

Mrs. America Brown, 5123 Grove avenue, and Mrs. Mark Cowan, 3520 Forest avenue, two of Chicago's most prominent society matrons, have to the delight of their many friends returned from their trip to Muskegon, Mich., where they spent a week fishing and hunting.

The Defender announces with regret the illness of Mrs. J. Wallace, one of Chicago's most fashionable hairdressers. And we wish for her speedy recovery.

The way to get good bread, ask for the "Kentucky Loaf."

Mr. R. S. Winston, 5834 Wabash avenue, is convalescent after quite an illness. Mr. Winston is one of our well known and popular residents and we are pleased at his recovery.

Mrs. Ida R. Thaddus, of 3832 Wabash avenue, is suffering with rheumatism. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Do you want good plain rolls? Ask for Wallace's.

The concert given at the Institutional church Monday evening, Sept. 25, under the management of Mrs. A. J. Carey, for the benefit of the activities of the church, was largely attended notwithstanding the inclement weather. The program, with the exception of a few numbers, was somewhat classy. The following persons appeared on the program: Miss Gertrude Jackson, Mrs. Dorwin Knapp, Mrs. Sallie Jones Downs, Miss Grace Clark, Kentucky quartet, Mrs. Marie Burton Hiram, Mrs. Marian Adams Harris and Harrison Emanuel, Mrs. Hiram, Mrs. Knapp and Mr. Emanuel deserve special mention. The ushers were Misses A. Carey, E. Mitchell, B. Lee and Morgan. Julius N. Aven-dorph was director.

Frank Ehler has never been thrown by any one. He wrestled Mr. Vincent to a draw last year, so that both men have a splendid record and an even chance to win and it is this event that is attracting the attention of the wrestling fans.

Dr. Ralph Stewart of Washington, D. C., will return to his home on Thursday morning after a very pleasant stay in our city of ten days.

Chas. Davis of 3546 Forest avenue will leave the hospital on Thursday to remain home until he fully recovers his strength. He will be pleased to see his friends.

"Guide for Health"—A valuable treatise on diseases of women and how to effect their cure; non-surgical. Dr. Goodwin, specialist; address or consult Mrs. Clara Lawson, representative; office hours, 9-10 a. m.; 146 West 27th street; phone Calumet 1019.

Mr. James Parker of 6618 Vernon avenue met with a very serious accident last week at the South Chicago mills but he is now at home from the hospital and doing nicely.

One of the proudest moments of a young man's life ought to be when in the society of some nice young woman but, judging from the number of young men seen out alone, there are but few proud moments in the life of the young men of today in Chicago. It is unfortunate, too, as there are so many places they miss going to on account of not having company. Remember, young men, attention is what keeps our girls in the right set.

Mrs. George Mills of 3339 Vernon avenue is visiting friends and relatives at her old home, Chatham, Ont.

Mr. Peter Pollard of Rogers Park spent one day this week in the city sightseeing and calling on friends.

Mrs. Eddie Lang spent last Sunday in Evanston with her old friend, Miss Gertrude Perry.

Mrs. Daniel Budd of 3133 Wabash avenue entertained at lunch recently in honor of Attorney N. R. Harper of Louisville, author of "Yalliboo."

Mr. Charles L. Reese, one of Chicago's most promising lyric tenors, sang last Sunday at Bethel church, using the beautiful solo, "Consider and Hear Me," by Alfred Wooler. She will again sing Sunday evening, Oct. 1, at same church, the sacred solo, "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings." Mr. Reese is a student of the Chicago Musical college and is showing the results of careful application and research.

Mrs. M. Freeman and sons of Butte, Mont., are the guests of Mrs. A. C. Christian, 21 W. 37th street. Mrs. Christian is a cousin of Mrs. Freeman.

Mrs. Eva Jenifer made a flying trip to Springfield, Ill., Thursday and will be gone several days.

Mr. F. L. Barnett will give an address at Frederick Douglass Center from the subject, "Justice and Breakfast," Sunday afternoon, Oct. 1, at 4 p. m. Several musical numbers will follow.

Miss Cora Franklin left the city Sept. 23 for Los Angeles, Cal., to visit friends. Her friends wish for her a pleasant trip.

