address by Miss Birdie Hoynes and Miss Boaz.