

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Miss Spaulding Tours
Miss Margaret Spaulding, daughter of C. C. Spaulding, financial manager of the North Carolina Mutual Life insurance company and a student in Flisk university, stopped in Chicago with her father on his tour of the western and Eastern cities. Father and daughter left Thursday on the Broadway limited for New York city, from where they will proceed to the meeting of the National Negro Business league in Norfolk, Va.

Dr. Dove's Son Christened
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bush of Little Rock, Ark., stopped in Chicago on route to the meeting of the National medical association in Washington, to be at the christening service of John Dr. Dove, Jr., 9-months-old son of Dr. Lillian S. Dove, 3745 Grand boulevard.

Mrs. Burdette in St. Louis
Mrs. Albert Burdette, 4419 Prairie avenue, left last week to visit relatives and friends in St. Louis, Mo. She is the house guest of Mrs. Arthur Wilkerson, 1220 Lucky street.

Prominent Guests at Party
Miss Maude L. Wanzler, supervisor of music in the Charleston public schools; Miss Virginia Wanzler, teacher of voice in the same city; Miss Marie L. Paynter, teacher in the public schools of Louisville; and Miss Augusta I. Payne, secretary of the school of music at Howard university, were the honored guests at a pleasant evening in the home of Mrs. Blanche J. Thompson. A number of local artists contributed to the evening's entertainment.

Visitors
Among those who visited the Defender office during the past week were Mrs. James M. Henderson, wife of the well known presiding elder of the Methodist diocese; her son, Alderman J. Langston Henderson, of Hantrianck, Mich.; her daughter, Miss Laurenette Henderson, the well known pianist of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. J. Langston Henderson and son and Mrs. Cornelius Henderson and son were also members of the party.

Miss Jackson Entertains
Miss Rachel Jackson, 3025 Calumet avenue, entertained with a dinner party Sunday afternoon in honor of Prof. Frederick Hall, instructor of music in Jackson college, Atlanta, Ga., and supervisor of the public school music of that city. A large number of guests were present.

Receives Bank Appointment
T. E. Gray, 4805 Wabash avenue, son of one of the oldest and most prominent families of Chicago, has been appointed assistant cashier at the Binga State bank.

Mrs. Byrtha Mills Dies
Mrs. and Mrs. William Blackburn and Mrs. Hillard Williams, Fort Dodge, Iowa, were called to New Orleans, La., on account of the death of their mother, Mrs. Byrtha Mills, last week. On their return they stopped in the city a few days to visit relatives.

Porter Simpson in City
Porter S. Simpson, Colorado Springs, Colo., was in the city for two weeks' visit with his sisters and brother, Medaunes Mattie Jones and Idella Brown and John Brown, 3431 Prairie avenue. He is accompanied by his niece, Lynda Jones, who spent a year in the West attending school.

Mrs. Laura Pennington Dies
Mrs. Laura Pennington, Oklahoma City, Okla., died Monday, August 7. She was the sister of Mrs. Eva Emery, 4152 Wabash avenue, and wife of T. C. Pennington.

Mrs. Lottie Gamble in City
Mrs. Lottie Gamble, Kansas City, Mo., is in the city for a few days stopping at the Vincennes hotel. She attended the Masonic convalesce held in Washington, D. C., last week and will be joined here by her husband and they will leave next Wednesday for New York, Boston, Atlantic City, and returning by way of Canada.

Presley Palmer Dies
Presley Palmer died August 10 in Piqua, Ohio. He was the brother of John George and Abraham Palmer of this city, who left to attend the funeral. Mrs. Levina Armstrong, Urbana, Ohio, sister, also accompanied the remains to Sidney, Ohio, for burial.

Visiting in Idlewild
Mrs. Grant Campbell, 3644 Giles avenue, and Mrs. Caldwell Henderson, 3533 Giles avenue, are spending their vacation with Mrs. Stewart Betts in her cottage "Madru" at Idlewild, Mich.

