

Add New Workers For Philadelphia Y Drive

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21—Several well-known Philadelphians answered the call of the Y.M.C.A. and joined its campaign workers this week, according to announcement from the Christian Street branch.

Bishop David H. Sims, A.M.E. prelate, became chairman of the committee on church cooperation; Walker K. Johnson, state employee and civic worker, chairman of the special gifts committee, and Theodore R. Penney, parole officer, chairman of the speakers bureau.

G. James Fleming was added to the staff of the association to work in connection with the campaign.

Division chairmen are Miss Goldie Ervin, Miss Rosa L. Pitts, Mrs. Belle Miller, Mrs. Marguerite Brannon, Dr. Thomas Georges, Handy Beckett, Scholley P. Alexander and Harold Pilgrim.

Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hill, president of Cheyney State Teachers college is general campaign chairman.