

CLEVELAND GETS READY FOR BIG G. O. P. MEETING

Mrs. Fleming Appointed on General Committee of Arrangements

By A. O. TAYLOR

Cleveland, Ohio, June 6—All Cleveland is in readiness for the entertainment of the thousands of visitors to the Republican convention to convene next Tuesday in the new $5,000,000 public auditorium. It is said that hospitality will be accorded all guests of the city never before equaled in G. O. P. convention history. Most especially may this be said of our group who are expected here in large numbers from every state of the Union. Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, wife of Councilman Thomas W. Fleming, the only Race woman member of the city's general committee of 150, also secretary of the entertainment committee for our special group, and Hon. George A. Myers, also a member of the general committee of 150, chairman of our special entertainment committee, are sparing no pains or expense in making preparations for the proper entertainment of our visitors during the convention. Mrs. Minerva Taylor of the housing department of the P. W. A. has complete charge of the registration and housing of all delegates and visitors. She can be found at 2315 E. 40th St.

Mrs. Fleming

According to Mrs. Fleming thousands of dollars will be spent for meals for the delegates during the convention and corsages to be provided the ladies every morning. Mrs. Fleming, who has been in close touch with affairs of the convention committee, wishes it understood that our Race is welcome to all program activities provided by the convention committee for the week.
