

Baha'i News

Editor To

Speak Here

Mrs. Eunice Braun, of Evanston, will speak at the Baha'i House of Worship Sunday, March 10, at 3:45 p.m. Her subject will be "World Order — Will it Come?"

The House of Worship is at Sheridan Road and Linden Ave., Wilmette.)

Mrs. Braun, an alumna of the Northwestern University School of Journalism, is managing director of the Baha'i Publishing Trust as well as International News Editor for the Baha'i News, the international news journal of the Baha'i Faith. The author of published short stories, poetry, and articles, she has also written informative pamphlets and educational materials for the Faith.

She is vice-chairman of the Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of Evanston. She has spoken for her Faith in many places, including the Eskimo village of Point Barrow, Alaska, Whitehorse, Yukon, and Chichicastenango, Guatemala.