Wait Ellis Keeps Going
Walter A. Ellis, formerly identified with Chicago weekly newspapers and pioneer circulation manager of the Favorite magazine, is now associated with the staff of the Detroit Independent as circulation and advertising manager.

Januarys Entertain
R. H. January and mother, 5838 La Salle street, entertained at dinner Wednesday evening Mrs. Lillie Watkins, Mrs. Riley Watkins, Riley Watkins, Jr., Nashville, Tenn., and Mrs. Georgia Atkins and Mrs. Goldie Cook of this city.

Lecturer to Convention
The Rev. Dr. J. Francis Robinson, noted preacher, lecturer and friend of the late W. Allison Sweeney, was a visitor in Chicago this week. He is filling with great credit the position of general field secretary of the National Baptist Sunday school publishing board and is leaving tonight from his home in Cambridge, Mass., to Los Angeles, Cal., to attend the annual session of the National Baptist convention.

Mrs. Stewart Takes Trip
Mrs. Viola Stewart, 724 East 42d street, is spending the month of August with her father, John S. Logan, Howardsville, Va., where a family reunion is being held.

Mrs. Sherman Convalescing
Mrs. Irene Sherman, 19 East 47th place, is recovering from an operation in the Chicago General hospital, under the care of Dr. Kenny.

Husband and Wife Injured
When husband and wife, Charles Smith, 21, and Carolina Smith, 20, were walking along at 41st street and Michigan avenue an automobile bore down upon them. Both were carried to the South Side hospital. The Smiths reside at 4056 Indiana avenue.

Improved
Mrs. Alice Settles, 11346 South Throop street, Morgan Park, who has been confined to her home for several days on account of illness, is much improved.

Back From Ohio
Mrs. Eliza Jackson, who was re-elected state grand queen of Illinois of A. U. K. & D. of A., a few days ago at the annual session of the national grand council held in Columbus, O., has returned much pleased with her trip.

Dr. Bibb Returns
Dr. M. R. Bibb, 3650 Michigan avenue, director of the Liberty Life insurance company, who attended the national grand council meeting of the A. U. K. & D. of A. and the opening of the Liberty Life insurance office at Detroit, Mich., has returned to the city. While in Columbus he was elected national grand medical examiner of A. U. K. & D. of A.

Leaves for Idlewild
Dr. P. Charles Down, medical examiner of A. U. K. & D. of A., state of Illinois, returned from Columbus, O., and left during the week for Idlewild, Mich., where he will spend two weeks on his vacation.

Mrs. Jones Injured
The well known song composer, Mrs. Daisy Jones, 23, 3545 State street, suffered a sprain in her knee when she fell from the rear platform of a State street car at 39th and State streets.

Meet After Twenty Years
R. B. Barcus, assistant attorney general of the state of Ohio, and M. T. Ralley, president of the alumni association of the V. N. & L. I., Petersburg, Va., met for the first time since graduating from the school in 1900 at the annual convention of the national grand council of A. U. K. & D. of A. held in Columbus, O. Attorney Barcus delivered the address of welcome on August 7 on behalf of the K. of P. who had gathered there from twenty-two states. Wednesday, August 9, the Hon. John

Bahai movement meets every Sunday at 3:30 in Masonic temple, corner Randolph and State streets. All welcome.

W. Oatmeal, justice of the peace of Washington Court House, O., Virgie Johnston certified accountant with the National Life and Casualty Insurance Company; Attorney Barcus and M. T. Bailey, all graduates of the V. N. & L. I., conferred on plans for the benefit of the alumni association of the said school and talked of the days of yore and were entertained at dinner by Attorney Barcus.

Postal Clerk Takes Poison
Richloride of mercury tablets were taken by Leonida Blagburn, a postal clerk, with suicidal intent. No reason was given for his act. He is confined in the County hospital. Blagburn is 22 years old and lives at 4201 Prairie avenue.

