

LOCKEYE STATE

Caylor
 Company D,
 of Cleveland,
 to full way strength with a waiting list of is honor of being the first tional guard organization Much credit is due Lieut. tokes, chief recruiting of-assistant, Quartermaster hur C. Hall, as well as the of the company, Capt. reen and First Lieut. Clarn. Sergeant James Worin-deputized by Capt. Green recruits and have them all bilization by July 15. Some t popular young men who their patriotism by volun-Harry Walker, Howell C. uel Boydston, George Ran-den Payne, Collins Jackson, aka, Harry A. Gibson and R. completely revised list will appear later. John C. Fulton and J. twin Dunjill, two prominent race men, re major and adjutant of the battalion, spectively. * Mrs. J. B. Burbridge of at 101st street, prominent club wom-n, is visiting relatives in Columbus, Cincinnati and Kentucky. * C. Marshall as been ill at his home on East Forty-third street. * Three well known young men were married last week: J. L.
 Thomas to Miss Ruth Bailey, Springfield, O.; J. Van Jackson to a Miss Jones and George Queen, younger son of Mrs.
 Roberta Queen, to a Barberton young lady. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas spent their honeymoon in Oil City, Pa., as guests of Mr. Smith and bride, formerly Miss Euania Ballard. * Raymond Weaver is here from Chicago, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Weaver. * The following are graduates from Central High school this week: Misses Gladys Lin-hecombe, Reba Doctor, Rosa Berkley, Opheelia Childs, Jeannette Brown, Ethel Blue, Ida May Fountain, Frances Smith and Stanley Brown. * Harry A. Gibson of the Abyssinian tonsorial parlor, one of the recent volunteers, was to wed Miss Julia Barnett, Zanesville, this week.
 * Dr. Breedlove made a trip to Wheeling last week. * Mrs. Jennie Clark Davis, former Cleveland resident, writes her friends that she is manager of the restaurant of the Y. W. C. A. of Columbus, O. * John Slade, student at Ohio university, was here from Portsmouth, he guest of his sister, Mrs. Otto Cal-way. * Miss Geneva Ross, Mrs. T. W.
 Leming's guest, spent Sunday at her home in Wheeling, W. Va. * William skins has resigned his position with a Pullman company and will open a furniture store in the near future. * The many friends of Mrs. Mary Davis, who was called to Chicago weeks ago to be at the bedside of her father, J. Berni Barbour, the popular composer and pianist, who died last week, are gathered at Provi-dent Hospital, Chicago. * Harry E. Thompson, baritone, wife, Grace Willis Thompson, soprano, gave a recital of rare merit at the Baptist church Tuesday evening, assisted by John H. Perry, tenor, Ladies' harmony trio, Mrs. Olive Ball, Miss Gladys Wells and Mrs.
 Cleage. Miss Bessie Cook was an accompanist. * Mrs. Belle York hosts to the Women's Mite Mis-society of St. John's church on and Mrs. Washington of East third street, to the Optimistic Wednesday. * Mrs. James Of-ficed from Ann Arbor, Mich., on where she was called by the aunt and a cousin. * Chas. brother of F. J. Smith, Blaine in St. Louis last week. *
 Brown was hostess to the Embroidery club Tuesday. *
 general of Mrs. Martha Ann Walk-years old, mother of J. R. Walker, place from Slaughter Bros.' chapel lay. Deceased was born in Mason y, Kentucky, in 1819. * Mt. Zion s' Missionary society, Mrs. T. W.
 , president, Mrs. George Brown, gives a strawberry social at tle Fairfax' Monday for the of Rev. G. V. Clark's vacation.
 Children's day exercises at Mt.
 Sunday night, in charge of Supt.
 Jones, were splendid. * The following participated in the produced at the birthday reception by Mrs. J. Walter Willis for last week: Mrs. Grace W. on and Mrs. Katherine Skeene sopranos; Mrs. Mabelle Clarke lanister; Miss Inez Richardson, Ford and the Zephyr quartet.
 Brascher was master of cer-Misses Juanita Quinn, Oberlin, O., and Miss Lucille Fleming and Miss Ruth Sissle, teachers at Walden university, Nashville, Tenn., were among the honor guests. * Mme. Frances E.

