

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Aug 21, 1915;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 6

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday, August 22, at 4 p. m., Dr. S. C. Woodson will speak on "The Negro Prior to 1861." Dr. Woodson addressed the Tower Hill, Wisconsin, Congress last Sunday when a large audience listened attentively to his message. He will be followed by a representative of the State Medical Association which is in session here this week. He will be introduced by Dr. A. Wilberforce Williams of the City Health Department. Several musical numbers will follow. Friday evening the students' social was addressed by Dr. George B. Foster of the Chicago University which was well received. Mrs. C. P. Woolley returned from Tower Hill, Wis., Tuesday, after a pleasant week's speaking engagement at Dr. Jenkin Lloyd Jones' Summer Congress.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.