

1,000 Attend 51st Bahai Session Here

More than 1,000 delegates from all over the United States attended the 51st annual convention of the Bahai Faith in the Temple in Wilmette, Ill., last week.

The four-day meeting closed Saturday with the election of nine members to the board of the National Spiritual Assembly. Many members re-elected to their board positions. Among these were:

H. Borrah Kavelin, executive director of Durand Taylor Co.; New York City who was reelected chairman; Horace Holley, Wilmett, who was returned to his post as secretary for the 34th term; Arthur L. Dahl, Pebble Beach, Calif., treasurer; Elsworth Blackwell, Golden State Mutual Insurance Co., Chicago member, and Charles Wolcott, Los Angeles, Calif., vice chairman.

Others elected to the board were Mrs. Charlotte Linfoot, Wilmette, assistant secretary; Dr. Katherine True, Wilmette, Women's and Children Hospital, Chicago; Miss Edna True, Evanston, founder of the North Shore Travel agency; and Mrs. Florence Mayberry, Santa Paula, Calif., who became a member.