Fractures Child's Skull
A motorcycle, owned and driven by Edward Johnson, 5307 State street, ran over Leslie Wilson, 11, 5742 State street, while he was playing in the street at 57th place and Lafayette avenue. The child suffered a possible skull fracture and other injuries.

Tot Falls Three Stories
While playing on the third floor of his home at 547 46th place, little 2-year-old Louis Winston fell out of the window to the ground. He fell about twenty feet. He was carried to the County hospital, suffering with a severely bruised head and body.

Cut by Glass
An automobile, which was being driven at a terrific pace, struck a truck at 32d street and Wabash avenue which was being driven by Cleveland Bolden, 37, 4748 State street. Bolden was painfully cut by the flying glass.

Cut by Husband
During a quarrel with her husband in their home at 3105 State street, Mrs. Mary Baron, 24, was painfully cut by him. He made his escape after the assault.

Internally Injured
Al Huff, 37, 4050 Federal street, was internally injured when an automobile in charge of Will Webster, 3111 Wabash avenue, struck a State street car on which he was riding at 25th and State streets. Huff was a passenger on the front end of the car.

Uses Bowl as Weapon
Fifty cents was the cause of an argument between Walter Allen and Miss Flora Dukes. Allen, who is just 20 years old, seemed to be getting the better of the argument. Mrs. Dukes gathered her resources, which consisted of a large bowl, with unerring aim she whirled it. The bowl flew straight to the head of Allen. He was carried to the South Side hospital with cuts on his neck and head. The trouble occurred at 4230 Calumet avenue.

Shock Causes Illness
The shock of being arrested caused Mrs. Annie Cook, 67, to become ill. She was removed to the Bridewell hospital when she became worse. Mrs. Cook was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Mamie McDuffree. Both of the women reside at 2913 Dearborn street.

Elmer Stout Dies
Elmer Stout, a well known decorator and husband of Mrs. Jessie Stout, died suddenly in his home. Death was apparently due to heart disease.

Visitors Entertained
Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Thompson, 3541 Calumet avenue, entertained with a parlor dance at their home in honor of Mesdames S. R. Snelling, Oakland, Cal., and O. S. Murray, Los Angeles, Cal. The guests voted Mrs. Thompson a delightful hostess.

The Trices Return
Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Trice, 6435 Eberhardt avenue, who have been visiting Prof. and Mrs. T. M. Dent, Washington, D. C., returned home Sunday night on the Shriner Special. Mr. and Mrs. Trice report that they had a delightful trip.

Injured by Auto
While attempting to cross the street at 37th and State streets, Ralph Green, 27, 3702 State street, was severely bruised when he was struck by an automobile. He was carried to Provident hospital by Officer Cazzelle Whitley of the Stanton avenue station.

Samuel Webb Dies
Samuel H. Webb, 3247 Wabash avenue, for many years a familiar figure in Chicago's social life, died Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Charley Jackson undertaking parlors, 3319 State street.

Quarrel Over Pool Game
A dispute over a pool game was engaged in by Thomas Graham, 21, 624 East 35th street, and a man known only to him as "Red" at 3801 Cottage Grove avenue. Red employed his knife as a more efficient settler of disputes. Graham was cut in the stomach and side.

New Use for Scissors
It was the duty of Officers Savage and O'Brien of the Stanton avenue station to pull a pair of scissors from the leg of Mrs. Fannie Hoffman, 35, 3334 Rhodes avenue. Mrs. Hoffman engaged in a quarrel with her husband, and he threw the scissors at her.

Mrs. Wallace Entertained
Mrs. Mae C. Walker, 3561 Grand boulevard, entertained with a theater party at the Majestic theater in honor of her guest, Mrs. Josephine Wallace, Salisbury, N. C. This was followed by a dinner party at her home, where covers were laid for twelve.

Shot During Visit
During a visit here Clifton Hall, 26, 1234 Chicago avenue, Evanston, became involved in an argument with Horace Tostin, 241 North Paulina street, when they met at Pauline and Fulton streets. Tostin drew a gun and shot Hall in the foot.

