

TRIBUTE TO NOTED JOURNALIST

Ethel Waters, America's sweetheart of the stage, paused during her stay here last week and paid silent tribute to the memory of the late Robert Sengstacke Abbott, dean of Negro journalism and editor and publisher of the Chicago Defender. Miss Waters is shown here viewing a painting of the noted journalist which will be on display at the American Negro Exposition.