

- AROUND THE HUB IN - Boston, Mass.

By C. ELLIOTT FREEMAN
85 Harold Street Phone Hig-6484

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 26—Mrs. Ida Falcon of New York City spent a few days visiting relatives in Cambridge, Newton and this city.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Harris of Humboldt avenue, left last week to visit relatives in Washington. They were accompanied to New York City by J. H. Madden of Shawmut avenue.

Miss Addie Carter of Columbus avenue returned Monday from a short business trip to New Rochelle, N. Y.

Robert Hanson of Northampton street, accompanied by a party of friends motored to Portland, Me., last week-end.

Mrs. Lottie Roper of Walnut avenue, who has been confined at the Boston Lying-In hospital has returned to her home, well on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Young of Bower street, entertained friends at their home Wednesday evening, in celebration of their fifth wedding anniversary. Cards, dancing a bountiful collation were enjoyed by over 20 of their friends.

Bishop Walls Coming

On next Friday evening at the Columbus Avenue A.M.E. Zion church, Bishop W. J. Walls, D.D., of Chicago, will speak on "Personal Observations in Europe." While here Bishop Walls will be the house guest of Rev. and Mrs. William D. Battles of Wellington street.

Mrs. Julia Dixon of Humboldt avenue, who has been ill for the past ten days, is improving slowly.

Henry Simmons of Tremont street left last week to spend the remainder of the winter months with relatives in Richmond, Va. En route he spent a few days in Washington, D. C., with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Long of Columbus avenue entertained friends at their home Tuesday at dinner, in honor of their house guest, Mrs. Daisy Kimble, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Covers were laid for 14. Mrs. Kimble left Thursday after a week's stay.

Club Notes

At the regular monthly meeting of the Q.E.Q.'s last Friday evening at the League of Women for Community Service, plans were completed for a social affair to be held the first of next month, with the drawing of cash prizes.

Prominent talent secured by the publicity chairman, Mrs. Blanche Chandler Morris, will be the feature of the Fall Musicale Festival sponsored by the members of the Varick Christian Endeavor Society of the Columbus Avenue A.M.E. Zion church, the second Sunday in next month.

Mrs. Bessie Simmons of Humboldt avenue was the hostess last week to the members of the Mayflower Social club. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. J. Morgan and Miss Peggy Perkins.

The members of the Imperial Art club were the guests last Wednesday evening of Mrs. Florence Taylor of Dale street. Plans were completed for the distribution of Thanksgiving baskets and for a fashion revue.

Mrs. Bobby Rogers of Yarmouth Street entertained the members of the Juniors Matrons club Friday evening. A substantial amount was reported from the bridge and luncheon held at the Richardson shop for the Thanksgiving charity work. Plans for a holiday matinee dance of youngsters were discussed with a committee appointed including Mesdames Madeline Freeman, Bernice White, and Dr. Jessye Garnett. Mrs. Madeline Stokes was admitted a new member.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Prentiss of Brooklyn, N. Y., accompanied by their two children, spent the week-end here with friends.

J. M. Cunningham of Tremont street who was called to Philadelphia, Pa., because of the serious illness of his mother, returned to the city Monday, leaving the patient improved.

Miss Henrietta Daniels of Springfield street, left last week to spend an indefinite time with relatives and friends in Cleveland, Ohio. Enroute, she was the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. Romney of New York City.

Mrs. Florence J. Lewis of Shawmut avenue returned from a trip to New York City. While there, she was the guest at the Ispica club dance, of which her hostess, Miss Iris Arvious, is president.

Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. C. M. Howe entertained friends at dinner last week in celebration of her birthday. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clausen Dickinson, Miss Nadine Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Churchill, William Bouchier and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Paxton. Misses Jane Dickinson and Corinne Howe served as waitresses.

Vocational Conference

On last Thursday the Aristo club and the Boston Urban League held their first vocational guidance conference at the Robert Gould Shaw school for the students of junior high school. Girls and boys in large numbers from this city, Worcester, Malden, Everett, Brockton and West Newton were in attendance. Four distinctive groups were led by Miss Wilhelmina M. Crosson, teacher in the public schools, "Professions"; Mrs. Alice Taylor, head of Boston Porro college, "Business"; Miss Myrtle Anderson and Edward Dixon, "Trades" and Misses Alma Kitt, Gladys Gray and Ralph Johnston "Fine Arts."

The general assembly was under the direction of Miss Alberta M. Carrington, chairman of publicity. Readings and piano selections were rendered by Annette and Clarence Elam and Alfred Clarke, pianist. Summarizing the actual accomplishments of the young Race men and women in the past ten years by reviewing the experience of seven different personalities. George W. Goodman, secretary of the Boston Urban League, gave a most inspiring talk.

Included in the committee sponsoring the conference were: conference, Miss Helen Danc, chairman; Dr. Jessie Garnett, Miss Gertrude Smith, Mrs. S. Harris and Atty. Joseph Mitchell.

