

NEW YORK CITY BRIEFS

Boswell Terrell, 32, 132 W. 138th St., was knocked down by an auto at 138th St. and Seventh Ave. Tuesday and badly injured. The machine is said to have been driven by Patrick Flood, 770 Amsterdam Ave.

Mrs. Ernestine Morent, 28, 221 W. 143d St., was confined to her home for several days last week because of illness.

Mrs. Nora Collier, 580 St. Nicholas Ave., is suing in Seventh district court for $1,000 damages for injuries received when the ceiling fell in her apartment.

Charles Judias, 22, 575 Lenox Ave., dropped dead from heart trouble at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at his residence.

Albert McCoy, 35, 203 W. 129th St., elevator operator, who sustained a broken back when the elevator dropped from the sixth floor at 529 W. 11th St., killing two women, is said to be recovering nicely. The accident occurred last Saturday when the cable snapped and pushed the elevator with four passengers to fall. McCoy worked frantically at the emergency brakes, but to no avail.

While playing with matches during his mother's absence Tuesday, Andrew Fontana, 4, 5 W. 131st St., set himself afire and was badly burned. Neighbors heard the child's screams and quickly extinguished the flames, but not until the boy had been badly burned about the face, hands and body. At the Harlem hospital his condition is reported as serious.

It is claimed that in some unknown manner Tuesday morning at 1:45 John Hill, 39, 2464 Seventh Ave., received a fractured left rib and other injuries about the body. He was attended by a physician from Harlem hospital.

Struck, knocked down and dangerously injured by an auto at 145th St. and Eighth Ave. Friday, Mrs. Diana Brown, 60, 230 W. 142d St., was picked up and rushed to Harlem hospital, where it was found that she suffered from a possible fractured hip, contusions of the scalp and legs and a possible fractured nose. The machine is said to have been driven by Charles E. Larson, 2698 Eighth Ave.

Claude Phillips, 37, 227 W. 148th St., was knocked down by an auto and badly hurt Friday at 145th St. and Eighth Ave. He received injuries about the head, arms and body. The car is said to have been driven by Charles Mitchell, 267 W. 143d St.

A monster mass meeting was held at Bethel A. M. E. church Monday evening, under the auspices of the Colored Women's Stop-Lynching league. Among the speakers were Revs. William L. Imes, F. A. Cullen, Richard M. Bolden, J. D. Bushel and Fred R. Moore. Mrs. J. D. Bushel rendered several solos. The meeting was a forerunner of the league's planned Armistice day parade. All organizations are invited to turn out. Information concerning same may be obtained from Mrs. E. Johnson at the organization headquarters, 149 W. 140th St. Phone Bradhurst 8672.

William Green, 30, of 122 W. 134th St., charged with robbery by Mrs. Jessie Hot of 310 W. 150th St., was convicted Thursday in Judge Mancuso's court. He was to be sentenced Monday.

The Coachmen's Union League society, Inc., held its regular meeting on Monday evening in their quarters at 283 W. 138th St. A western supper was served by a special committee in the grill room.

The St. Christopher club held a special meeting at the parish house, 215 W. 133d St., Monday evening. Business of importance was discussed regarding their winter activities.

Mrs. Anna Terrell, 90 Edgecomb Ave., is convalescing after an illness of two weeks, which confined her to her home.

Miss Aileen Cole, 111 W. 141st St., had as her guest during the past week-end Miss Cora Brown of Philadelphia. While here, Miss Brown was the recipient of many social courtesies and attended the grand fall fashion revue and promenade given by the Citizens Christmas Cheer committee at Manhattan casino last Friday night.

The Pierrettes, one of the most popular ladies' clubs in the East, are giving their autumn dance and minstrel at the Imperial auditorium Armistice day eve, Nov. 10. The officers are: Lillian Morely, president; Mae Hoskins, vice president; Ruth Giles, secretary; Mae Good, treasurer, and Emma Nowly, financial secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, 201 W. 143d St., were called to Norfolk last week by the death of their daughter.

