

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

3032 Wabash Ave.

---

Sunday afternoon, Nov. 30, at 2 o'clock, Mr. Adelbert H. Roberts, the famous orator, will speak on "Wendell Phillips, the Abolition Orator." Mr. Roberts' talent as a platform speaker has won for him a favorite place among his hearers. Mrs. Martha Anderson, the celebrated singer, will give several vocal numbers.

Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 2, at 2 o'clock, the Center Woman's Club meets. After the business session Miss Ellen Snyder will continue to review Prof. DuBols' book, "The Quest of the Silver Fleece." There is much interest in our club this year, the standing committees doing their work in a very profitable manner.

The annual Christmas program will be given this year by the joint efforts of the boys' and girls' classes. Mrs. A. C. Cone, the leader of the junior music class, is giving it an early attention. The teachers of the domestic science class will spend Thanksgiving vacation among relatives out of the city, which will give the girls a rest Saturday morning.

[Note.—No more club notes will be accepted on postals. Write plainly, pointedly and on one' side of the paper.]
