

Beauties To Vie During Elk Session

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Aug. 6—A bathing beauty contest and water carnival will be one of the special features at the thirty-eighth annual grand lodge session of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World which convenes here August 22 to 28 it was announced by Councilman Lawrence O. Payne, general chairman of the local convention committee. The affair will be staged August 25, at Portland - Outhwaite Recreational center of which Ellsworth Gambelee is superintendent. Mrs. Lillian Wilkinson, vice chairman at large, will appoint a committee to assist.

The annual street parade will be held August 24th. It will form in the heart of the Race district and proceed down historic Euclid avenue to the municipal stadium on the lake front where exhibitions, drills, band contests and other events will be staged, according to Captain James Beckwith, chairman of the parade committee.

The grand ball will be held on Tuesday night at the public auditorium to the music of a nationally known orchestra. Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming is chairman of the ball committee.

Wednesday, August 20, will be Elks day at the Great Lakes exposition.

An interesting musical and speaking radio program will take place in the afternoon, according to W. D. Williams, chairman of the sub-committee in charge.

Wednesday evening will be featured with a night baseball game between two nationally known teams at the municipal stadium.

Headquarters for the convention have been established at People's Center, 2491 East 55th street, in charge of Assistant Police Prosecutor Perry B. Jackson, executive secretary. Ample meeting places have been arranged for by Z. E. Brown.