

OHIO STATE NEWS

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
2525 Central Ave. Main-3335

Attorney Cornelius Stafford, Chicago, was the breakfast guest of Attorney and Mrs. John Ballard, 12 74th St.

James A. M. E. church raised over $7,000 at its recent mortgage rally. Dr. D. O. Walker, pastor, is receiving the congratulations of his hosts and friends for doing what was thought the impossible during these strenuous times.

Mrs. Eva Forbes entertained the Ante Meridian Bridge club at her palatial home in Maydale Ave., off Lake Shore Blvd. The guests enjoyed the delicious chicken breakfast.

Malcolm Grayson, mail carrier, well known in Boy Scout circles, was married Wednesday evening to Miss Marlan Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Simmons, E. 36th St. Rev. S. A. Lucas performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Clay, 2224 E. 84th St., had as guests Misses Elizabeth Brown and Frances Laugh, Buffalo, N. Y., for the week-end. A party was given for them Friday night at the home of Detective Gordy, 2222 E. 85th St.

Misses Genevieve Allen and Ernestine Medley, Urtana, are guests of the Slaughter Brothers, cousins.

Mrs. Iva Gibson, 2242 E. 82d St., joyfully entertained at bridge the following guests: Mesdames Eva Taylor, Mattie Stokes, Emma Dawkins, Mae Hunter, Lucille Smith, Alvin Gibbs and Lottie Stewart. Mrs. Gibson is a charming hostess.

Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Lakewood Rd., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Green, Rye Beach, Ohio.

Miss Fannie Foster, Longview Ave., returned from Chicago, where she attended the marriage of a cousin, Dr. Brown.

Mrs. Florence Brown, Chicago, passed through the city en route East to spend her vacation. She was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Anna Gray, and sisters, Mrs. Ethel Butler and Mrs. Oscar Denney.

Mrs. Hattie Bentley, E. 53d St., visited her sister, Mrs. Anna Young, and husband's father, William Bentley, in Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, Indianapolis, Ind., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Charles E. Elliott, 7211 Cedar Ave. Mrs. George W. Carroll, E. 74th St., had as guests during the Women's Mite missionary convention at June A. M. E. chapel, Mrs. Easley, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Dr. Thompson, Misses Mildred Bibbs and Maud Ford, Toledo, Ohio.

John Douglas, Nashville, Tenn., was in Cleveland to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sallie Parker, E. 27th St.

Mr. R. W. Welch returned from St. Joseph, Mo., where she was called to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Ida A. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones motored to Sarnia and other points in Canada for a week's vacation.

Mrs. Evelyn Works, Indianapolis, is guest of her sister, Mrs. Etta Carlton, Quebec Ave., en route to Youngstown and Grand Rapids.

Indorse Will for Senate
J. Walter Will, Sr., has been unanimously endorsed for the state senate by the following organizations: The All-Star Republican Club of the Fifth Ward, East End Women's Republican club, the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th Ward Republican clubs, the asphalt workers of the Pavers International union and many other organizations.

A. E. Ellsworth is making good as director of boys playground activities at the Woodland Ave. center. Miss Margaret Pennybacker and Miss Essie Hagg are the successful instructors for the girls.

The Ladies Afternoon club met with Mrs. Covington Monday afternoon at her home, 226 E. 73d St. A lovely drive was enjoyed at Gordon park, where the hostess served a delicious luncheon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Rollins on Cedar Ave. Members present: Mrs. Price, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Hoy, Mrs. Rollins, Mrs. Wesson, Mrs. Farbaugh, Mrs. Covington, and Mrs. Cahell. Mrs. Hoy, reporter.

The Ladies Afternoon club was highly entertained by Mrs. Rollins on Cedar Ave. The guests included Mrs. Lovie McGuire, 680 Euclid Ave.; Mrs. Roberta Nickes, 2375 E. 46th St.; Mrs. Chester Wofford, 6801 Euclid Ave. Next meeting with Mrs. Wesson, E. 23th St. Mrs. Price, president; Mrs. Chandler, secretary; and Mrs. Lucille Hoy, reporter.

Mt. Zion Congregational Temple
Rev. Russell Brown, pastor, drove to Painesville Sunday to deliver the sermon for the district meeting of the I. B. P. O. E. in the afternoon at the Odd Fellows building on Painesville's public square. August Arrington spoke Sunday on the Boy Scout program. Messrs. W. H. Gleason, Charles Brown, J. Seelig, J. R. Taylor, A. L. Glen and Charles Gordon were named the Scout committee for troop No. 115. The T. M. T. M. club went to Cedar Point for their annual picnic. Mrs. Susie Tyler, Sunday school superintendent, is assisting the interdenominational alliance committee to plan the annual picnic, July 21, at Garfield park. Mrs. Grace Willis Thompson and other music lovers met Thursday night at Mount Zion to plan a program for the racial group night on the night concert musical series on the city outdoor recreation program. J. H. Gouley of the recreation department is endeavoring to make this year the most entertaining.

