

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 25.—Mt. Zion Congregational church celebrated its fiftieth anniversary last week. Excellent programs were rendered throughout the week. Dr. Frazier delivered an able sermon on Sunday and through the week addresses were made by such notables as Hon. John A. Green and Rev. Clark, the pastor. Special music was rendered by the Howland orchestra and beautiful solos were rendered by Mrs. Mildred Sellers and Mr. Dwight Jackson. Deacon Sampson and Mrs. Thompson, the only two members left out of the nineteen who were organizers of the church, read interesting stories of the church's history. * * * St. John's Sunday school will hold its annual rally tomorrow. On Monday evening the graduation exercises of the junior, cradle roll, primary, beginners and intermediate departments will be held. An interesting season is expected. * * * Rev. A. J. Irving of Farrell, Pa., preached soul-stirring sermons at Mt. Haven church last Sunday morning and evening. * * * Rev. Charles Bundy, the popular pastor of St. John's A. M. E. church, attended the North Ohio annual conference in Lima, O., last week and has been appointed to lead the same flock another year. He carried nearly $400 in dollar money to the conference, surpassing all previous records. * * * The death of Augustus D. Eubanks, who had been a sufferer from a complication of diseases several years, was keenly felt by his many friends. He was a very promising young man at the time he was stricken with illness, being a graduate of Howard university and the Cleveland Law school. A mother and grandmother are left to mourn his demise. * * * Among the prominent visitors in the city at present are Mrs. T. W. Walker and daughter, Miss Rachael Walker, who left for Paris, France, several years ago, the latter pursuing and completing the study of grand opera. Both speak in highest terms of the treatment accorded them in London and Paris. * * * Mr. Archie Satterfield, one of Cleveland's pioneer residents, died at Scranton Road hospital recently. * * * Miss Maggie Cook returned to Indianapolis Sunday, having had a most pleasant visit with her parents. * * * Mrs. William Hawkins of E. 43rd street died last Sunday after an operation. Funeral Wednesday afternoon. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Stevely and Miss Lucy Manson, who left Cleveland over a year ago to see the West, returned to the city last week delighted with their trip. * * * One of the most shocking and unexpected deaths occurring recently was that of Mr. Clifford Jackson, the beloved husband of Mrs. Cora Johnson-Jackson, formerly of this city. The deceased was one of Akron's most prominent young men. They had been married only a few months. The young widow is a niece of Mrs. William McIntire of this city and of Mrs. Mary Bowman and Mrs. Armintha Black of Chicago and very popular in social and church circles. Misses Bertha and Mabelle Blue, Mrs. Ida Cash and Mr. and Mrs. McIntire attended the funeral. * * * Messrs. James Starkey and Thomas W. Fleming, the latter one of our most prominent lawyers, delegates to the Elks' Grand Lodge in Norfolk, Va., report the best session ever held. Mr. Starkey was elected G. E. Loyal Knight, Mr. Fleming for the fifth time has selected member of the Ohio 'Republican executive committee.
