

MRS. JULIETTE B. BUFORD

Lawndale Staffer To Fly To London For Baha'i Parley

Mrs. Juliette B. Buford, community services director of the Greater Lawndale Conservation Commission, 3152 W. Roosevelt rd., will attend the World Baha'i Congress convening in London, England, April 27 through May 3.

Mrs. Buford, a Baha'i, who is Mrs. Beth McKenty, a Baha'i from Canada, who has been assisting Mrs. Buford in the past six years, also is prominent in civic and social circles on Chicago's Southside. She will leave by jet plane from O'Hare field on April 26.

Also attending the Congress

Mrs. McKenty has acted as co-chairman with Mrs. Arquilla Ricks, volunteer chairman of Greater Lawndale Conservation Commission activities.

The Baha'is from all over the world will meet in London to establish their Universal House of Justice, Mrs. Buford disclosed. She added: "More than 100 years ago Baha'u'llah, founder of the Baha'i World Faith, proclaimed the principle of the oneness of mankind."

Baha'i communities at this time exist in all the continents.