

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Mrs. Louise Killion Gone
Mrs. Louise Killion, relative of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kinney, 3142 Calumet avenue, who had been confined to her bed and the hospital for the last two months under the best care of specialists and trained nurses, is dead. She passed away on Thursday, March 1, at noon, and was buried from the Community center, 3120 Giles avenue, Monday at 11 o'clock. The Rev. W. D. Cook, director, delivered the funeral oration paying a tribute to the deceased for the splendid work she had done in connection with the church and other activities. Resolutions were read from many clubs of the church. Among the out-of-town relatives who attended the funeral were: Mrs. George Hickman of Centralia, Ill.; sister, Mrs. George W. Jones, daughter of the Rev. George W. Jones of Springfield, Ill.; niece, and Mrs. Inez Carrington, Topeka, Kan.; niece. Burial was at Oakwood cemetery in Cottage Grove avenue.

Mrs. Alford Out Again
Mrs. Mattie Alford, once known frantically, 3423 South Wabash avenue, who has been confined to her home on account of illness for quite a while, is able to be out again with her many acquaintances.

Attends Funeral
Miss Frank Carter, 423 East 45th place, has been out of the city to attend the burial of her mother, Dr. H. L. Hadley, of Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. Young at Hot Springs
Mrs. Lou Ella Young, 4114 Calumet avenue, D. C. M. N. G. of Eden grand district, Householder of Ruth of Illinois after jurisdiction, known the country over for her efficient work in fraternal organizations, accompanied by Mesdames Laura Hardwick and Essex Gillum, left for Hot Springs, Ark., during the week, where they will spend three or four weeks recuperating. En route from Hot Springs, they will spend a short time in Oklahoma visiting friends.

New Temple Organized
Friday night, March 2, was a big event for the citizens of Aurora, Ill. A party from Chicago, including Mrs. Georgia E. Harding, state grand princess of S. M. T.'s of Illinois; Mesdames Hattie Sawyer, Scrilla Jackson, Maggie T. Pryor, Rosa Carey, Ella E. Watkins, Mary Pollard, Lura B. Johnson, Mamie E. Ross, Mary J. Harrah, Harriet Clements and Louise Moore; Mrs. Eliza Jackson, state grand queen of A. U. K. & D. of A.; M. T. Bailey, National Negro Press association; W. T. Griggs, Knight commander; L. B. F. and Wm. Turner of Illinois lodge, went to Aurora to organize Spring of Joy temple, which had been worked up by Mesdames Emma Brooks, Flora Hunter, Ada Adams, Blanche Lewis and Florence Adams, under the instruction and advice of Mrs. Sarah Stratton, one of the pioneer members and workers of S. M. T. in the state. Dinner was served the party, organization perfected and installation completed and midst joy and greetings the Chicago party returned at 1 o'clock.

Improving
Mrs. Bettie Givens, daughter ruler of Heliotrope temple, Daughters of Elks, 4100 South State street, who has been confined to her bed and home for some time on account of illness, is much improved.

Back From Tennessee
Attorney Walter M. Farmer, 184 West Washington street, has returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he spent a few days on legal business.

Dies of Ruptured Lung
Little 9-year-old Lloyd Belk, 347 East 29th street, died from a ruptured lung which he received when he was struck by an automobile truck at 29th street and Calumet avenue as he ran laughing across the street. The truck, in charge of Steve Huggins, 2815 South Park avenue, was not seen by the child. It was declared an unavoidable accident.

Bonds Total $105,000
A lone child, who worked on 35th street in front of the White Sox ball park, was captured by Officers Reavey and Wabow as he was attempting to hold up his seventh victim. He gave the name of Robert Johnson, 25, and stated that he lived at 509 East 34th street. He was held to the grand jury under bonds of $15,000 each on seven different charges.

Held for Rape
Robert Talley, 32, 4503 St. Lawrence avenue, and Roy Taylor, 21, 556 East 45th street, were each held to the grand jury under $10,000 bonds on a charge of rape preferred by Cleopatra Knox, 4934 St. Lawrence avenue.

Fate of Peacemaker
The usual fate of the peacemaker was meted out to Roy Grogan, 27, 3606 Wentworth avenue, when he was stabbed in the eye. Grogan was visiting at the home of John Williams, 3150 Prairie avenue, when an argument arose between Williams and his wife. While acting as peacemaker, Grogan was stabbed in the eye by Williams.

