

. IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear mother, Mrs.
Lavina Fleming Smith, who died May 5, 1919:

One year has passed, dear mother,
Since you were called away;
How well do we remember
The sad and weary day.
None know how sad the parting
Or what the farewell cost,
But God and His fair angels
Have gained what we have lost;
However long our life may last,
Whatever lands we view,
Whatever joy or grief be ours,
We'll still remember you.

(By Mrs. Ida M. Scott, daughter,
Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Laura Henderson, daughter, Meadville, Pa., and
Thomas W. Fleming, son, Cleveland,
Ohio.)
