

guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith of College Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Browning of the "Shuffle Along" company are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Alexander of Covington, Ky. Mr. Dabney royally entertained a few friends of the "Shuffle Along" company with a delightful luncheon at the Sterling hotel. Hugh Winous, en route to Albany, stopped over for a few hours in the Queen city. Miss Ada Crogman of Philadelphia was a guest at the Mercy hospital for a short time during the past week. Miss Christine Keller of Uniontown, Pa., was the guest of Mrs. Slater, Miss Georgia Keller. The nurses' training class has opened and is in full swing. Master Walter Hill celebrated his fourth birthday with a masquerade party Saturday. Mrs. Minnie Ward entertained her guest of Springfield, Ohio, with a breakfast Sunday morning. Mrs. Wm. W. of Dayton, Ohio, was the principal speaker at the Crescent club dinner at the Y. M. C. A. in Ninth St. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bedenbaugh entertained with a whist party Saturday evening. The Birthday club surprised Mrs. Lila May of Madisonville, Ky., with a birthday party. Mrs. Florence Wilson of Columbus, Ohio, motored through the Queen city last week, en route to the South. While in the city she was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Anna Sanford. The event of the week was the concert at Stowe school, given by the "Shuffle Along" company for the benefit of the organ fund. After the concert the company was royally entertained by the teachers of Stowe school with a reception and delightful luncheon. All agreed that the afternoon and evening were delightful. Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Cornish are making an extended visit in the East. They are at present in Washington, D. C., but will motor to Baltimore and Philadelphia soon. Dr. and Mrs. I. Garland Penn have just returned from Louisville, Ky., where their son, Irvin G. Penn, recently dedicated his handsome new church. Mrs. Vivian Hammond of New Jersey is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McCalet of Park Ave. Mrs. Arthur Logan of Park Ave. has as guest her aunt, Mrs. Margaret White of Chicago; her cousin, Arthur Taylor, and son Edward of Pittsburgh during the past week. Mrs. Sadie Paghe is substituting at the Douglass school. Arthur Porter of May St. died after a lingering illness. Mr. Ritter is visiting his son Bert and Mrs. Florence Parker of Foraker Ave. Mrs. Jessie Watson was the gracious hostess at a whist party at her residence. Mrs. Gaston entertained the younger set with a birthday party in honor of her daughter Elizabeth. The Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority made Stowe school a gift of $75 for the organ fund. Miss Blanche Liverpool is sick. Mrs. Alice Gentry is confined to her home. Mrs. Belle Quisenberry was severely bruised when she was thrown from a car Monday evening of last week. Only a miracle saved Mrs. Laura Hurl of 520 Perry St. from being seriously injured when she fell down a flight of stairs at her home. Mr. Hogan of Chapel St. is quite ill. Dr. Frank Johnson, one of Cincinnati's oldest physicians, quietly passed on to the great beyond. Mrs. Estella Davis was chosen delegate from a large number of eligible colored club women to attend the International Convention of Women. The session is being held in Decatur, Ill. Mrs. J. C. Foster has returned from a pleasant visit to Chicago. Master Jasper Blueford of Washington, Ky., was the guest of his uncle, William Coleman, while en route from Canton, Ohio. Mrs. Dolores Hoffman has returned from Philadelphia, where he buried his mother. Douglass school received a gift of $75 from Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority as an initial payment on a violin for the community house. Mrs. Frank Fisher entertained in honor of Mrs. Williams of Cleveland at the Inn last Saturday evening. Mrs. Lillian Braxton entertained her 500 club Saturday at her residence in Beresford Ave. Guests were Mrs. Harold Browning of New York, the Misses Kathleen Smith, Myrtle Richardson and Ruth Alston. A few of Cincinnati's musicians gave a very brilliant party for the "Shuffle Along" company at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Cox of Lincoln Ave. after the performance Friday evening. The all-star musical given by Miss Blanche Glenn at Bethel church Friday evening was quite a success. Some of the local talent appearing on the program were the Misses Ruth Alston, Helen Walker, Mary Bush and others. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Miller motored to Wilberforce for the week-end. The matinee given at Stowe school by the "Shuffle Along" company for the organ fund was quite a success. It was through the influence of Mrs. Alice Alexander that the community was able to witness this splendid matinee. After the matinee a reception dance and five-course dinner was given the members of the company. Miss Ruth Alston was chairman of the reception committee. Brownie's orchestra played for the dance and about 250 persons participated. The dinner was served to the company and 75 teachers and friends. Dinner was prepared by the catering department of the school. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Simon of Lincoln Ave. entertained at breakfast Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Hake, Mr. and Mrs. Sibley, Mr. Hann, Mr. Howard, Mr. Berry and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones of the "Shuffle Along" company. Miss Gladys Tatum rendered two beautiful selections at the "All Artist" concert Friday night. The future may look to her as one of its great prima donnas. Miss Sarah Bennett is also one of our young and prosperous musicians. Miss Bennett is Miss Tatum's pianist. Miss Spillers and Miss Gentry entertained Miss Hubbard and Miss G. Tatum with a delightful dinner in Wyoming. Covers were laid for 11.

