

Ohio

COLUMBUS

By Phil Elliot

The Big Sisters of the Columbus Urban League, a Red Cross Feather agency, entertained at their annual Autumn Tea last Sunday. Members are Mrs. Margaret Lewis Peters, Mrs. Goldie Kearney, Mrs. Marie Randle, Margaret Jones Clark, Mrs. Alberta Pryor, Mrs. Anne Drake, Mrs. Ejetta Fears, Mrs. Anna Mae Moore, Mrs. Ida Madison, Mrs. Mary Rutherford, Mrs. Catherine Early, Mrs. Jessie Mae Jefferson, Mrs. Ethel Mayes, Mrs. Eleanor Ellis, Mrs. Juanita Tipton, Mrs. Nellie Hariston, Mrs. Anna L. McDade, Mrs. Anne Boston Walker, Mrs. Althea Taylor, Mrs. Margaret Bonner, Mrs. Maggie Mixon, Mrs. Willa Mae Teague, Mrs. Rousillon B. Davis, Mrs. Lovinia Jones and Mrs. Lula Roddy. Distinguished for her service as supervisor of Poindexter Center recreation, Mrs. Thelma C. Pruitt resigned her post because of ill health. Freda DeKnight, food expert for Ebony and recent authorities, will give a demonstration lecture after Christmas. Bill Smallwood of Los Angeles will accompany her. Frances Mitchell is convalescing from a painful illness at her home. The Nat Coles entertained Mrs. Charlotte V. Hoiston before leaving for Cincinnati. The New Dawn Garden Club held their annual Christmas exchange and breakfast last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Voorheis. Mrs. Mattie White is president. The Unique Embroidery Club met last Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Lelia Presie. Mrs. Hattie B. Redmond is president. Mesdames Ruth Green and Ethel Cooper are expected home from Los Angeles where they flew to attend the wedding of their brother, Elmo Kimbel. Recent additions to Columbus are Mrs. L. L. Mock and her son, Thaddeus of Philadelphia. They are living with Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery Townes at present. Mrs. Townes is Mrs. Mock's sister. Rev. Russell Jones, associate secretary of the University YMCA, was guest speaker at the carol candle light services at Mt. Vernon ave. A.M.E. church. James Days represented the Negro youth of Columbus on the panel discussion at the annual meeting of the Recreation and Youth Services Council at the Southern hotel. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wright are honeymooning after their wedding. Mrs. O. Caldwell was maid of honor. Mesdames Ruth Morrison and Francis Curtis were matrons. Oliver Caldwell was best man. The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's hospital in Bluefield, W. Va. He is a medical technician studying at Ohio State University. Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Sherard, Mrs. Joanna Turner, Mrs. Ruth Brooks, Miss Marguerite Isby and Mrs. Alfred C. Stone were among out-of-town guests who journeyed to Louisville, Ky., to attend the nuptials of Nellie Virginia Brown and Lloyd F. Brown. Dancing party of the season was the brilliant affair given by Alpha Phi Alpha at the Toppers Ballroom. The Wilberforce orchestra played. Hannibal Hull led the Alpha hymn this year. The Green Towers Gun Club were hosts Sunday at their annual game feast. Dr. and Mrs. Paul Hunter are in town to attend the wedding of their sister. Capt. and Mrs. Ed Mitchell and their daughter have returned to A. and T. College after visiting here. Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Sheppard have returned to their home in Flint, Mich. They were recent guests of her mother, Mrs. Ella Penman. Miss Blanche Kalfus was the guest of Atty. Elsie Austin during her Washington trip. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Martin were Thanksgiving dinner hosts to their three sons and wives. Dan Wells, Jr., leaves for California after Christmas for six weeks. He will attend the races at Santa Anita as guest of Rafaelo Cesteros of Cuba, who is his cousin. The latter has two horses entered at the track for the season.