Held for Murder
Elmer Atkins, alias "Pee Wee," 5021 Dearborn street, was held to the grand jury on a charge of murder. He cut the throat of Sam Gordon, 432 East 45th place, without provocation.

Cuts White Man
During a quarrel between Joe Myers (white), 32, 1752 North Clark street, and Mrs. Mary Bishop, 25, 3521 Cottage Grove avenue, as they were standing at 47th and State streets, Mrs. Bishop drew a knife and cut Myers along the wrist and palm of his hand. The wound was so deep that Myers had to be carried to the County hospital. The woman was arrested by Sergeants Sweeney and Grace.

Cut by Divorced Husband
Miss Margaret Morton, 19, 2941 Vernon avenue, was the victim of a vicious attack with a knife in the hands of her divorced husband, Henry Harrington, 2215 Dearborn street. Miss Morton was attending a cabaret when she was attacked. She was stabbed in each side.

Accidentally Shoots Self
In an attempt to chance a revolver from his rain coat pocket to another while at 242 Indiana avenue, Charles Bennett, 22, 3540 LaSalle street, accidentally dropped the gun to the floor. It exploded, striking Bennett in the leg.

Possible Skull Fracture
Suffering with a possible skull fracture, Ely B. Simpson, 48, 3222 Giles avenue, was carried to the Lakeside hospital. He was hit by a cab in attempting to cross the street at 32d street and Michigan avenue.

Exonerated for Killing
A coroner's jury exonerated Mrs. Sadie West, alias Roberts, 10 West 24th street, for the killing of Fred Roberts, 12 West 24th street. Roberts died from a bullet wound inflicted by Mrs. West during a quarrel.

Sent to Psychopathic Hospital
Suffering with deranged minds Mrs. Edna Gomez, 24, 4532 Indiana avenue, and George Rankin, 24, 3426 Vernon avenue, were sent to the Psychopathic hospital to be kept under observation pending an inquiry into their sanity.

Has Frozen Toes
George Isabelle, 57, 3513 State street, was carried to the County hospital suffering with frozen toes which he sustained during the recent severe cold spell.

Attempts Suicide
After a quarrel with her husband it proved upon the mind of Mrs. Louise Keating, 29, 5449 State street, to such an extent that she drank a quantity of lysol with suicidal intent. The poison was pumped from her stomach at the County hospital.

Injured While Passenger
While riding on a 47th street car, Fred Jackson, 32, 4736 Prairie avenue, was painfully cut and bruised when the car collided with a passing automobile at 47th street and St. Lawrence avenue.

Dies of Indigestion
Mrs. Josephine Berry, 55 years old, who roomed at the home of Mrs. Jane Luckett, 3127 Dearborn street, died of acute indigestion.

T. L. O. Owens Passes Away
Toussaint L. Overture Owens, 541 East 46th street, husband of Frances Shelton Owens, passed away Tuesday, March 6, after an illness of four weeks. Mr. Owens was the son of Mrs. Mary H. Owens, Washington, D. C., and brother of Chandler Owens, New York. He was born 37 years ago in Warren, N. C. He formerly lived in Columbia, S. C., but took up his residence in Chicago in 1922. Funeral was held Thursday, March 8, at 2 p. m., from the Prairie Avenue church, 4338 Prairie avenue, with the Rev. George Peters officiating.

Farewell Concert a Success
The farewell all star concert given at Cethe church Monday evening, Feb. 19, was quite a success under the management of Mary E. Jones. Those appearing on program were Pauline James Lee, Alpha Bratton, Mrs. Inez Edmondson, Claud Evans, Albert Jones, Juliette Cameron, Goldie Guy, Sybil Smith, Mary Covington, Addie Lockhart, Henry Grant, Fannie Glee club, Wood-wind quintette with Major N. Clark Smith, director, and Ione Trice, accompanist.

Jaunita Hunter Convalescing
Miss Jaunita Hunter, formerly of the "Eight Black Dots," who has been ill at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Alberta McCowley, 4003 Calumet avenue, is able to be out again.

