

LEXINGTON, KY.

By LUCY HARTH CMITH

258 E. Fifth St. Ashland, 4198

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 31—Mrs. Belle Burdette, 57, widow of Dr. Samuel Burdette, died Monday at the residence of her niece, Mrs. Mary B. Monroe, 704 West Short Street. Funeral services were held at the residence Wednesday conducted by Rev. Homer Nutter.

Attorney Elsie Austin of Cincinnati was guest speaker at St. Paul A. M. E. church Sunday for the Delta Sigma Theta sorority.

The Cincinnati, Lexington and Maysville district of the Womans Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church held a one day session at Ashbury M. E. church Thursday. Miss Mae Calvin of Cincinnati was speaker.

Prof. J. H. Moran and John W. Walker of Louisville addressed the Voters League Thursday night. J. Rice Porter is president.

The Dunbar Girl Reserves had their May day carnival Monday, May 28 at the Phyllis Wheatley Y. W. C. A.

R. H. Hogan, who was recently injured in an automobile accident is convalescing at his home on East 5th Street.

D. Earl Smith is visiting friends in Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Elijah Carr, 750 Whitney Ave., died at Good Samaritan hospital Wednesday.

Commencement exercises for the adult evening school were held at the Community Center Friday evening. Speakers were Rev. T. H. Smith, Mrs. Luella Oldham, Miss Eva Jackson and Mrs. Helen Smith.

A thrift pageant was presented by the students during the second part of the program. Prof. J. H. Henderson is principal.

Atty. Elsie Austin and her mother, Mrs. Austin of Cincinnati, were guests of Miss Iva D. Greene this week.

The State Association of Elks will open its session at St. Paul A. M. E. church, Sunday night.

Mrs. Sallie Whiting died Wednesday night at her home on Coleman Street.

Rev. W. M. Owens, former pastor of the Norwood Christian church, at Dayton, Ohio, has assumed the pastorate of the Nicholasville Christian church.

Frank Stanley of Louisville was a visitor in the city last week.

Miss Lurusta Tyler is visiting her sister in Dallas, Tex.

Dr. R. F. White of Louisville is a visitor in the city.

Dr. H. B. Marble was hostess to the Zeta Phi Beta sorority Wednesday evening.

Miss Maude Brown of Louisville was a recent guest of the A. K. A. sorority.