Fight on Street
Two residents of the Third ward brought their troubles to the Second ward and started a fight on State street between 35th and 36th streets. William Jenkinson, 23, 4232 Calumet avenue, has a three-inch cut on the upper lip which was inflicted by William Holman, 4404 State street, during a quarrel. An old grudge is said to have caused the trouble.

Drinks, Fighting Liquor
Everyone warned him, cease quarreling, he would not stop. He engaged in a quarrel with Charles Terry, 1512 Dearborn street. Terry struck him over the head with a stick. When carried to the hospital for treatment he stated that his name was Berry Herron, 40 years old, and that he lived at 6223 Ada street. Witnesses stated that Herron was intoxicated.

Horse Struck by Auto
A horse and wagon, which was being driven by Oscar Coleman, 28, 3335 South Park avenue, were struck by an automobile at 31st street and Michigan avenue. Mr. Coleman suffered a badly lacerated leg.

Held for Murder
Robert Potter, 26, 3410 Calumet avenue, who fought a duel to the death with Charles Pine, 28, 3549 Eden avenue, at 31st street and Cottage Grove avenue, was held to the grand jury for murder by a coroner's jury.

Sent to County Hospital
The following persons were sent to the County hospital this week: Wesley Chisen, age 25, 60 West 35th street; Mrs. Bertha Morgan, 46, 3525 Dearborn street; Mrs. Catina Butler, 20, 2927 Dearborn street; Mrs. Allazora Bennett, 39, 3242 Wentworth avenue; Stella Chasney, 45, 1912 Dearborn street; Rufus Ramsey, 55, 1311 State street; Mrs. Anna Shaver, 50, 4324 Cottage Grove avenue; Miss Junice Crimmons, 20, 2935 Dearborn street; William Harding, 45, 5534 Wabash avenue; Mrs. Elbie Williams, 32, 513 East 35th street; and Mrs. Gertie Thomas, 30, 3523 State street.

Killed at His Post
While working at his post as a switch tender of the I. C. railroad, John McCloud, 42 years old, 29 West 19th street, was struck by a train. He sustained a fractured skull and five broken ribs. He was carried to St. Luke's hospital, where he died soon after from his injuries.

Has Epileptic Fits
Pedestrians picked up Mrs. Ruth Leavell, 23, 4423 Evans avenue, at 43rd street and St. Lawrence avenue, where she had fallen with epileptic fits. Emmett Robinson, 18, 3123 Prairie avenue, was found at 51st street and Michigan avenue, also a sufferer of epileptic fits.

Falls to Street
While riding on a wagon at 49th and Dearborn streets, 14-year-old Floyd Vance, 29 West 59th street, fell to the street and suffered painful injuries.

Shot by Falling Revolver
Orlander Bostick, 30, 422 Tremont street, was carried to the hospital suffering with a bullet wound in the leg. He stated to the police that he was playing with a man named Saunders, when the revolver of Saunders fell from his pocket and was accidentally discharged, the bullet wounding him in the leg. The trouble occurred in the rear of 4911 Federal street. Saunders was locked up, pending the investigation of the story told.

Officer Covington Injured
The ringing of a burglar alarm attracted the attention of Officer Christopher Covington, who was patrolling his beat at 37th and State streets. Noticing a man run up an alley, the officer pursued him. Officer Covington tripped and fell. He suffered a fracture of his index finger.

Good Samaritan Bitten
Filled with the spirit of a good Samaritan when he saw a dog lying in the street with a broken leg, Arlie Wright, 12, 2615 Wabash avenue, attempted to pick the dog up to render first aid. He was bitten by the dog. Other persons bitten by dogs this week are Edward Simpson, 4, 2605 South Park avenue, and J. H. Thomas, 28, 2119 South Park avenue.

