

BUCKEYE STATE

CINCINNATI NEWS

By L. LLOYD STONE
706 Moreland St.
West 6723

Cincinnati, Ohio, June 20.—Many guests attended the graduation reception in honor of Miss Elsie Austin. Miss Austin expects to attend the University of Cincinnati this fall. Mrs. James Ray spent the week end in Lexington, Ky. Mrs. Laura Langford of W. Court St. has as her guest Mrs. D. B. Hill of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Mattie Warren of Lexington, Ky. Misses Albra H. Chapman and Marguerite Gaby spent a pleasant week-end in Delphi as the guests of Miss Ethel Kerr. Mrs. Katie Crooke of Ashland Ave. will leave for Cleveland, Ohio, where she will make her future home. Mrs. James Ray spent the week-end in Lexington, Ky. E. E. Eldridge of 1021 Intermediate Ave. has gone to Louisville, Ky., to visit his wife. William Graham and family have moved to Bryonsville. Mr. and Mrs. William Harris of Park Ave. left Monday night for New York on a two weeks' visit with their son, Hamilton. Spaulding Dickerson has returned home after completing a very successful school year at Ohio State university. Mr. Dickerson has continued his high school record in college the same as he had here in high school. He is a pledge to the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity. Mrs. Amanda Campbell and Mrs. Helen Pressawill spent Sunday in Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Taylor of Dayton, Ohio, came to Cincinnati to attend the graduation exercises of her daughter, Miss Mayme Lee Shaw. Miss Shaw furnished her work at the university in February, and is being appointed to teach in the Harriet Beecher Stowe school for the coming year. The Good Samaritan and Daughters of Samaria had a very sumptuous banquet at the Lockland Y. M. C. A. The U. C. 12 club gave a shower in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Blanche Dixon. The shower was a very pretty affair and highly enjoyed by all in attendance. Miss Dixon received a large number of useful and very pretty gifts. Mrs. Harry Friason, convalescent, has returned from the hospital to her very pretty residence on Monfort St. Mrs. Houston entertained the high school graduates of Hamilton county with a reception at Harriet Beecher Stowe school. After the reception a program was given by the graduates to the public at large. The principal attraction was the oration delivered by Theodore Berry. The Wyoming school had its closing exercises Monday at Lockland Y. M. C. A. Among the five graduates were Misses Mary Piersaul and Gertrude Wallace, Hattie Faeger, Lloyd Stone and Robert Tallafera attended the graduation sermon at Wilberforce university. Norman Collins, formerly of this city graduated from the Howard medical department. Miss Martha Jones of Blair Ave. has returned to her home after completing a very successful college course. Miss Jones was one of the few on the honor role for high scholarship at Howard and one of the best in the Howard Players, the dramatic club of the university. Charley Banks of Georgetown, Ohio, visited his sister, Mrs. E. C. White. Saturday, June 14, the Oriental club entertained with a party given in honor of the cast who played in the comedy, "Getting Acquainted With Madge," presented at St. Andrew's Episcopal church April 25. The cast of character consisted of Elias Rhodes, Robert Tallaferra, Arthur Kinney, Frank Braxton, James Smith, Vivian Renfro, Helen Kerr, Louise Lewis, Ruth Embury, Margaret Palmer and Gladys Moxs, under the direction of Miss Ethel Kerr. The party was given at the residence of Misses Ethel and Helen Kerr, Delphi, Ohio. Among those present were: Misses Althea Chapman, Margaret Islay, Gladys Moxs, Florence Graham, Martha McLeod, Ruth Embury, Margaret and Odessa Palmer, Louise James and the Messrs. Robert Tallaferra, Sidney Lemon, John James, Dewitt Palmer, John Leland, James Smith, Vivian Renfro, Charles Dillard, Homer Teller, Arthur Kinney and George Smith. The Oriental club donated $10 to the day nursery of St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The officers and members of the club are: Gladys Moxs, president; Louise Lewis, vice-president; Florence Graham, secretary; Helen L. Kerr, treasurer. The rest of the members are: Margaret Palmer, Louise James, Ruth Embury, Martha McLeod, Odessa Palmer and Miss Ethel C. Kerr, sponsor. Hamilton Graham is doing excellent work in music in one of the music schools in New York city. Mr. Dalton, a graduate of Ohio university, was the guest of Miss Reseda Berry during the past week. Mrs. Margaret B. Taylor will leave soon to take part in a musicale in Cleveland, Ohio. Judge Harrison's eloquence drew a large and enthusiastic audience Wednesday night as a feature of the Baptist Congregational church. Mrs. Mark Wallace has returned from her spring vacation to attend the graduation of her grand daughter, Gertrude Wallace. Misses Clara and Priscilla Thompson rendered poetic selections on the May fair program at Rossmoyne church. Mrs. Laura Langford of W. Court St. has as her guests Mrs. G. B. Hill of Chicago. Mrs. Mattie Warner of Lexington, Ky. A. Ellsworth Gamble of Harriet Beecher Stowe school has designed to take a position in Cleveland, Ohio. The following are the graduates from the University of Cincinnati: Miss Hattie Faeger, M. A.; Mrs. Margaret D. Bowen, B. S. E.; Miss Mary Rasor, B. S. E.; Misses Althea Chapman, Angie Smith, Gladys Warrington, Mayme Shaw, Zelma Tyler, Mary Belle Wright, Marguerite Isay, B. E.; Miss Alice Leland, B. E.; Miss Breta Walker and Alfred Hall, A. B. Miss Reseda Berry of the first colored girl to receive a degree in home economics from the University of Cincinnati.

