

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Jul 18, 1914;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 3

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday afternoon, July 19, at 4 p. m., Mrs. W. B. Thorp, vice president of the Story Telling League, will speak on "Russian Immigration." Piano and vocal music. The first of the summer students' meetings for those attending the various schools of the city was held last Friday evening with an overflowing attendance. The address by Dr. G. C. Hall was practical and much enjoyed. Mrs. C. P. Woolley, Dr. J. T. Jenifer, Dr. Park and others followed. The next social is Friday evening, July 24, at 8 p. m., when Mr. Maurice Kuhns will give a dramatic reading. Those acquainted with his ability and art will know what is in store for them. Saturday the children's classes were given a picnic at Jackson Park.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.