Cheney Chorus Sings For Silver Jubilee

WEST CHESTER, Pa., March 31.

—The sweet-toned and widely known Cheyney Chorus of radio fame with its able conductor, Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hill, Thursday, March 23, at the 25th anniversary exercises in West Chester Community Center.

Dr. Hill announced at the beginning that the program was largely devotional, owing to the season and the spirit of the times.

There were brief pauses filled by solo parts—Charles T. Craig, and Regina L. Smith.