Little Girl Injured
Little 5-year-old Victoria Rankin, 623 East 35th street, was carried to the South Side hospital suffering with injuries she received when she was struck by an automobile. The child attempted to cross the street in front of her home when she was struck by the car.

Attempts Suicide
The thoughts of happy days with her husband kept recurring to her. She could not banish them from her mind. Her husband had been her all. Grieved beyond measure, when she recalled that all her overtures to him had been spurned, Mrs. Marie Jackson, 21, 2257 Indiana avenue, drank carbolic acid poisoning and with suicidal intent. She will recover.

Runs in Front of Car
While playing in the street, Ben Miller, 16, 4501 Indiana avenue, ran in front of an automobile at 45th street and Indiana avenue and was severely injured. He was sent to Provident hospital.

Sent to Psychopathic Hospital
On an order of the court, Q. T. Bray, 23, 2250 Bearborn street, was sent to the psychopathic hospital to be undergoing an investigation into his sanity. Hugh Griffin, 51, 5003 State street, was also committed.

Off for Idlewild
George Warner, 3522 Calumet avenue, accompanied by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rose Warner, nee Carr, left this week for Idlewild, Mich., where they will join Mrs. Corrie Warner, wife and mother-in-law respectively. Mrs. Rose Warner is the wife of Capt. Joe Warner of the old Eighth regiment.

Dodges Suicide
According to the records of the police station, Fred Fields, 26, 3023 Michigan avenue took a mouthful of lysol while despondent. He spat it out immediately after taking it. He suffered no ill effects.

Injured While Passenger
Phillip Gibson, 45, 3403 Wabash avenue, was carried to the Provident hospital suffering with injuries he received when a Yellow cab in which he was riding collided with a Black and White cab.

The Fate of the Peacemaker
While acting as a peacemaker during a quarrel between two men in the Schiller cafe, 320 East 31st street, Carlton Harris, 37, 302 East 31st street, was hit on the head with a bottle. The timely arrival of Officer James Majors of the Stanton avenue police station possibly prevented further trouble. Harris is nursing five cuts on the head.

Beats Wife Severely
Kicked, beaten and thrown out of a cab in which she was riding with Duke Roberts, 2257 Cottage Grove avenue, was the fate of Mrs. Emma Roberts, 22, 2959 Wentworth avenue. Mrs. Roberts is confined at the County hospital. Her life is despaired of, as she is in a serious condition.

His Caveman Tactics
"After having this woman for four years it made me mad when she said that she was going to quit me, so I smacked her in the mouth," declared George Brown, 2807 Wentworth avenue, when arraigned before Judge Laurence B. Jacobs. Brown was arrested on complaint of Mamie Clark, who charged him with assault. He was fined $10 and costs.

A la Raymond Hitchcock
"All dressed up and no place to go" was the interpretation put upon the costume of James Wesley, 630 East 33d street, as he appeared in court dressed up in full dress suit, minus a shirt. He stated that he was so intoxicated that he did not know what he was doing. He was arrested by Officer Howland of the Cottage Grove station as he was dancing in the street with an imaginary partner.

Creditable Mention
In accordance with the recommendation of Lieut. John McCann of the Stanton avenue station, creditable mention is hereby given Sergeants Julius Glenn and Timothy Dillon and Patrolmen Edward Mulcahy, William Brown, Benjamin Stokes and Mark Cummen for the attention to duty and intelligence displayed by them in apprehending Robert Spencer and Robert Tilton, who were sentenced to the penitentiary for committing several robberies.

Makes Hit at Pageant
The Pageant Community chorus, of which Prof. J. Wesley Jones is conductor, sang at the pier last Tuesday and Friday night, as had been announced, and the thousands of people who heard them praised their singing as the best they had heard. Prof. T. R. Chapman, F. Brock and Miss Harding, Mrs. Robinson and Miss Mary Clark assisted in leading the singers. Miss Lowell V. Derrick was the accompanist. More than 500 people were in the chorus.