Church Notes

Quite a number of members of Quinn Chapel A. M. E. church of Wilmington, Ohio, were in attendance at the conference here last Sunday. Judge Harrison of Oklahoma was the guest of Union Baptist church, where he spoke on Sunday evening to a crowded house. His eloquence as usual was as charming and interesting as ever. Union Baptist church observed Armistice day. Earl Stewart post, No. 127, American Legion, held their Thanksgiving victorious peace sermon Sunday, Nov. 11, at 3 p. m., at Union Baptist church. The Rev. Mr. Page, an ex-serviceman and pastor of the church, preached the sermon with his usual fervor and spirit. The Progressive club of Bethel church, composed of young people, raised $25 from their bakers' sale. The Sunday school mass meeting at Calvin Baptist church was a success. The Rev. Mr. Locust of Covington, Ky., preached at Union Baptist church Nov. 18. His choir was also present. Noble Sibley of the "Shuffle Along" company rendered a vocal solo at Park St. church Sunday morning.

West End Branch Y. W. C. A.

Friday, Nov. 16, a very beautiful recognition service was conducted in the assembly room for members entering since June. Mrs. McFarland of the membership committee presided with her customary ease. The new members were presented by Miss Lila P. Luckman, chairman of the membership committee, and received by Mrs. Norcom, executive secretary. Mrs. Helen Peters Wallace, president of the board of directors, gave the charge, "The Responsibility of Membership." Mrs. Grayson, Mrs. Lacey, and Mr. Webb rendered a trio and Miss Mary Wright gave a piano solo. The women of Cincinnati are realizing more than ever the responsibility and the joy in this nation movement of women for the extension of Christ's kingdom. Vesper, Nov. 25, will be conducted by the industrial committee, which will present a travelogue, "A Trip Through Yellowstone Park." The Residence club provided a program during the week of prayer, featuring Japan. Mrs. Norcom spoke on the association work there. Mrs. Florence Bowman sang very beautifully. The house was decorated with cherry blossoms and everything was there to add an oriental touch. The community study committee. Mrs. Beulah Samuels, chairman, is planning an entertainment for Dec. 7, "The Feast of the Seven Tables." The proceeds are to be used jointly for world fellowship work and the Christmas service work of the association. The Calendar clubs have begun their task of preparation for Christmas service work. Last year 356 carments, the majority of them entirely new, and 89 baskets carrying Christmas dinners were provided through the agency of the Calendar club members.

Arrivals at Hotel Sterling

Hotel visitors to the Queen city were, Roberta Tyler, Winchester, Ky.; Lee J. Purnell, Wilberforce, Ohio; A. T. Johnson, Indianapolis, Ind.; A. F. Davis, New York city; H. W. Hanns, Newark, N. J.; Chas. Wilson, Hazard, Ky.; Fred B. Crocker, Chicago, Ill.; H. Washington, New York city; G. W. Gray, Charleston, W. Va.; Arthur Johnson, Toledo, Ohio; A. T. Johnson, Indianapolis, Ind.; Eddie McNorris, city; Carl Littlejohn, Gallon, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones, Atlanta, Ga.; Harland Kaufman, city; Etta Willis and wife, Norrid, Bend, Ind.; and Mrs. W. A. Ningsham, Jersey City, N. J.; Rena Powder, Madisonville, Ky.; Mary E. Boyd, Madisonville, Ky.; W. F. Dunn,