 Moten, St. Louis, Mo., was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jesse Thrower, while in the city last week. * The Women's College club, composed of race graduates of Western Reserve university, made its formal debut at Cory M. E. church last Sunday evening by giving a program of unusual merit. Miss Blanche Johnson, president, was in charge. Among the participants were Miss Johnson, Mrs.
 Dan Fairfax, Miss Myrtle Johnson, a teacher at Tuskegee Institute; Miss Edith Wright, Dr. Charles Garvin, a Howard university graduate; Dr. Pezavia O'Connell, pastor, University of Pennsylvania, '98, and Rev. G. V. Clark.
 Members: Miss Blanche Johnson, Miss Lucretia Grant, secretary and treasurer; Miss Ruth Dean, historian; Miss Wright, Miss Myrtle Johnson and Miss Clemence Green, Ph. G. Honorary members: Mrs. D. Fairfax, Mrs. N. D.
 Brascher, Dr. Zelda Green, Miss Grace Cousins and Dr. Edwardina M. Grant, all graduates of various universities. *
 More than $300 was raised for benevolence at Cory Sunday. Mrs. Amanda Thomas reporting the largest amount, $50, and Mrs. Della Offer second largest, $26, notwithstanding her absence from the city the last four weeks. *
 Sunday at 3 p. m., the Daughters of Tabor will hold their annual thanksgiving exercises at St. Matthew's tabernacle. Rev. O'Connell will deliver the special sermon. * Misses Rebecca and Effie Brown, Colman road, are spending the summer in Staunton, Va. * C.
 S. Walden, who went to Mt. Vernon, O., for the benefit of his health, is improving rapidly. * Shiloh Baptist church will hold its final rally to raise $10,000 tomorrow. * The members of East Mt.
 Zion Baptist church gave their pastor, Rev. B. K. Smith, a reception last week Tuesday evening. The program was in charge of Mmes. Moore and Foster.
 Participants: Revs. H. M. Lowry, C. H.
 Young and R. L. Bayliss, Mr. and Mrs.
 Robert Smith, Mmes. Andrew Johnson, C. E. Williams, Misses Drusilla and Rosalee Dupree and W. C. Bell. *
 Councilman Thomas W. Fleming is now home and his knee is improving slowly.
 He hoped to have the city council's final action Monday on the issuing of $40,000 bonds for the erection of the much desired bathhouse at the Marion-Central playgrounds. His $1,300 comfort station at the Thirty-eighth street grounds having been completed, he is now anxiously awaiting the appropriation of certain property at East Fifty-fifth street and Euclid avenue for the erection of an underground comfort station. * Marriage licenses have been issued to James Banks, 32, Mattie Hughes, 28; Fleming Pritchard, 45, Emma Hill, 39; Wm. Moore, 30, Mary Brown, 26; Lorenzo Brown, 24, Lillie Wiggins, 28; Alonzo Bowman, 23, Mattie Wilson, 18; Joe Williams, 33, Dillie Spann, 28. *
 Mrs. Ricko has returned from Cannons-burg, Pa., where she was called by the serious illness of her mother, who is suffering with leakage of the heart. *
 Mmes. Ida Owen, Margaret Anderson and Morton were in charge of the splendid Children's day exercises at St. John's Sunday school Sunday.

Columbus, Ohio, June 15.—Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Moore of the Second Baptist church, and Mrs. W. E. Moore, attended the Sunday School congress at Nashville, Tenn. * The 20th Century Improvement club of Hawthorne Street M.
 E. church met with Mrs. John Charles Thursday evening. * The thirtieth session of the Woman's convention will convene at the Macedonia church on Spruce street, Thursday, June 21. * The revival meeting in progress at Caldwell Chapel M. E. church conducted by Rev.
 J. H. Daniels is being largely attended. *
 Miss Vera Dozler and Elbert Wilson, Columbus, Ga., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nimrod Allen. Mr. Wilson, who is the father of Mrs. Allen, will make his future home in Ohio. * Thomas Trent was one of the jurors of the spring term of the Supreme court. * Miss Frances Powell of Scott street had as her guest Miss Jessica Burgette of Milwaukee, Wis. * The Chicago Defender is sold by T. J. McRoberts, Mt. Vernon and Ohio avenue. Leave all news for this paper at the above named place or at Samuel Jeffries', 1227 Clifton avenue.

Lockland, Ohio, June 15.—Mrs. Melinda Smith attended the missionary meeting at Dayton, Ohio. * The tag rally held by the Lincoln club was a success. * Mrs. Lillian Frazer beautifully entertained the Lincoln club last meeting. * Mrs. M. N. Culpher attended the State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs at Indianapolis recently. Also visited relatives. * Mrs. Amy Johnson is still improving nicely. * Bethel A. M.
 E. church is arranging for a golden jubilee the last of this month. * Mrs.
 Carrie George still remains ill. * Mrs.
 M. N. Culpher returned home Thursday from Layton, London, Springfield and Urbanon in the interest of the Council of Calanthe as grand lecturer. * Wm.
 Menfee Sr., an old resident of Lockland, died last Wednesday night and was buried Saturday. He is mourned by one sister, five sons and two daughters, and is missed by many friends. *
 Simon Anderson of Elm street was buried last week. He was an old resident and is missed by many relatives and a host of friends. * Melvin Johnson graduated from high school last week with high honors. * The U. B. F.'s and S. M. T.'s held their annual Thanksgiving sermon Sunday at the A. M. E. church, grandest of its kind this year.
 Mrs. Sweeney and son have located in Lockland.

Springfield, O., June 15.—Wm. S. Her-born, who soldiered under Maj. Harper and Capt. R. R. Rudd during the Cincinnati riots, died Sunday, June 3. *
 Anderson Wilder, an old veteran, was buried from his late home on Scott street Monday, June 4. * Robert Williams, an old veteran, died Thursday night, June 7. * Mrs. E. J. Moore, Mrs.
 Mary Dent and Mrs. Belle Blackburn attended the funeral of Mrs. Susie Raylor, one of the grand lodge officers of the Daughters of Jerusalem, at Dayton on Saturday, June 9. * The funeral of Miss Lavina Davis was held at the undertaking parlors of David Wilborn Monday.