Dr. R. R. Wright, Jr. to Speak
The fourth of the summer Sunday afternoon musicals promises to set a new record for attendance at the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The affair will be held in the gymnasium under the direction of Prof.

James A. Mundy. In addition to an unusually strong musical program, Dr. R. R. Wright, Jr. of Philadelphia will speak. An informal reception to which visitors in the city especially are invited, will follow the program. The doors will open at 3:30.

Elmer Stout Dies
Elmer Stout died Tuesday, August 8, at the late residence, 4550 Evans avenue. Mr. Stout was a decorator and well known in the business world. He was the only son of Mrs. Jessie Stout and leaves to mourn his loss a loving mother, two aunts and other relatives. Funeral was held Thursday, August 10, at McGavock's undertaking parlors with Rev. Rivers officiating.

Doormen and Chauffeur Picnic
First annual picnic given by doormen and chauffeurs at National Grove, Wednesday, Aug. 30, from 12 noon to 11:30 p. m. Music by Prof. Watson's orchestra, with Alfonso W. Young as dancing master. Bowling, baseball and foot races. Take La Grange street car at 22d street to grove. Admission 50 cents.—Advertisement.

Stork Visits Carters
Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Carter, 732 East 48th street, are the proud parents of an eight and three-quarters pounds boy born Friday, August 4. Mother and baby doing fine, with Dr. J. W. Burrell attending.

Mrs. Acey Entertains
Mrs. Daisy Acey, 3534 Prairie avenue, entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Mrs. Willie Meadows, teacher in the public schools of Fulton, Ky. Other guests were Miss Ophelia Miller, Keldaville, N. C.; Mrs. Mary Kemp, Mrs. Carrie McCoy and daughters, Carol and Lynette.

Dr. Offord and Party Tours
Dr. A. J. Offord, 524 East 37th street, and party, including Frank A. Anglin, service manager of the Harvey Motor Truck Co., and Edward Laidlaw, merchant tailor, will motor to Grand Rapids, Mich., Saturday, August 19, in his Buick coupe, to be the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson, 1629 Sigbee street. From that point they will tour western Michigan, including Grand Haven, Muskegon, Holland and Idlewild. Dr. Offord was one of the leading mechanicals of the Challenge Machinery Company, manufacturers of printing machinery, of Grand Haven from 1906 to 1916 inclusive. The party will return in about eight or ten days.

Frank W. Greenup Dies
Frank W. Greenup died at the late residence, 442 East 46th street, Monday, August 14. Funeral services will be held Sunday, August 20, at Ebenezer Baptist church, 2:30 p. m. Interment will be in Clinton, Ia., Tuesday.

Rev. Craven in City
Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Craven, Quincy, Ill., are spending a three weeks' vacation in the city at the residence of Frank Wyche, 425 Wabash avenue. Rev. Craven is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute and has organized a church on the north shore. He is now pastor of Union Baptist church, Quincy, Ill. During his stay in Chicago he will preach at various churches.

Prominent Georgians in City
Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Singleton, Atlanta, Ga., pastor of Big Bethel church, and a large delegation from Atlanta reached Chicago Tuesday evening over the Big Four. They are in attendance at the session of the People's congress, which is in session at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. church. Among those in the party are: Dr. H. D. Canady, P. E., Atlanta district; L. A. Townsend, P. E., South Atlanta district; Rev. J. R. Epperson, Messrs. J. H. Covington, J. L. Wheeler, J. E. Moore and H. L. Chambliss; Mesdames N. E. Simonson, M. A. Ford, S. Sims; Misses Rosa M. Cosby, M. E. Evans and the Hall sisters, all of Atlanta. The party was in charge of Rev. J. W. Langster, Decatur, Ga.

The Miltons Entertain
Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Milton, 4433 Calumet avenue, had as dinner guests last Sunday, Mrs. R. Dix and daughter Rita, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hensley, Maywood, Ill., and Robert Milton, Pensacola, Fla. Miss Dix is the sister of Mrs. Milton and is a teacher in the Philadelphia schools, as is her mother.

