

Elks Chief Is Feted At Cleveland

CLEVELAND.—J. Finley Wilson, grand exalted ruler of the Elks, was given a great ovation Sunday at the Elks Rest here. He came here as the special guest of King Tut lodge, No. 389, and Mary B. Talbert Temple, No. 257 at the closing of the membership drive which was conducted under the supervision of Rev. William M. S. McClutcheon, and Z. E. Brown.

Speakers were Harold H. Burton, mayor of Cleveland; Lawrence O. Payne, member of the Ohio Parole board; Councilmen Augustus G. Parker, Harold T. Gassaway and William O. Walker; Lethia C. Fleming, candidate for grand daughter ruler; Thomas E. Green, Jr., of Akron, Chief Antler Council, No. 15, District No. 1; Harriet Bowie, president of State Association of Daughter Elks; Perry B. Jackson, assistant police*prescurtor, and president of the State Association of Elks.