The City Federation of Colored Women's clubs will hold its monthly luncheon meeting at the P. W. G. A., Monday, July 28. Each club is asked to send a representative. Luncheon will be served at 1:30 p. m. Plans are being laid for a street fair. Mrs. L. J. Gibson is president and Mrs. Margaret Carroll, reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, 10109 Quebec Ave., gave an informal party honoring their niece, Mrs. Addie Bean Day, 2341 E. 46th St., who was celebrating her 15th birthday.

Mrs. Belle Sully and Mrs. Sadie Lynch, McKeesport, Pa., spent a few days with their sister, Mrs. J. L. Jones, 2348 E. 20th St.

The House Puella club is planning a dancing party at the Caterers club on E. 49th St., July 26. Mrs. Minnie Shontz is president.

Mrs. Susie Tolbert, daughter of Mrs. Mattie Hodges, 2049 Central Ave., died Thursday evening after a lingering illness. The deceased was a member of Shiloh Baptist church. She was also a member of Glenora Temple, Lady Elks and Good Samaritans, having served as an officer in both lodges. She was always doing some charitable act for the needy and will be greatly missed. Rev. Yewell officiated at the funeral services.

A. O. Taylor

held at the J. W. Willis funeral home. Mr. and Mrs. James Staten and son, Elzey, 2565 Laneshire Rd., are planning their annual visit to Louisville.

Mrs. Lottie Ward, who underwent a successful operation at Charity hospital, is recovering rapidly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hughes, 2776 Laneshire Rd.

Charence L. Sharpe, assistant to the president and alumni director of Talladega college, Talladega, Ala., was a caller at the Cleveland office of The Chicago Defender Saturday morning. Mr. Sharpe is making a tour of several states en route East in the interest of the $20,000 endowment fund of the institution. He met the Talladega club Friday evening in the home of Edward Lomax.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Cheeks, Mt. Overlook Rd., are sending cards to their hosts of friends announcing the arrival of Elmer Cheeks Jr., Sunday, July 7. Mrs. Cheeks, formerly Miss Ella Mae Smith, the well known soprano and former member of Mt. Temple choir, and son are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and son, Albert Clee of Dowagiac, Mich., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown and Levi Brown, 2225 E. 101st St., last week. Little Harriet French and the former Mr. Brown returned with them.

Miss Thelma Louise Taylor delightfully entertained the French club at her home Wednesday evening. The guests included Miss L. Hallaway, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brown and L. Caney, Cleveland.

Miss Fannie Dean, a former Atlantian, and Ferek E. Love, member of local No. 2 of the Walters' association, were married recently at the home of the bride, 2225 E. 56th St., by Dr. W. H. McKinney, pastor of Antioch Baptist church. The couple is happily located with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Atchison, 2525 E. 54th St.

Hobbs Carnes, 222 E. 74th St., spent the week-end with his friend, Lawrence Whitaker, in Columbus.

The funeral of George W. Buchanan, a pioneer barber shop proprietor, who died at the home of his sister in Springfield, took place Friday afternoon from St. John church, Cleveland, of which he was a trustee a number of years. The Masons and United Brothers of Friendship of which he was a past officer had charge of the funeral.

Mrs. W. M. Robinson, 10827 Pasadena Ave., motored to Cincinnati for a few days visit having as her guest Mrs. G. A. Myers, Pasadena Ave. On Mrs. Myers return she and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Myers were to leave for New York city to spend several days.

W. J. Black, who went to Woodland Park, Mich., for his health, writes his wife and daughter in E. 103d St., that he is feeling fine.

The Vaucluse Social club held its last meeting with Miss Samille Russell, 8025 Cedar Ave., and planned its summer dance at the Young Men's Republican club, Cedar at 79th St., July 18. Mrs. Russell is president; Mrs. Mary Lee Wilkes, sponsor.

The Optimistic club No. 1, met Tuesday, July 8, at the home of Mrs. Sarah Brown, 6005 Thackeray Ave. After the usual business session was completed the club received Mrs. Powers as a new member. The hostess served a delectable luncheon. Next meeting with Mrs. Anna Davis, 5620 Berkman Ave., July 22. Mrs. Della Offer, president, Mrs. Rose Strickland, reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Holly, Ashtabula, Ohio, were guests of Mrs. Josie Henderson of that city on a motor trip to Cleveland, Thursday evening. They attended the sessions of the N. Ohio branch meeting of the Women's Mite Missionary society of the A. M. E. church at Jones chapel, 77th and Quincy. They were house guests of Mrs. J. L. Jones, E. 20th St.

Mrs. Henrietta Haines and Mrs. Alice Johnson, Ocala, Fla., are visiting their niece and daughter, Mrs. Ora E. Wise. They came to attend the commencement exercises of the college for women of Western Reserve university in which Mrs. Wise received her A. B. degree. They are the recipient of many social courtesies while here.

Joseph R. King, superintendent of the Central Avenue Bath House is in Nashville, on amonth's leave taking a special course in playground extension work.

Mrs. Catherine Madden, 5611 Outwaite Ave., is recovering from a severe illness. Mrs. C. C. Bell, grand deputy and national grand guardian of the Mosale Tempars of America, E. 16th St., left Monday to attend the national convention of the order. R. E. Pope, state grand master, was to leave the latter part of the week.

Mr. Lethia C. Fleming, president of the Ohio Federation; Mrs. L. J. Gibson, president of the local branch; Miss Jane E. