

GRACE LYCEUM SUNDAY

*The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Apr 28, 1917; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender
pg. 9*

GRACE LYCEUM SUNDAY

Hon. E. H. Wright, assistant corporation counsel for the city of Chicago, will deliver an address Sunday, Jan. 21, at 5 o'clock before the Young People's Lyceum, Grace Presbyterian church. This will be the first time Mr. Wright has delivered a nonpolitical address since appointed by Mayor William Hale Thompson. His subject will be "Self Help—The Beauty of the Race." He will be introduced by Dr. Julian Lewis. The theme has been carefully prepared and the speech is expected to outclass any heard at Grace for many moons. The chairman of the speakers' committee has invited the Chicago Bar Association, of which Mr. Wright is president, to be present in a body. Also Col. J. H. Johnson, president, of Appomattox, and its members will be especially invited, Mr. Wright being the first president of that body. Hon. George W. Ellis, Hon. Louis B. Anderson and Editor Robert S. Abbott will act as a committee of escort. Special seats on the platform will be reserved for members of the bar. The address will appeal to the young people and they are urged to be present. Mrs. Maude J. Roberts, chairman of the program committee, has arranged a fine musical program. The program begins at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Bertha Mosely, president.