New York city; H. Washington, New York city; Geo. Alexander, Huntington, W. Va.; Roy S. McClellan, Chicago, Ill.; Eddie McHarrison, city; Mrs. Glenn Chaplin, Huntington, W. Va.; Dave Smith, Indianapolis, Ind.; Arthur Flemington, Fronton, Ohio; J. A. Johnson, Cleveland, Ohio; Raymond Marshall, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson, Detroit, Mich.; S. M. Martin, Williamson, W. Va.; J. L. Jordan, New York; Ivo Broche, New Richmond, Ohio; John W. Clarke, Baltimore, Md.; the Rev. C. B. Mickent, Kansas City, Mo.; W. H. Hoffman, city; F. B. Crozier, Chicago, Ill.; Marvin Nench, Washington, D. C.; H. Washington, New York; Chater White, Huntington, W. Va.; Jack Perry, Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leach, Lexington, Ky.; T. K. Gibson, Columbus, Ohio; H. M. Davis, New York city; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis, Hamilton, Ohio; W. T. Keller, city; Leslie B. Hums, Hazelwood, Ohio; J. L. Taylor, Boston, Mass.; Joe Jackson, Madison, Ind.; H. H. Jones, Chicago, Ill.; Robert Williams, Covington, Ky.; Martin French, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry, Dayton, Ohio; H. L. Davis, New York city; E. E. McCarris, city; President and Mrs. J. A. Gregg, Wilberforce, Ohio; the Rev. John Steward and wife, Birmingham, Ala.; E. Jones, city; J. N. Donthill, Mt. Sterling, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Carter, French Ky.; Ind.; Reuben Reaster, city; L. L. Lewis, Washington, D. C.; Fletcher Body, Grady, Ala.; U. J. Johnson, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mary M. Craig, Athens, Ohio; Martin French, Washington, D. C.; J. A. Johnson, Indianapolis, Ind.; J. P. Phipps, Louisville, Ky.; J. M. Willis, North Bend, Ohio; Jas. J. Hickman, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.; N. M. Wright, Lima, Ohio; J. W. White, Lima, Ohio; Willie Binger, city; J. L. Taylor, Boston, Mass.; Tea McDowell, Dayton, Ohio.

COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Orville Peyton spent several days in Ross county on a hunting trip. William Garmes, lifelong resident of this city, died Wednesday at his home in Hillaris. He is survived by two sons, two daughters and a widow, Mrs. Shaw. An active worker in St. Paul's A. M. E. church, died Tuesday. Mrs. Tapscott, St. Clair Ave., died Friday. Dr. Beatrice Gaines, Cleveland, Ohio, will attend the West Virginia-Wilberforce game in Columbus Thanksgiving day. Sherman Holloway and Elsworth Guy, Steubenville, are heading a motor party to Columbus Thanksgiving day. Miss Jennie Doll, Chillicothe, Ohio, will head a party of friends to Columbus for the football game. Ross Dolby, crack half-back of East High, starred in the East-North game Saturday. Coach Jefferson of Wilberforce will send his squad of thirty-three to battle against West Virginia Thanksgiving day. Misses Alberta and Pauline Ransom spent the week-end in Cincinnati. The following were elected officers of Lucy Thurman W. C. T. U.: Mrs. Gertrude Anderson, president; Mrs. Nannie Good, vice president; Mrs. Vinny L. Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. Thelma L. Jones, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lucy Smith, treasurer. Miss Marjorie Daw, Cleveland, will attend the football classic Thanksgiving day. Dr. Love and family of Xenia, Ohio, will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and mother at Thanksgiving day. The Delta Kappa Sigma entertained with a party for members and friends at the home of Elias Tuggle. Julius Tyler spent a successful three-day hunting trip last week. Mrs. Sherman Weaver was tendered a very pleasant birthday surprise last week. The Mary Gault Sick and Children's hospital was visited at home of Mrs. D. N. Lucas. Dr. G. W. Mosby has purchased a new Buick sedan. J. D. Pauncey of Pittsburgh left Monday for Kansas City. Owen B. Artis and Howard Hamilton were initiated Friday evening into the Delta Kappa Sigma fraternity. T. J. Adams, president of the Supreme Life and Casualty company, spent the week-end in Chicago. Miss Maude Crump of Louisville, Ky., is the guest of Miss Gertrude Clifford. L. C. Blount, J. E. Hubbard, J. S. La Monte and John H. Patterson left Monday for Detroit, Mich., in the company of the National Retail Dry Goods Insurance company. The death of Mrs. Marie Hagland occurred early Sunday morning at the Old Folks' home. A very large and appreciative audience attended the Hazel Harrison recital at Memorial hall last week. The fathers and sons' concert put on by the Spence children was quiet but of a most excellent success. Richard Price of Dayton, Ohio, was initiated into the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity Friday evening.