The Chicago City club, with Mrs. H. M. Wilwarth, president, is organizing the city into ward divisions for the purpose of securing better streets, alleys and conditions influencing children. The second ward holds its meetings at Douglass Center, the first and third Thursdays at 2 p. m. in each month. It is hoped to secure a small park in this ward for a children's playground. This club has undertaken the most elaborate methods for neighborhood work yet known. At the last meeting Mrs. G. C. Hall was elected secretary and treasurer.

The Douglass Center Woman's club will meet Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 3, at 2 p. m., at which time the year's work will be outlined.

The Juvenile Protective League No. 4 will meet at the Douglass Center Tuesday evening, Oct. 3, at 8 p. m. The election of officers for the coming year will take place.

Dr. U. G. Dalley has returned to the city after a trip in the northwest. The doctor spent two weeks at the famous Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., studying the newer surgical methods in vogue at that institution.

Dr. Charles Gilbert, the only colored Chicagoan to speak at the great Congress of Races in London, England, will be the speaker at the Fellowship league Sunday, Oct. 1, at 4 p. m. Carter's jubilee singers will assist.

R. W. Green, 3832 State street, has returned from Normal, Ill., where he has been visiting his sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith.

Mrs. Daniel H. Murry of Washington, D. C., arrived in the city Thursday and will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bentley for two weeks or more.

The tickets will soon be on sale at the Burlington and Marquette clubs, the Elite, George W. Holt's, Mrs. Clifford Johnson's, Lett's cafe and other prominent places on State street, as well as William's restaurant in Madison street, downtown, for the exercises at Schorling's park.

The Gaudemans charity club, which was organized July 25, 1911, gave its first entertainment Sept. 21 at 4619 Dearborn street. It was much enjoyed by a large crowd. The net profits were $16.50. Look for the next one.

Attorney H. J. Saunders and wife were presented with a charming daughter last Friday.

"Bon Bon Suite," by the Choral Study Club of Chicago and Mr. Gerald Tyler of St. Louis, Mo., Monday evening, Nov. 27. Watch these columns.

Mrs. B. R. Durant of St. Paul, Minn., is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Spotts, 3637 State street.

On last Wednesday evening, Sept. 20, Mrs. Alberta Baker, 3735 Wabash avenue, entertained at progressive whist the Misses Goldie and Bernice Depp of Ohio. Many of the foremost whist players were present and the handsome prizes given by the hostess caused much interest and enthusiasm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith and Mrs. Ellen Jarvis of 2945 Groveland avenue are spending two weeks in Madison, Wis., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jones.

Rev. A. Babour of Galveston, Tex., Rev. J. B. Pious of Austin, Tex., Rev. Dailey and wife of Palestine, Tex., and Prof. Codwell of Houston, Tex., returning from the Baptist convention which convened in Pittsburg, Pa., were the guests of Mrs. Alice Washington, 3144 Forest avenue.

Mrs. Gertrude Emerson, 3236 Prairie avenue, fell off the car Sunday, the 24th, and broke her leg.

The W. A. Wallace Bakery Co. make the "Kentucky Loaf" and Wallace Rolls.

A great revival is being held at St. Paul's M. E. church, 4644 Dearborn street. It is conducted by Rev. T. S. Scott, evangelist of Missouri and Kansas conference of C. M. E. church. The Reverend is a power in the work. Ministers of the city and their congregations are invited to worship with us for the next three weeks.—Rev. J. H. T. Walls, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert entertained their guest, Mr. William Armstead, with an auto tour throughout the city, taking in all places of importance after which a luncheon was enjoyed at the Spriggs house. Mr. Armstead is head shipping clerk for a large firm in Boston, Mass., and through The Defender he says good bye to all friends whom he did not see before leaving the city.

Mr. W. T. Mayo has returned from his vacation and says he feels like a two-year-old.

The Volunteer Workers' club will hold their fourth annual bazaar for the benefit of charity at Jackson's hall, 2961 State street, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, Oct. 17 and 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Johnson, 3026 Vernon avenue, left Wednesday for a tour of the east and Canada. They will visit the following cities: Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Boston, New York, Montreal and Mt. Clemens, Mich. They will be gone for a month.

Miss Ida Lewis is ill at Provident hospital.

An excellent program has been arranged for the charity bazaar at Jackson's hall.

