

Bahai Delegates Visit

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); May 12, 1928;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 7

Bahai Delegates Visit

Willard Hatch, Los Angeles, Calif., traveling teacher of the Bahai movement; Mrs. E. Oglesby and Mrs. E. Edwards, 6148 Indiana Ave., visited the office of The Chicago Defender Thursday and were conducted through the plant by Editor Abbott. Mr. Hatch and Mrs. Oglesby, who are guests of Mrs. Edwards, were among the 95 delegates to the Bahai convention which was held at Wilmette during the week.

The Bahai movement is founded upon principles of the unity of God's children, and their teachings stress the importance of fairness and justice to all human beings, regardless of color. Meetings are held at the Foundation hall at Wilmette every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, to which all are cordially invited.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.