Mrs. Mary Booker, 135 Wentthrop Ave., New Rochelle, died at her home Thursday, after an illness of two months. Mrs. Booker was a popular member of the well-known Semper Fidelis club and was very active in civic and club circles. She was buried from her home Saturday after impressive services.

The Harry and Laura Prampin School of Music will conduct a musical program at Renaissance casino Nov. 10.

Major Moody Staten of Spokane, Wash., who succeeded the late Col. Charles Young in the United States frontier force service, Monrovia, Liberia, arrived Tuesday, aboard the steamship Celtic of the White Star line, after two and one-half years of duty. Mrs. Staten, the major's wife, with her aunt, Mrs. Steltic, arrived last week from Spokane to meet her husband upon his arrival. While in the city they are the guests of Major Staten's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Staten, 247 W. 137th St.

A box party at the Lafayette theater and a house party at the palatial residence of Mr. and Mrs. Luckyeth Roberts, 345 W. 145th St., were given last Wednesday evening in honor of Albion W. Holsey and William H. Carter, secretary and treasurer of the Tuskegee institute. Messrs. Holsey and Carter left Gotham for Tuskegee on Thursday.

Mrs. Jimmy McLendon, wife of the assistant district attorney, has returned after being called to the bedside of her grandmother in Philadelphia, who is said to have been critically ill.

Miss Edna Barr, popular actress, 310 W. 135th St., has returned to the city to remain indefinitely. Miss Barr was formerly leading lady of the recent stage success, "Runnin' Wild." Prior to returning to Gotham, Miss Barr visited her parents in Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Louisa Beecher, 28, 2519 Eighth Ave., was removed from her home to Harlem hospital last Friday suffering from pneumonia.

Mrs. Leona Marshall, 35, 111 W. 133d St., is confined to her home because of illness.

At his home last Saturday, Thomas Horn, 42, 4 W. 132d St., in some unknown manner received a sprained back. He was attended by a physician from Harlem hospital and is said to have been confined to his home for several days.

Dennis Albert, 30, 115 W. 142d St., is said to be confined to his home suffering from illness.

While coming down the stairs of his home Saturday, Robert Johnson, 38, 209 W. 144th St., slipped and fell, fracturing his left leg. He was painfully injured and it is said he will be confined to his home for many weeks. Mr. Johnson is said to have fallen only on the last three steps on the first floor.

According to reports, at 2:50 Saturday morning, an ambulance called at 270 W. 141st St. and removed to Bellevue hospital Mrs. Frenella Cribb, 24, who is said to be suffering from insanity.

McKinley Bland, 18, 246 W. 146th St., was taken to Harlem hospital Saturday, said to be suffering from pneumonia.

In attempting to become a peacemaker, William Johnson, 25, 553 Lenox Ave., received a dangerous laceration of the scalp on the street in front of 1 W. 135th St., Saturday morning.

A fracture of the left knee and many cuts and bruises were received by Mrs. Louise Faide, 35, 363 Lenox Ave., when she was struck and knocked down by an auto while attempting to cross Lenox Ave. at 135th St. Friday. She is confined to her home indefinitely. The machine is said to have been driven by Walter Harris, 226 W. 129th street.

Said to have suffered severely from acute indigestion, Mrs. Emma Payton, 26, 206 W. 21st St., was removed from 60 W. 132d St. Friday to Harlem hospital.

While visiting friends on the second floor of 30 W. 133d St. Friday, the ceiling fell and a heavy piece of plaster struck Joseph Williams, 25, 252 W. 145th St., on the head.

Erbin Alleylen, 50, 203 W. 140th St., is confined to his home.

Mrs. Jane Odun, 74, and her three young grand children were overcome by coal gas in her home, 333 E. 100th St., early last week. They were revived with pulmotors by ambulance physicians from Metropolitan hospital.

