

Clubs[^] Societies

Weekly Gossip from the Social, Religious, Fraternal and Other Organizations

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday afternoon, June 21, at 4 p. m., Judge E. O. Brown will speak on "My Favorite Poets," giving select readings. Miss Pauline Lee, graduate of the Chicago Musical College, will play and sing. Last Saturday closed the girls' classes in domestic science for the year, taught by young women of Chicago University, who found the work so satisfactory they wish to be reappointed next fall. The music class taught by Mrs. A. C. Cone will continue through the summer. Tuesday the Woman's Club met, electing officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Eva Jenifer; vice president, Mrs. Addie Robinson; secretary, Mrs. Louise Waller; treasurer, Miss Laura Beasley; corresponding secretary, Miss Lillian Chapman. The rug exhibit in charge of Mr. J. E. Wiley of New Albany, Ind., continues each day.