The fourteenth annual Vocational Opportunity Week will be observed through Mar. 17 at the Milwaukee Urban League. The national motto this year is "Helping Negro Youth to Prepare Today for Tomorrow's Opportunities."

Part of program schedule follows:

Wednesday, Mar. 13 — Individual interviews and conferences in addition to a quiz session on the Negro at 7.45 p.m., in the Urban League Library.

Thursday, Mar. 14 — All Boys Day. Young men from 14 up will have an opportunity to discuss all phases of vocational opportunities.

Friday, Mar. 15—All Girls Day. A similar program that was held for the boys on Thursday will be repeated for the girls and women.

Saturday, Mar. 16 — Skit by the Junior Dramatic Club, "The Challenge to Negro Youth."

On Sunday, Mar. 17, Dr. Alain Locke, professor at the University of Wisconsin, will be the guest speaker at St. Mark AME Church. His subject will be, "Today's Crisis and the Young Negro."

A new organization, called the "Les Copins," a social club, was formed. Elizabeth Watson is the president and Myrtle Renfro, secretary.

Lawrence V. Hill, recently discharged from the Navy, and Miss Rushelle Myers were married at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Galloway, 1745 No. Fourth st. Rev. M. J. Battle of Calvary Church performed the ceremony.

G.S.O. is completing plans for changing its organization into a business, professional and industrial girls club of the YWCA. With the official closing of Milwaukee County USO activities in April, member agencies are taking over the program.

The YWCA Singers appeared at Shorewood High School. Soloists with the group were Mrs. Edna Brown, Mrs. Mary Burclay and Miss Dorothy Fisher. Mrs. Arlene Buckley Lozar is director.

The Delta Sigma Theta Jabberwock has been set for Saturday, April 13. "A Springtime Rhapsody" will be the theme and all skits entered by civic and social clubs will be built around a popular song title.
