With Our Soldier Boys
Edward T. Banks, the 11 secretary of the Y. M. C. U. Dayton, Ohio, gave a most thrilling tale of his experiences on the battle fronts in France before a large and appreciative audience at Tridstone Baptist Church last week Monday evening. Mr. Banks rendered most valiant service with the 32d Division, was gassed five times and went "over the top" as many times. He spoke of the hospitality of the French people and praised in the highest terms the fighting qualities of our boys on the front. Mr. Banks will return the latter part of the month and lecture in the interest of St. James' A. M. E. Church. He was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Anderson, 2328 East 30th street. At the close of his lecture Mr. Banks displayed a rare collection of trophies which he collected "over there." Lieutenant Noble Sissle, tenor soloist of the great 369th (old New York 15th) band, giving a series of concerts in Chicago this week is making a great hit with the Chicago audiences, composed of all races. Sergeant W. D. Jefferson, Camp Grant, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jefferson, here last week. The "Soldiers' Aides" entertained in grand style for the boys from overseas at Mrs. Louis Jackson's residence, 2265 East 49th street. S. L. Toney, 325th 1st Signal Battalion, has returned to the city, having been honorably discharged. He says that the 325th was the only signal battalion "over the top." Mr. Toney's native home is Avonla, Va. Miss Bertha Smith received an interesting letter from Wesley Jackson of the 303d Pioneer Regiment in Mont-Cahune, France, only six hours run from St. Nazaire. He is in fine health and hopes to be here very soon. The following extracts were taken from a letter from Corporal Louis V. Jones of the First Army post band, Bar-Sur-Aube, France, to his mother, Mrs. Louis S. Jones, 2250 East 101st street: "Received your letter just twenty days from the time I received your last letter. I heard from Ernest Hayes, who is back in civilian clothes again; also from William Hunslett, still in Chillycothe. Our band had the great pleasure of playing for the big army chiefs over here—General Potshing and aides, who had as guests the King and Queen of Belgium, and General H. Liggott, commander of the First Army A. E. F. We played for them at Chateau, about eight kilometers from Bar-Sur-Aube. Our music was greatly appreciated by everybody, although we were obliged to play under very inconvenient circumstances, namely, out in the open in a heavy downpour of rain and a strong, chilly March wind. But as we are in the army and like good soldiers we did our tasks well. We were wet through when we finished and cold as icebergs. It is rumored that we in the First Army post will leave in the near future. Every doughboy over here is wondering when. Yesterday I went to a concert given by French artists which was very good. It made me forget for the time that I was in France, but rather in one of the Boston music halls. Several of the band boys have received papers from home, and among them is the Chicago Defender and the New York Age. I doubt that I have ever mentioned in any of my letters that our band is the only Colored unit transferred from a Colored labor battalion to a white organization like the First Army is here, also an outfit dominated by a lot of Southern troops anywhere from Virginia to the Gulf. But let me say here that on one occasion of importance these Southern boys stuck by us—also the officers—when a certain thing was threatened. Can't mention what it was on account of the censors. Let me say right here that our band is a decided hit with the soldiers and the French civilians alike. I shall have lots more to tell when I return to Cleveland. Remember me to all in Cleveland."
