A highlight of the convention will be the annual report of the chairman, Mrs. Joanna H. Ransom of Xenia, Ohio, who will tell of the progress of the council during the past year and challenge Negro college men and women to make themselves more articulate in these times of world wide chaos.

Another feature of this year's convention will be the report of the chairman of the national program committee, Prof. S. Randolph Edmonds of New Orleans.

Elsie Austin, grand president of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, as the speaker at the interfraternity dinner, which will be held at the Morris Eat Shop on Saturday, Aug. 30.

Presiding at the public meeting will be Atty. George W. Lawrence, who is vice chairman of the council. Mrs. Ethel Ramos Harris, secretary of the council, will render instrumental and vocal selections at the interfraternity dinner.

Other members of the national executive committee include Miss Bertha M. Black, national president of Sigma Gamma Rho sorority and a popular school teacher in St. Louis, who is treasurer of the council; Mrs. Margaret Davis Bowen, principal of Gilbert academy; A. W. Dent, Atty. James E. Scott and William C. Pyant, who was formerly chairman of the National Pan Hellenic Council.