Coal gas nearly claimed four victims Wednesday at 223 E. 100th St. when a leak in a pipe leading from a coal-burning oven in the cellar caused the apartment to be filled with the deadly fumes. Mrs. Jane Adams, 75, and her three grandchildren, Joseph Sanders, 10, Doris Hilbert, 7, and Myrtle Sanders, 5, were all found unconscious. They were rushed to Reception hospital, where the elderly lady lies in great danger. The children will recover.

Ten days in the workhouse was the sentence meted out to Hamilton Smith, 25, 113 W. 132d St., when arrested and charged with breaking dishes and assaulting the proprietor of a restaurant at 490 Lenox Ave., Wednesday.

It is claimed that during a heated argument with his wife in their home at midnight Thursday Daniel Atkins, 25, 161 W. 140th St., was badly beaten and was attended by a physician from Harlem hospital for serious laceration of the scalp. Daniel is said to have refused to make a complaint against his wife to police.

While visiting the home of Moses Eddy, 25, 414 W. 133d St., it is claimed that Joseph Davis, 25, 414 W. 132d St., relieved Eddy of a gold watch. The matter was reported to police and the watch was found in a pawn shop. Davis was arrested Wednesday and was arraigned in Heights court before Magistrate Goodman. He was held in $1,000 bail for special sessions.

Last Wednesday in Heights court Joseph Ulmer, 27, 101 W. 130th St., who shot Paul Moultri, 594 Lenox Ave., at 132d St. and Lenox Ave., was arraigned on the charge of felonious assault and violation of the Sullivan law and held in $30,000 bail for the grand jury. The shooting took place Sunday, Oct. 11. Paul was not dangerously injured and has been released from the hospital.

Numerous reports of a man attempting to entice small girls into a basement by offering them candy and money resulted in the arrest and sentence of James Martin, 27, 156 W. 129th St., Wednesday. According to reports, Martin has been seen for many weeks lurking about in front of 155 Lenox Ave., and has made remarks to children passing. Police were notified and Martin was arrested. When arraigned in Heights court before Magistrate Goodman he was sentenced to 90 days in the workhouse. Mrs. Isabel Thomas, 11 W. 125th St., reported to police that he answers the description of the man who robbed her of her pocketbook, containing $15, a few days ago. He will be arrested on this charge when discharged from the workhouse.

Samuel Booker, 6, 277 W. 134th St., is confined at his home suffering from appendicitis.

Martha White, 23, 215 W. 148th St., is confined to her home on account of illness.

Percy Rodcliff, 36, 410 Lenox Ave., suffered contusion of the left shoulder and lacerations about the face and left ear as a result of being struck while the passenger of a cab driven by Elijah Scott, 2 W. 134th St., at 4:15 p. m. Sunday. The driver of the other car was Russell Imerblum, 219 W. 51st St. The accident occurred at 131st St. and Lenox Ave.

Pearl Cooper, 19, 235 W. 135th St., suffered an attack of hysteria on Sunday.

Ida Richardson, 34, 314 W. 142d St., is ill at her home.

Alvin Robinson, 2½ years old, 133 W. 145th St., was found dead at his home at 4:50 a. m., Sunday.

Andrew Sheldon, 48, 2525 Eighth Ave., is confined at home with pneumonia.

William Green, 32, 122 W. 134th St., was charged with first-degree robbery and found guilty of attacking Mrs. Jennie Holt, 32, 310 W. 150th St., threatening to kill her, and robbing her of $7.75. The attack occurred Sept. 23 at her home. In less than 20 minutes at the trial Greene was found guilty and remanded to the Tombs without bail for sentence next week.

Alexander Grant, 26, and wife Grace, 271 W. 119th St., were arraigned in court before Magistrate Goodman and held in $2,000 bail for the grand jury on Monday, charged with stealing clothing valued at $150 from Mrs. Thomas, 232 W. 120th St.

George McFadden, 25, 207 W. 136th St., was arrested on Monday by Policemen Annan and Dorfman, who were called to the scene by Morris Littman, 2165 Seventh Ave., laundryman. McFadden was found in the araway and could give no explanation for his being there.