

Phoenix Couple Grets 200 On Golden Date

More than 200 guests greeted the Dee E. Williams of Phoenix when their children recently honored them at a golden wedding anniversary party.

Williams is a native Texan and attended the Tuskegee Institute. His wife is the former Miss Lephemia Brooks from South Carolina. The couple was married Jan. 29, 1902 in Atlanta, Ga.

They came to Chicago in June of 1903 and moved to Phoenix, Ill., in 1940. Both are active in the Baha'i faith and hold study groups in their home every month.

The couple have four children, Mrs. Lorraine Galberth of Phoenix, Harold C. Williams of Gary, Ind., Allen M. Williams of Harvey and Morris U. Williams of Chicago. They also have six grandchildren.

THEIR GOLDEN DATE—Mr. and Mrs. Dee E. Williams marked now in progress at Bensinger's Billiard Parlors on Randolph st. children recently. The Phoenix couple was married in Atlanta, Ga. They came to Chicago in 1903 and moved to Phoenix, Ill. in 1940. More than two hundred guests were received at the celebration.