Dies of Burns
George Glover, 308 East 33d street, died at the Provident hospital of burns received while lighting a furnace at the Great Western Smelting plant, 41st and Wells street, Saturday morning. He was burned beyond recognition, and died soon after the hospital was reached. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death at the inquest held Monday at the undertaking parlors of S. J. Fountain, 3336 Indiana avenue.

Nurse at Pageant
Mrs. Minnie Jackson, 4336 Indiana avenue, is representing our group of nurses at the $2,000 baby contest now being held under the auspices of the Herald and Examiner at the Pageant of Progress, being held at the Municipal Pier.

Entertains with Dinner
Mrs. Emma Williams and daughter, Mrs. Anna Washington, 4605 Indiana avenue, entertained at dinner Tuesday in honor of Mrs. James Cook, French Lick, Ind. Out-of-town guests present were Mrs. Mamie Blount, St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Stuart Indianapolis, Ind.

Stork Visits
The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bowles, 4554 Indiana avenue, and presented them with a fine 7 1/2 pound baby boy. Mother and baby are doing fine, while Mr. Bowles awaits the opportunity to walk down the street wheeling a baby carriage.

Entertains Visitors
Mrs. Zephine Dell, 3516 Grand boulevard, entertained with a luncheon Monday in honor of C. V. Harris, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. D. S. Gardner, Atlanta, Ga., and L. S. Reid of New York city. Covers were laid for eight.

Attending University
Among those in attendance during the second term of the summer quarter at the University of Chicago are Prof. M. H. Griffin and H. Council Griffin, both of Montgomery, Ala. Prof. Griffin is now connected with the state department of education of Alabama, having in charge the teacher-training work, and is director of the Julius

Rosenwald Building fund for rural schools of the state. Mr. Trenholm is an honor graduate of the College of Education of the University of Chicago, and is now an instructor in education at the state normal school, Montgomery, Ala.

Convention Delegates Here
Prominent Chattanoogaans are here to attend the Congressional conference which convenes at Lincoln Congregational church next week. Among the delegation from Chattanooga are Prof. and Mrs. W. H. Singleton, Prof. L. W. Henderson and daughter, Miss Marie Henderson; Rev. Cash, Mr. and Mrs. L. Goodlowe, Mrs. Joseph E. Smith, Miss Emma Henry and Mrs. Gertrude Blanton and children.

Return From Vacation
Mr. and Mrs. Leroy P. Johnson, 1631 Walnut street, have returned after having spent a month's vacation. Their itinerary consisted of all the points of interest in the East, and while East were the recipients of many courtesies.

Return From Masonic Meet
Albert Frierson, 5138 Dearborn street, has returned to the city after attending the Masonic convalesce in Washington, D. C., in company with his wife, Mrs. Louise Frierson. Mrs. Frierson continued her trip East and will visit New York, Boston and Atlantic City before her return.

Gives Garden Party
Mrs. P. J. Evans, 515 East 41st street, gave a garden party last Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Evelyn Horton and daughter, St. Louis, Mo. The spacious lawn was decorated with Japanese lanterns and music was furnished by a victrola under a large tree. More than fifty guests were present. Mrs. Lucille Herfft, Columbia, Mo., and daughter, Anna Fisher, are house guests of Mrs. Evans.

Divorce Granted
Miss Camille Canton, formerly Mrs. Christopher Cole, has returned from St. Louis, Mo., and is stopping at 469 East 31st street. She was granted a divorce August 5 and has resumed her maiden name.

Mrs. Slaughter Wilson in City
Mrs. Lydia Slaughter Wilson, St. Louis, Mo., originator of the Slaughter System of Beauty Culture, is in the city and has opened a branch shop in the Avenue theater building, Apt. A, third floor. Although her formal opening will not be held until Saturday, August 19, a number of persons finding out her location have patronized the new beauty shop, which is equipped with all modern electrical devices for the perfection of Mlady's toilet. Appointments can be made by phoning Douglas 1810.—Advertisement.

