

Baha'i Assembly Plans Human Rights Day December 15th

WILMETTE, Illinois, — The establishment on December 10, Human Rights Day, of the North American Baha'i Office for Human Rights was announced by Dr. David S. Ruhe, secretary of the U. S. National Baha'i Assembly.

The office representing the Baha'i Communities of Alaska, Canada, the Hawaiian Islands and the United States will be located at the U.S. National Baha'i Center in Wilmette, Illinois. Appointment of the Director of the office will be made at a later date.

The office will promote International Year for Human Rights in 1968 and will carry out the recommendations made at the Baha'i Inter-continental Conference held in Chicago in October 1967. The conference issued a statement titled: "Human Rights Are God-Given Rights" giving the Baha'i viewpoint.