Receives First Communion
Julius N. Avendorph was among those confirmed in the annual confirmation class at St. Thomas church, 38th street and Wabash avenue, on Sunday evening, Feb. 25, by Bishop Griswold. Although ill, he was present at his first confirmation on Sunday morning, March 1, at the early celebration.

Entertain Pullman Officials
The officials of the Pullman company were entertained at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday afternoon, March 1, by the male chorus and 43-piece symphony orchestra of Pullman Porters, under the direction of Major N. Clark Smith. They were highly commended by Glen Dillard Gunn upon the work they are doing and the progress made in so short a time.

N. A. A. C. P. Notes
Walter F. White of New York City, assistant secretary N. A. A. C. P., will address a mass meeting at Wendell Phillips High School auditorium Friday, March 16, at 8 p. m. The question discussed will be "Shall the Anti-Lynching Fight Be Abandoned?" Mr. White will also speak briefly Sunday morning, March 18, at Providence Baptist church on the West Side and at the New Bethel A. M. E. church, 42d street and Grand boulevard, in the evening. Regular monthly meeting of the branch will be held Sunday, March 18, at 4 p. m., in the parlors of the Chicago University of Music, 3672 South Michigan avenue. A short musical program will be rendered. Mr. White will bring greetings from the New York office and Duse Mohamed Ali of Alexandria, Egypt, will speak on the subject, "The Darker Races—Thinking Black."

Sent to County Hospital
The following persons were sent to the county hospital this week: Chesley Fields, 26, Johestown, Miss.; Mrs. Henry Green, 32, 1106 LaSalle street; Addie Latman, 24, 2903 East 29th street; Murray Kelly, 25, 2903 State street; Mrs. Belle Cole, 30, 3241 Ellis avenue; Ernest Blair, 47, 4436 Evans avenue; Milford Mason, 67, 3097 LaSalle street; Mrs. Hattie Daves, 25, 2954 Ellis avenue; Mrs. Dorothy Brown, 17, 3025 Michigan avenue; John F. McKim, 29, 4406 South Park avenue; Earl Johnson, 20, 3646 Federal street; Eugene Carpenter, 36, 3646 Vincennes avenue; Mrs. Emma Walker, 40, 3527 Vernon avenue; Charley Brent, 24, 3529 Vernon avenue; Burton Holloway, 29, 3134 South Park avenue; Riley Mitchell, 54, 507 East 15th street; Pinky Glenn, 58, 4130 Wabash avenue; Mrs. Gertrude Blover, 26, 4431 Indiana avenue; Mrs. Jennie Beard, 35, 4227 Evans avenue; James Scott, 25, 5255 Federal street; Noble Jones, 2, 4109 Wabash avenue; Mrs. Dovie Hughes, 35, 3741 LaSalle street; Earnest Turner, 27, 4040 Wabash avenue, and Mrs. Lizzie Nichols, 53, 4116 Vincennes avenue.

Uses Brick as Weapon
Louis Carr, 35, 5401 Wabash avenue, was carried to Provident hospital suffering with a severe scalp wound. While engaged in an altercation at 5315 Federal street with a man known to him as "Fed," he was struck over the head with a brick held in the hand of "Fed."

Struck by Auto
An automobile passing in front of 4739 State street struck Mrs. Mary Roberts, 30, 4747 State street, as she was attempting to cross the street. Mrs. Roberts was severely shaken up.

John Hedgepath Dies
A victim of heart disease, John Hedgepath, 47 years old, passed away suddenly in his home at 5544½ State street.

Cuts Off Ear
An unknown man, to whom he was supposed to owe 20 cents, quarreled with Cassinious Kay, 28, 1531 Wabash avenue, over the payment of the debt when the two met at Seventh and State streets. The unknown, with a vicious swing of a knife, cut off the left ear of Kay.

Wife Wields Knife
Frantic cries of "Help Help!" attracted the attention of Sergeants Grace and Doyle as they were passing 27 West 17th street. Rushing into the house they found Mrs. Julia Ramsey chasing her husband, Thomas, around the room with a knife. Before the woman could be overpowered she had inflicted a three-inch cut on his neck and another three-inch cut in his back.

A Costly Visit
When Thomas Garrett decided to pack his bags and leave Janesville, Wis., for a visit here, he decided also that he had better bring along his gun. He had read much of the holdups of the big city, but he had not kept himself informed of the efficiency of the police department. Officer Franklin McFarland and has taught him his lesson, for McFarland placed him under arrest for carrying concealed weapons. Garrett was fined $100 and costs.