Speakers, Miss Teresa Lew, chairman; Miss Wilhelmina Crosson, George Goodman and Miss Gladys Gray.

Publicity: Miss Alberta Carrington, chairman; Madison Denniston and Emerson Pierce.

Capt. Holman Pryor of Hicks street, West Newton, was the guest at a birthday party held in honor of his 71st birthday. The hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kenswil of Kinnaird street, Cambridge.

Plan Christmas Celebration

Extensive plans have been formulated by the members of the music committee of the adult recreation in Upper Roxbury, for the presentation of extra musical festivities during the Christmas holidays. Prominent on the committee are Mrs. Marie Ellis, chairman; Mrs. E. Creves, vice chairman; Mrs. E. Foye, Mrs. Lulla McQuitter, Misses R. Brown, Quilla Baptiste and Norris Davis. The orchestra of 38 amateur musicians under the direction of Benjamin Van Derwoude, white, meet at the St. Mark Social center Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Gross

Mr. and Mrs. George Gross of Westminster avenue, prominent in Bahai circles, returned from a delightful motor trip to Binghamton, N. Y., and Scranton, Pa. They were accompanied by the Countess DeLanti of Rome, Italy, and Mrs. Irene Forte. In New York, they were guests at a special banquet held in Hotel Arlington, after which they motored to Scranton, Pa., where they were guests of Mrs. Gross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Jones. They were guests at many social affairs during their stay. The psychology group of Scranton entertained them at the Scranton Chamber of Commerce, when Mrs. Forte and the countess rendered musical selections. Before returning they attended the Bahai meeting at Hotel German, where Harlem Oher of Beverly was guest speaker.

Miss Laura Holmes of Philadelphia, Pa., who was called here on business spent a few days here with friends. She was accompanied to New York City on her return by her hostess, Mrs. T. Jamieson of Worcester street, who plans to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Allen of New York City arrived here Saturday to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Allen's brother, James E. Banks, who died suddenly in Montreal, Canada.

Columbus Ave. A.M.E. Zion Church

The Rev. H. R. Jackson, D.D., presiding elder of the New England conference, was the guest speaker at the morning services of the Columbus Avenue A.M.E.Z. church Sunday. The regular sessions of the Church School Bible classes and Varick Christian Endeavor were largely attended. In the evening the pulpit was occupied by the pastor, the Rev. William D. Battle. Musical selections were rendered by the senior choir, directed by Dr. W. O. Taylor and Prof. Fred White, organist.

Mrs. Jennie Ellis of Massachusetts avenue left for her former home in Richmond, Va., to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Gaines. She was accompanied from New York City by her brother, G. H. Gaines, and her niece, Mrs. Bertha Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weston of New York City, accompanied by a party of friends, en route to New Hampshire, spent the week-end here with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holloway of Burlington, Vt., spent a few days here last week visiting relatives and friends. They were accompanied by their baby daughter, Elaine, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith of Everett and Mrs. Julia Dixon of Humboldt avenue.

Mrs. Mary Plunkett of Main street, Everett, is improving very slowly at her home.

Miss Olive Frances of New York City, who spent Thanksgiving day here left for her home, Friday. She was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Greer of Cunard street.

David Allen of Shawmut avenue returned from a short stay with relatives in Greenwich, Conn., and Pawtucket, R. I.

Deaths and Funerals

The remains of Mrs. Mollie Jackson wife of Alonzo Jackson of 7 Spring Terrace, who died very suddenly last Friday were shipped to Macon, Ga., for interment.

The funeral of Edward Coleman of 68 Kendall street, who died last Sunday, was held at the chapel of the J. B. Johnson Funeral home, the Rev. E. E. Thompson, officiating. Interment was at Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. Minnie Lewis, wife of Elmond Lewis of 24 Newcomb street, died at her late residence last Tuesday. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. William D. Battle at the Columbus Avenue A.M.E. Zion church, Friday. Interment was at Mt. Hope cemetery.

Melvin Harrington of 16 Albion street died last Wednesday. Services were held at the J. B. Johnson home Saturday. Interment was at Mt. Hope cemetery.

James E. Banks, husband of Mrs. Anna Banks of 11 Elbert street, died suddenly of a heart attack in Montreal, Canada, Friday. Funeral services were held Monday at the Norris Davis funeral home, the Rev. E. E. Thompson officiating. Harvey Huggins was soloist. Mr. Banks leaves a widow, a son, James Jr., a mother, Mrs. Henrietta Banks, of Cambridge; three sisters, Miss Iola Banks, Mrs. Marguerite Allen of New York City, Mrs. Dorothy Moore, Mrs. Henrietta Jackson of Portland, Me., one brother, David E. Banks, and many other relatives and friends. Interment was at Mt. Hope cemetery.