Noted Attorney Dies
Hon. George T. Abbott, noted lawyer of Chicago, died Saturday morning, August 12, at the late residence, 2912 State street, at the age of 58 years. Mr. Abbott was born in Egypt, Miss., and was a graduate of Fisk university. He practiced in Nashville, Tenn., for many years and came to this city about twenty-three years ago, where he became very prominent in Second ward politics. Funeral was held from the chapel of the Emanuel Jackson company, Thursday, August 17, Rev. J. Robinson officiating. Interment at Mt. Glenwood. He leaves a brother, John W. Abbott, Widner, Ark.; five sisters, Mesdames Annie Q. Smith, Maggie Lyons, Memphis, Tenn., Charity Woodard and Mamie Lambert, Brinkley, Ark., and Mrs. Millie Lewis, Chicago; two nephews, James Williams and James M. Lambert, Chicago; and two nieces, Mrs. Louise Williams and Miss Willie Mae Lewis, Chicago.

MacAlpine Injured
Prof. Samuel MacAlpine was injured recently at the Mueller Brothers' picture framing establishment here, such an extent that he is now at Columbia hospital for an operation. He is assistant choir master at Walters' A. M. E. Zion church.

Registered at the Defender Plant
Mrs. Etta Taylor, Frankfort, Ky., who is visiting Mrs. Georgia Hall, 635 Rhodes avenue; Mrs. Alan Ballows, St. Louis, Mo., who is visiting Mrs. Rose Tinsley, 4230 Calumet avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tinsley, Chicago; Earl A. Johnson, Salt Lake City, Utah, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Milton, 3435 Rhodes avenue; Frank Shirley, Phoenix, Ariz., who is stopping at the V. M. C. A.; Mrs. Irene B. Hines, Metropolis, Ill., who is the guest of Mrs. H. J. Clark, 6336 Champlain avenue; Mrs. Elizabeth C. Alston, Metropolis, Ill.; Otto Smith, Louisville, Ky., who is the guest of Mrs. Young Hall, 6535 Rhodes avenue; Mrs. Warren Logan, St. Charles, Mo., and Mrs. E. S. Landers of Tuskegee institute, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ramsey, 4254 Vincennes avenue.

Twenty Years and After
Twenty years after having finished the Old South Division school at 26th street and Wabash avenue, Mrs. Clara E. Hutchinson, 6551 Aberdeen street, entered the Englewood high school and completed with credit the two-year course. She has recently taken the examination for admission to the Chicago Normal college, making up her mind to enter the college in fall. She will enter the college this fall and take the two-year course there, preparatory to teaching. Dr. McMillan, examining physician for the board of education, speaking of Mrs. Hutchinson's accomplishments, declared, "Anybody who can do what you've done must be made of the real stuff."

Detective on Vacation
Sergeant and Mrs. D. H. Smith, 4200 Langley avenue, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lewis, motored to Philadelphia, Pa., stopping at Detroit, Mich., Toledo and Cleveland, Ohio, Buffalo and other eastern cities. They spent two weeks at Idlewild on the return trip as the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Bray of Chicago and Rev. Jones and family of Springfield.

Here for Congress
Mrs. Laura P. Allen, primary principal of Knoxville city, Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of Mrs. Nannie Battle, 4513 Vincennes avenue. Mrs. Allen will remain in the city to attend the Connectional Young People's congress which will meet at Quinn chapel.

Visiting in Arkansas
Mrs. E. B. Wilson and Miss Myrtle Pearce, 4002 Calumet avenue, are spending the month of August with their mother, Mrs. Dave Pearce, Malvern, Ark. Mrs. Wilson will also visit her mother-in-law in Arkadelphia and relatives in Hot Springs before returning to Chicago.