Hurt in Collision
While riding his motorcycle at 22d street and Wabash avenue, Luther Williams, 49, 2601 Calumet avenue, apartment 605, received painful injuries when he collided with an automobile. He was carried to Wesley hospital to be treated.

Intoxicated Driver Hits Man
As he was attempting to cross the street at 31st street and Michigan boulevard, Irving Smith, 54, 3053 Calumet avenue, was run down by an intoxicated white man, Frederick Little, who was at the wheel of an automobile. Little was placed under arrest.

William Amos Dies
William Amos, who resided with his wife, Mrs. Harriet Amos, at 1833 Walnut street, passed away at his residence Sunday morning, March 3, at 10:30 o'clock. The funeral will be preached Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Friendship Baptist church, Ada and Lake streets. The remains will be taken to Columbia, Tenn. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Knights and Daughters of Labor, International Order of 12.

Singer Hurt
Miss Priscilla Lee Mayo, 4312 Langley avenue, a clerk in the registry division of the Chicago postoffice and one of the soloists of the Metropolitan Community center choir, fell and was seriously injured Tuesday. She was attended by Dr. M. O. Bousfield.

Piano Recital
Miss Thelma O. Simons, graduate of Chicago piano college, will appear in piano recital at Lincoln center, Friday, May 18, at 8:30 p. m., under the direction of J. Wesley Jones. It will be remembered that this young talented artist created quite a furore in the music world recently by her artistic playing. She has accompanied some of the country's leading artists, a very active worker in the Metropolitan Community center and teacher of piano in the music department.

Mrs. Guy Houston in City
Mrs. Guy Houston, Los Angeles, Cal., spent several days in the city the guest of Mrs. Emma Jefferson, 4406 Wabash avenue. Mrs. Houston has been in New Orleans several weeks, where she attended the Mardi Gras carnival. While here she was the recipient of many social functions.

Sandy Grant Hurt
Sandy Grant, 4510 Prairie avenue, was struck by an automobile Sunday night, March 4, at 45th street and Indiana avenue, as he was alighting from a northbound street car. He was removed to his home, where he is under the care of Dr. Thomas Officer, suffering from bruises and internal injuries. The machine belongs to H. E. Archer, who claims he was not operating the car at the time of the accident.

William McClure Dead
William H. McClure, 6425 Langley avenue, an old resident of Chicago, died Tuesday. He was an employee of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad for over 20 years.

Harrison Ferrell in Recital
Harrison H. Ferrell, Jr., will appear in recital at Oliver Baptist church, 31st street and South Park avenue, Monday

THE UNIVERSAL RELIGION
The Bahai assembly, next Sunday, will meet in St. John hall, 18th floor, Masonic temple, Randolph and State streets, at 3:30 p. m. Basic Bahai principles will be discussed. Bahai meetings open to the public are held every Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma Ellington, 4736 St. Lawrence avenue.

evening, March 12, at 8:30 p. m. This talented young artist is a violinist of premier ability. None who hear him fail to note the fine shading and warmth of his tone.

Appointed Bacteriologist
F. S. Rankin, 50 East 33d street, has been appointed as bacteriologist in the health department. Mr. Rankin, who is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and who received the degree of B. A. from Howard university, came second on a list of six out of 52 who took the competitive examination for senior bacteriologist in the health department of Chicago.

Student Dies
Henry Keystone Smith, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Smith, 131 Hyde Park boulevard, died Tuesday at 10:28 a. m. Death was due to typhoid. He became ill three days before his death and the end came without much suffering. He had been in excellent health previously. Henry was a student of the Crane Junior college, graduating from the Wendell Phillips high school in Feb., 1923. While at Wendell Phillips he was widely known, being a member of the R. O. C. band and captain of the varsity two of 1922. Funeral services were held at Bethel A. M. E. church, where he was an active member. A host of friends paid their last tribute to him with their presence and floral designs. He leaves a mother, father, sister and many relatives.

Thirteenth Club Meets
The members of the Thirteenth club met Monday evening at the home of A. H. Palmer, 3712 Prairie avenue. Cards were the feature of the evening. A pin, bearing the number 13, was selected as the emblem of the club. The Hon. Buntington H. Green, candidate for alderman of the Second ward, was present and made a speech.