ELYRIA, OHIO

Ernest Perkins, 11th St. was reported ill last week but is up and out again. Mrs. H. B. Mulloy, also on last week's sick list is out again. James Ball is rapidly improving. The Rev. Mr. Simons of Tennessee preached an able sermon at Bethany Baptist church Sunday evening. American Woodmen camp No. 19, Elyria, Ohio, had its annual thanksgiving sermon at Bethany Baptist church Sunday evening by the Rev. Mr. Williams of Lorain, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mulloy, Mrs. Bessie McNeely, Miss Addie M. Heights and James Williams, all members of the Elyria Fishing club, spent Wednesday on Huron river. The Rev. William Smith of Elyria and Miss Eliza Briggs of Beria, Ohio, were married Monday evening at the M. E. church, the Rev. Mr. Noel officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Looney have purchased a new home on 18th St. Mrs. J. B. Tucker spent Monday in Oberlin with her mother, Mrs. Field of Union St. Mr. and Mrs. Harding Leaner motored to Danville, Ill., last week to visit their mother, and son, Morris Leaner, who returned with them, as did Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Danville, who are spending the week-end here. Mrs. Jackson is Mrs. Leaner's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans, who have been confined in Memorial hospital, are improving and are expected to be out soon. A committee of Bethel lodge, K. of P., were in to see them.

COLUMBUS, OHIO

Miss Thelma Powell left for Chicago last week. Miss Powell will make her future home in Chicago. Those who attended the Republican national convention, Cleveland, Ohio, from here were: Lawyer and Mrs. Robert Barcus, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Johnston, T. K. Gibson, John C. Logan, E. L. Nix, D. C. Chandler, Robert S. Allen, Noah Morris, J. W. Williams, Attorney and Mrs. C. J. Doll, A. P. Bentley, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Mosby and W. C. T. Ayers. Mrs. Margaret Ferguson, 793 Mount Vernon Ave., has been ill for several weeks. Mrs. Victoria L. Penman of Portsmouth, Ohio, was the guest last week of Mrs. A. J. Gordon, 1395 Hawthorne. Miss Stella Marie Brooks entertained Monday with a 6 o'clock dinner at her home, 731 Lilly Ave., honoring Mrs. Victoria Penman and daughter Beatrice Elizabeth Penman. Mrs. Sarah Jenkins entertained Thursday with a 10 o'clock breakfast at her home, 525 E. Gay St., honoring Mrs. Victoria Penman and daughter, Beatrice Elizabeth. Mrs. Hazel Moor and Nel Clarke has returned to her home from Rendville, Ohio, where she has been teaching school. Mrs. Moon will leave soon for Pittsburgh, Pa., where she will make her future home. Miss Lucille Polley has returned to her home from West Virginia, where she has been teaching school. Miss Marie Cleveland, graduate of Ohio State university, left for her home in Urbana Friday morning. Mr. Scott of Atlanta, Ga., was the guest last week of T. K. Gibson. Mr. Rodney of Memphis, Tenn., was also the guest of T. K. Gibson last week. A. W. Hardy has returned after a several days' visit with his parents in Tapoka, Kan. Leonard Barnett left Tuesday morning for West Virginia institute, where he will teach. Miss Bernice Coleman left Friday for Urbana, Ohio, where she will spend a few days as the guest of Miss Marie Cleveland. Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Dolly Blue to Donald Rowman last Tuesday. Mrs. Vinton Mabery of 2444 E. Lafayette St. and Mrs. Allen of 2117 E. Spring St. has returned to their homes from Chicago, where they were the guest of Miss Maudie Hubert. The Adelphi Building Loan and Savings company celebrated its third anniversary in the spacious dining room of the Shiloh Baptist church. Dr. George W. Mosby, first vice-president, presided and gave a beneficial outline of the business. The speakers for the occasion were the president, D. C. Chandler and the secretary, Attorney L. H. Godman. Invitations were sent to the stockholders, business and professional men, and a very enjoyable and profitable time was had.