NEWARK, OHIO

George C. Berry, spent a few hours in the city Monday. Mrs. Paul Sander underwent a serious operation in the City hospital Wednesday and is improving greatly. Knights of Pythias gave their annual ball at Elks hall Thursday, Nov. 15. Le Roy, an uncle of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Adams, died in Alliance Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. John Cable attended a large reception in Columbus recently. Wm. Rorex motored to Utopia Friday. A. Combs, C. P. Henry and K. L. Black, motored to Granite recently to attend the football game. Miss Viola Hall, who has been visiting her uncle, K. L. Black, Wright St., was called to illness of her grandmother. Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCauley and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dickson, 305 Washington St.; also Mrs. Lawrence Beceley, who toured from Pittsburgh. The guests were highly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verline, 127 Morris St. Prof. P. S. Hill delivered a wonderful sermon at Trinity A. M. E. church Sunday evening. Rev. J. M. P. McDonald has returned to his home in Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Adams, son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Tucker and Mrs. Chas. Martin, who called to Alliance to attend the funeral of a relative, Mrs. Wm. Jones had visitors from Columbus Sunday. A. H. Cunningham has returned home after spending a few weeks in a Columbus hospital.

ELYRIA, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Slaughter of Avon Lake and the Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Morton of Cleveland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vinson of Bank St. on Sunday, Nov. 11. Ernest Harris and Miss Annie Seales were married Wednesday evening. A sumptuous dinner was served in their honor. The Rev. W. L. Noel performed the ceremony. Red Fox has been very quiet several days. Now the hunting season is on and he expects to keep very busy. Miss Edna, 2040 Bank St., has been confined to the Memorial hospital after an operation, but is improving. Mrs. Mary McClain is at the Memorial hospital awaiting an operation. Miss Laura May Nickels has returned from Chicago on account of the illness of her mother. Mrs. Nickels likes the windy city very well. People of the South End can get their Defenders from the South End Record and Supply store. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mulloy, proprietors, 18 Oberlin Rd.

TROY, OHIO

Luther Whorton, Smith Richmond and family motored to Cynthia, Ky., to spend a few weeks. Miss Kate Barton is very ill at the home of her niece, Mrs. Hazel Dorsey. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard White of near Laura, Ohio, were shocked when they received word of Mrs. White's death at Miami Valley hospital, Dayton, Ohio, Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ross and son Clifford were in Dayton Sunday to see the body before it was removed to her former home in Hunterville, N. C.

PIQUA, OHIO

James and Lew Collins of Lockland were guests of their mother, Mrs. Abbie Collins of North St., last week. Perry Lworia of Columbus spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. William Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Coleman of Dayton and Mr. Gaines of Springfield were guests of Mrs. Abbie Collins Sunday. The community center mass meeting held Monday night at the Park Ave. Baptist church was a success. The Rev. Mr. Liggins of Cyrene A. M. E. church recently of Cincinnati, has moved his family here. Mrs. Wade Reese is on the sick list. Mrs. E. J. Williams is slightly indisposed. Mrs. Nettie Freeman of Portsmouth is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Evans in Park Ave.

FINDLAY, OHIO

Henry Williams died recently. Funeral services were held at the A. M. E. church in Liberty St., with the Rev. W. E. Watson officiating, assisted by the Rev. C. H. Green. Interment was in Maple Grove cemetery. Mrs. Williams was a visitor in Toledo recently.