Entertain Dr. Moton
A reception was given at the Apomattox club Saturday evening, honoring Dr. Robert R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee institute, Alabama, who is touring the northern states. Moving pictures were shown of all-Colored Chicago and of Tuskegee institute under the courtesy of Charles E. Dawson.

Sick List
Mrs. Arenta Grice, 3150 Giles avenue, is confined to her home.
Mme. R. Ramsey, 67 East 36th street, is improving after an illness of one month.
Mrs. Jackson, 4546 Indiana avenue, secretary of the Liberty Whist club, is confined to her home with illness.

Mrs. Pearson Visits
Mrs. Sophia Pearson, Angle, La., enjoyed a two-month visit with her children, Isiah Lewis, Mrs. Laura Martin and Mrs. Carrie Meyers, in Freeport, Ill. She has been visiting in the city with her sister, Mrs. Mary Johnson, 5817 Federal street, and her uncle, Louis Henry of Evanston. Many social affairs have been given in her honor during her stay in the city.

Amateur Minstrels
Everybody is preparing to greet the approaching admirable, amazing, animating amateur annual acting aggregation on Easter Monday night, April 1, at the Eighth Regiment armory. The boys are introducing many specially features this year, including a reproduction of King Tut's Tomb, from which will emerge a junior Egyptian amateur who will exchange places with a senior amateur. He will render a beautiful native ballad entitled, "Egypt's in Africa, What Am I?"

Patti Leaves California
Anita Patti Brown has left the Pacific coast after a prolonged and pleasant visit. She and her accompanist, Miss Duxey, have resumed their recital tour. They spent last week-end in Denver and are now in Omaha.

Bible Lecture
Bible lecture, auspices International Bible Students' association, subject "The New Covenant Soon to Be Put Into Operation" by D. F. Murdock Sunday, March 11, 3 o'clock p. m., at the Peoples' Movement club, 3140 Indiana avenue. All are invited; seats free; no collection.

Walter Tyler Dies
Walter Scott Tyler, 342 West 39th street, died Monday, March 5, after a few days' illness. He leaves a son, Walter S. Tyler, Jr., a brother, Henry L. Tyler, and a host of friends to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held Thursday from Kersey McGowan undertaking parlors at 2:30 o'clock.

Passes Bar Examination
Franklin A. Lovelace, court clerk of the law firm of Ellis and Westbrook, qualified for the recent bar examination held March 7 and has received notification that he has satisfactorily complied with all requirements and passed the test. He received the degree of A. B. from the Arkansas Baptist college and graduated from the law department of Northwestern university. He has been in the office of Ellis and Westbrook two years. Mr. Lovelace intends to engage in active practice specializing in habeas corpus and extradition cases.

Mme. Tittle in Recital
Mme. Jeeler Pettit Tittle, soprano, and son, Wm. A. C. Pettit, violinist, will give a musical recital at Walter's A. M. E. Zion church, 3800 South Dearborn street, Monday, April 23. They will be assisted by the choir, Prof. J. Alvo Taylor, director, and friends. Admission tickets, 35 cents, are for sale by Mme. Tittle, 713 East 43d street; phone Atlantic 0500; Brooks Pharmacy, 5300 South State street; the American Phone Boulevard 8885, and the performers.—Advertisement.

Chicago Musicians' Night
On Thursday night, March 15, 8 o'clock p. m., some of Chicago's prominent musicians will take part in a grand opening concert at Greater Bethel A. M. E. church, 42d street and Grand boulevard. Albert Jones and Original Provident Baptist choir, Isaac Fairbairn and Berean Baptist choir, Mrs. Pearl Warner and Mt. Vernon Baptist choir, Kappa Alpha Psi quartette, Marie Brooks, pianist; Cleo M. Dickerson, pianist; Inez Edmondson, contralto; Clara Hutchison, soprano; Pauline James Lee, contralto; Antoine Barnes, soprano; James A. Mundy and Bethel choir, Emmett Berger, baritone; Hammond Sevier, tenor; Mary E. Jones, soprano, and numerous other splendid musicians. Come with your friends and bring a silver offering.—Advertisement.