NEWARK, OHIO

Mrs. Willie Doris and baby left Sunday evening for a few days' visit to St. Louis, Mo. Charlie Martin spent a few days in St. Louis. Mrs. Lillian Abbie, Louise Whitstone, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Mannings and John Cable attended the annual sermon at Shiloh Baptist church for Knights and Daughters of Tabor lodge. Mrs. John Cable is also grand deputy of Newark branch. At this writing Mrs. Laura Allen is better. The flowers drill given by Circle No. 6 was very successful. The Newark Music Boys will play for Mount Vernon (Ohio) ball Wednesday evening. Mrs. Bertha Harris has moved to east end of the city. Walter Green spent Sunday in Columbus, Ohio. Miss Nettie Quarm has returned home after spending several days in Washington Court House. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins are stopping at Mrs. Fred Brown in Race St.

TROY, OHIO

Mrs. John Silver and granddaughter, Marguerette Burke, left Wednesday morning to spend the summer visiting in Montgomery, Ala., and Pensacola, Fla. The Rev. William Wagstaff of Birmingham, Ala., is conducting services this week at Second Baptist church, Richard chapel, M. E. church, Sunday, 3 p. m. the Ladies' Aid rally. An entertainment program was rendered for the occasion. In the evening the installation sermon was preached. The following officers were installed: Mrs. Louena Nesbitt, president; Mrs. Annie Mack, second vice-president; Mrs. L. M. Sharpe, third vice-president; Mrs. Richard Everettes, treasurer.

WOODVILLE, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Kemp and Mrs. Watt Bally motored to Toledo Monday. Miss Ethel Seavenson is the week-end guest of Misses Haynes and Scott in Fostoria, Ohio. The Rev. Baker and Mrs. D. W. Hollen of Fremont motored to this city and called on Mrs. Frank Connelly and the Rev. Mr. Hicks. Miss Virginia Felder was in Fremont last week. Ellsie Guhan was in Fremont Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Guhan are very proud of their baby girl, born to them June 9.

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO

The Rev. J. F. Walker preached a wonderful sermon last Sunday. The church was packed. Harry Lee made a flying trip to Cleveland to visit his sister, Mrs. Ray Banks, who is in the hospital. Cornelius Howard is leaving for Chicago to visit his sister, Mrs. Katie Wilking, at 512 E. 44th Pl. Maj. Burnaugh is in the General hospital with a broken leg. James Cook will leave for Omaha, Neb., in a few days to visit friends. Frank McElhannon is doing fine after being confined in the hospital. Mrs. Ray Banks is in the Only Homeopathic hospital. The M. E. church is running a soul-stirring meeting. Two ladies from Toledo, Ohio, are preaching.

CANTON, OHIO

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Etter is able to be out again after an illness covering a period of two weeks. Miss Lillian Smith gave a party Friday evening in honor of Jimmie Edwards, cousin of Miss Beatrice Evans and Mrs. Clyde Etter. The evening was spent in cards and dancing. Mrs. Clara Adkins has returned from Scio, Ohio, where she was visiting her parents. The Social Service Girls gave a whist and dancing party at Fraternal hall Wednesday evening. A large number of guests were present. Eugene Kinckle Jones, executive secretary of the National Urban league, was a guest of the local branch of the league Tuesday. Mr. Jones was entertained at breakfast at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker. He addressed a joint meeting of the boards of the Canton Welfare federation and the Urban league at a luncheon given in his honor at the Community house at noon. There were about 40 guests present, among them being Joseph Markley, president of the board of directors of the Canton Welfare federation; Mrs. Henry Belden, Jr., Miss Mary Dannemiller, the Rev. and Mrs. Manchester, Mr. Hockwalt and Mr. Landor. In the afternoon Mr. Jones spoke before the Nyota Girl Reserves and in the evening before a group of young people. While in the city Mr. Jones visited the juvenile courts, the offices of the Associated Charities, the clinics and other social agencies. Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Strauder entertained a group of friends at their home last Saturday night. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Femeels, Mr. and Mrs. Stanhope of Xenia, Attorney and Mrs. L. A. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Correll of Massillon, Miss Mary Howard of New York City and Miss Olive Freeman of Washington, D. C. After a delightful evening of cards the guests were ushered into the dining-room, where a delicious repast was served. Troop 26, Boy Scouts, held an outdoor stunt party Friday evening from 6:30 to 8. Games, including volley ball, were played on the grounds of the Community house, after which the boys retired into the Scout headquarters and were served sandwiches and lemonade. There were about 35 Scouts present. A. L. Foster, executive secretary of the Canton Urban league, will leave Tuesday for Toronto, where he will attend the national conference of social workers. Mr. Foster will make the trip by motor. Accompanying him are E. G. Eklund, executive secretary of the Canton Welfare federation, and R. L. Knight of Columbus, state welfare executive. Miss Virginia Hall is in Cleveland visiting friends and relatives. She was a guest at the Vagabonds' dance. Carl Wynne, a student of Case School of Applied Science, is attending the Case camp near Waynesburg, where he is getting practical experience in surveying, etc. Mr. Wynne spent Saturday and Sunday in the city as the guest of his cousin, A. L. Foster. Miss Leonora Pritchett was among the Cantonians attending the big convention hall in Cleveland Tuesday night. She was the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Kingery. Dr. M. B. Williams has moved into his new suite of offices on Cherry St., between 10th and 11th.