TOLEDO, OHIO

At a very largely attended meeting of the N. A. A. C. P. Sunday at the Frederick Douglass community, 15 N. 11th St., the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Attorney Jesse Heslip; first vice-president, Miss Ida Lee; second vice-president, Mrs. Robert Bagnall; secretary, Miss Ruth Castle; treasurer, L. H. Banks; executive board, Miss Mud W. Ford, Thomas Mattox, Miss Roger Williams, Mrs. Minnie Scott, Maurice Moss, Frank Gardner, Wm. A. McCoglin, A. J. Anthony and Miss Marie Hrter. Next Sunday at the usual twilight meeting of the Douglass center, an open forum will be conducted. The style show given at the Douglass center last week was largely attended. Miss Bertha Jackson was the director. Miss Bertha Jackson left last week for Jacksonville, Fla., to spend the winter. Mrs. Mattie DeVan and Mrs. Rachel Bond are confined to the hospital, having undergone operations. Mrs. Burton has opened a beauty parlor at Michigan and Monroe Sts. The Never Give Up club, an organization of Warren A. M. E. church, gave a banquet in honor of their husbands Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kimbrough, 100 Woodland Ave. The ministers conference entertained their wives with a banquet on Monday evening at the Friendship Baptist church. On last Tuesday evening the Circle Leaders guild of Warren A. M. E. church, at their annual meeting, elected Mr. C. M. Long president and Frank Williams secretary. On Friday evening of last week a birthday surprise was given Mrs. Maud Tandy at her residence, 906 Coventry. She received many presents. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Cline and family and Chas. W. Jones. A delicious supper was served. Miss Edna Tandy, 906 Coventry Ave., entertained on Saturday evening with a slumber party, complimenting Mrs. Talmadge Watson, Detroit, Mich. Others present were the Misses Ida Lee Price, Ruth Castle, Hazel McCown, Myrtle Dancy and Mrs. Mildred Mason. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Arthur of Cleveland are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Johnson. Mrs. Dora Manley is in Atlanta, Ga., visiting her sister, Mrs. Alonzo Herndon. R. A. Lett, after a very pleasant visit with his parents, and Mrs. E. C. Cline, who is in Alabama, has returned to his home, 401 Pinewood Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson and daughter and Mrs. Clyde Hayes of Detroit, Mich., were the guests of Mrs. Elsie Ollen last week. On last Monday evening, Mrs. Geo. Handall, 735 Woodland, entertained in honor of her son George's birthday. The house was beautifully decorated and covers were laid for 18 guests. Mrs. Dora Brown of 361 Nebraska Ave. spent a part of last week in Lima, Ohio. Mrs. Nettie Marsh, after a pleasant stay in the home of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Hart, Pinewood Ave., has returned to her home in Xenia, Ohio. Stephen Ross of Pinewood has as his guests his daughter, Mrs. Helen Simms, and her daughter of Denver, Colo. Miss Lillian Rutherford of Dallas, Texas, after a visit of three months, has returned home. Mrs. Lott has returned home. Mrs. H. Murry's home, 317 Elizabeth St., was badly damaged by fire recently. The house has just recently been purchased. Revival services have been in progress at the Third Baptist church for the past two weeks. The Rev. W. H. Moses of New York. The ministers of the city will hold union Thanksgiving services at the Third Baptist church Thursday morning, Nov. 23. The Rev. P. A. Nichols of the Warren A. M. E. church will preach the sermon and the Rev. T. B. Scott of St. Paul's A. M. E. Zion church, will act as master of ceremonies.

XENIA, OHIO

Miss Gertrude Blade of Cleveland was the guest of the Rev. Samuel Blade and wife of E. Church St. Mrs. Nettie Cowles of E. Market St. left Wednesday night for Topeka, Kan., to visit during the winter with her son-in-law and daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Young. Miss Sadie Buster of Wilmington was the Sunday guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, of E. Main St. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Greene of Columbus were Monday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Phenix of Evans Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marchant, who have also been the guests of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Phenix, left for their home in Roanoke, Va. Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Scott motored to Cincinnati Wednesday. Mrs. Issy Roberts entertained with tea to her friends on Saturday afternoon and again on Monday. Mrs. Robert Wagner of Tuskegee, Ala., Miss Gladys R. Scott of Huntington, W. Va., Mrs. Henry Talbert and daughter of Detroit, Mich., and Robert Russell of Cincinnati were in the city and attended the funeral of Little Russel Scurry. The Royal Twelve club and a few friends spent a very enjoyable afternoon with their popular hostess, Mrs. Gertie Lane. Mrs. Garfield Jones and Mrs. Irvin Finley of Dayton were among the invited guests. The East End has been organized in the Greene county Red Cross financial drive. R. A. Braxton is the chairman. Mrs. Lloyd Clark of E. Main St. has returned from Lancaster, Ohio, where she was in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Smith (nee Scott), who was well known here. Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Crudello Hunter for a Farmers' Institute party to be held at her home on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hunter has been the clever hostess to many unique affairs and this function is awaited with great expectations. Mr. and Mrs. G. Roberts of Columbus were Sunday guests of their mother, Mrs. Julia Evans, of E. Market St. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Ellis and children in company with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellis, all of Columbus, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orange Ellison of the Jamestown pike. Armistice day was observed last Friday afternoon at East High school with the following program: Song, "America;" school invocation, the Rev. Mr. Hancock; violin solo, Chas. V. Smith; vocal solo, H. B. Smith; address, E. T. Banks; benediction, the Rev. Mr. Young. The feature of the program was the patriotic address by Mr. Banks, Y. M. C. A. secretary with the 82d division and now clerk of the municipal court of Dayton.

