FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday afternoon, July 5, at 4 p. m., Dr. Rosalie Ladova will speak on "Life in Russia and the United States." She will be remembered as the woman who, after a threatened arrest at Jackson Park bathing beach, was able to make good her defense before the courts and her plea for a more rational bathing costume for both men and women. Music in charge of Mrs. Antoinette Crump-Cone and her class. The first of the summer students' socials for those attending the Chicago University will be given Friday evening, July 10, at 8 p. m., when Dr. G. C. Hall will give the address, "Present Conditions of the Negro North and South." The discussion will be opened by Mrs. C. P. Woolley.