The public is becoming quite interested in the outdoor sports to take place at Schorling's park on Columbus day. Quite a few of the boxes have been taken and those wishing desirable seats will do well to reserve them now.

Miss Madeline R. McFarland at her fall opening of millinery Wednesday, Sept. 27, exhibited some most beautiful designs. Every one was delighted with the artistic display. Music was furnished by Prof. A. T. Stewart and orchestra.

George W. McGurn, who is handling Ehler, will go the limit on him. Both of the contestants were introduced from the Pekin stage Wednesday night and will be introduced again Sunday night so that the public may look them over. Every penny spent in attending this event is spent for the benefit of the babies who must be cared for while their parents are at work so don't forget the babies. Buy a ticket and attend the athletic field day exercises Oct. 12.

We want two first class active agents; will pay salary advance and commission to the right parties. Mt. Glenwood Cemetery Association, 3125 State street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mace Williams, Paducah, Ky., were the guests of her brother and his brother-in-law, Mr. George Marthral, 10 East 39th street. They had not seen each other in fourteen years.

Mme. Azalia Hackley, who is to give the great fair concert at Orchestra hall next month, left the city on Wednesday night to give tent concerts in the middle Atlantic states. She will return about one week before her concert in this city.

Mrs. Fannie Collins, Harvey, Ill., sister of Mrs. E. A. Vena, 3822 Dearborn street, is quite sick at 3816 State street.

Mr. and Mrs. Green, 137 West 67th boulevard, who spent a month in Philadelphia, returned to the city well benefited by their trip. Mrs. Green had the pleasure of seeing her sister, whom she had not seen in many years.

Mr. L. Kindrick, Harrisburg, Ky., dropped in on his cousin, Mrs. E. A. Vena, whom he had not seen in fourteen years. They were overjoyed at the meeting.

Miss Estelle Burrell, Cincinnati, who spent a month with her cousin, Mrs. Thurston, 3641 Forest avenue, returned home after a most delightful time in the city enjoying automobile, teas and theater parties. She was loath to leave, but says she will return, however. She is a trained nurse, a graduate of Provident hospital.

Dr. James H. Redd, formerly of Chicago but now practicing in Minneapolis, Minn., paid a short visit to his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tucker, 5512 Ingleside avenue, while on his way back to Minneapolis with his bride, Mrs. Inez Moore Redd of Greensboro, N. C. The charming couple received many presents from here and from the bride's home. Friends and relatives wish them a prosperous journey through life.

Mme. Seay announces her fall opening through the papers only, on account of moving. The new address will be 3641 State street, in Binga Bank building. The hats are of the best style and very reasonable in price.

Mrs. William H. Marshall, Mrs. F. W. Taylor, Miss Nesby and Mr. Bradford were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Green of Elgin, Ill.

Fried and stewed chicken, dump-lings, boiled ham and greens, tomato and cucumber salad, apple pie and coffee will be served by Mrs. Maggie McAfee on the first day, Oct. 17, at the charity bazaar.

Andrew Rube Foster, the renowned pitcher and manager of the Leland Giants and American Giants, has been given charge of the semi-pro program. Those who wish to enter and compete for the prizes for broad and high jumping, pole vaulting, base running, 100 yard dash and fungo hitting should get in communication with him at their earliest convenience, as he is making up the list of competitors and arranging the events. His address is 5300 Dearborn street, phone Drexel 4404.

Oct. 18 Mrs. Cordelia West will serve a novel dinner at Jackson's hall for the benefit of charity.—Mrs. Clara Johnson, president; Mrs. Martha Walton, secretary.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bentley will entertain Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Daniel H. Murry of Washington, D. C., with a musical.

Mrs. R. A. J. Shaw and son will leave Sunday morning, Oct. 1, for an indefinite stay in Parkersburg, Va., visiting her parents.

Mrs. S. White and daughter, Beatrice, 3402 State street, left Sunday night for Waldon university. Miss White will take up a course of music.

Miss Alice Higginbotham, after spending several very pleasant weeks in our city and making a host of friends by her charming manner, left for her home in Boston last Sunday morning. She was much pleased with our city, as some of the gentlemen had lost no opportunity of showing her everything of interest while here. She left many sad hearts behind but we think from all reports she will return in the near future and make this her home. She was the guest of Mrs. H. B. Sloan of Vincennes avenue.