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

Mrs. William Wade entertained the members of the Liddronso club at her home on W. Earl Ave. last Thursday afternoon. The Kentucky oyster supper which was to have been given by the Court of Calantha at the home of Mrs. Saunders, 35 Lane Ave., on Tuesday has been postponed to Wednesday, Nov. 28. Mr. and Mrs. John Petty and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Baker and sons motored from Cleveland Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hill on Woodland Ave. Raymond Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher of North Ave., student of Ohio university, and Mr. Grimes of Columbus motored to the city Saturday and were the guests of their parents. Mrs. Chas. Lincoln of Ridge Ave. left for Detroit, Mich., where she will visit relatives for a few weeks. William A. Taylor of Nemacon, Pa., is in the city for a few days on business. Mrs. Oils Wagner received the members of the Achievement club at her home, 512 Cleveland St., last Thursday evening. Mrs. Maggie Curtis of W. Arlington St., well known resident of the city, passed away at her home Friday, Nov. 16. The Rev. John Lee of Philadelphia arrived in the city last Friday.

CANTON, OHIO

The Menelik Culture club held its annual woman's day program at St. Paul A. M. E. church Sunday afternoon. Miss Leanova Pritchett, Urban league secretary, delivered the main address, taking as her subject, "Woman's Contribution to the Advancement of Civilization." Mrs. Ann Gillespie, corresponding secretary of the club, presented some interesting facts concerning the work of the organization. Mrs. Lottie Hunter rendered a beautiful solo selection. Mrs. Katherine Summerville, president, presided. The Canton Civic league is laying plans for a community Christmas tree on the Community playground Dec. 25. A group of girls met at the Community house Tuesday evening and under the direction of Miss Pritchett, organized into Girls Reserve clubs. Mrs. J. H. Walker and Miss Leanova Pritchett were guests at the annual meeting of the Associated charities at the Northern hotel last Wednesday. Geo. P. Titus and A. L. Foster were also present. Dr. Jackson, who is at the head of the work of the Associated charities in Cleveland, delivered the main address. Covers were laid for approximately 70 people. Last Wednesday night Cleo Smallwood presented the first of a series of winter and spring festivals at Fraternal hall. Mr. Smallwood gave a very splendid interpretation of Poe's "The Raven." Out-of-town artists who appeared on the program were Mrs. Mary Colson, soprano; Harold Dorsey, violinist; and Bert Brown, saxophonist. A club of employed girls was organized last Thursday afternoon at the Community house. After the meeting their had their first party. The Neighborhood Advisers club, which consists of women who are assisting in the organization of Neighborhood clubs, met last Thursday and laid plans for carrying on this work. All arrangements have been completed for the annual meeting of the Canton Urban league at the First Presbyterian church Friday night, Nov. 23. Dr. J. A. Gregg will be the principal speaker. The program will begin at 6 p. m. At 6 o'clock the members of the board of trustees and their wives will hold a luncheon at the Community house. The Menelik Culture club met last Thursday night at Miss Gladys Adkins' home. Plans are being laid for a New Year dance to be given in Canton. Mrs. Clem Evans read a splendid paper on "Co-operation."

MARION, OHIO

The Rev. Mr. Lewis of the Park St. A. M. E. church is visiting his mother in Indiana. Supper was served at the Park St. A. M. E. church Thursday evening by the Good Samaritans for the benefit of Mrs. Lewis, who is now in the hospital. The Maple Leaf lodge, K. of P., No. 68, of Marion, Ohio, are putting on a membership drive and are doing very good work. The Ladies Mite mission was entertained at the home of Mrs. A. G. Fanning. Miss Varion Taylor and Mrs. Ollie Williams motored to Cincinnati to visit friends. Clarence Mennedall is looked upon as the greatest football player on the Hardin High school team this season. He is the only Race player on the team. Mr. and Mrs. F. Lanins of Iowa are here visiting Mrs. Lanins' mother, Mrs. H. Gardner of Washington, D. C., is now making his home with his cousin, John H. Nichols.

CINCINNATI NEWS

By L. LLOYD STONE
706 Mound St.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 23.—The Mercy hospital gave a benefit show at the new Roosevelt theater. Among the special features were numbers by some of the "Shuffle Along" company, a song and dance number by Miss Evelyn Randolph, a solo dance by Miss Magbie Hall and vocal solo by Miss Helen Walker. Miss Vanesha Ward of Dayton was the attractive week-end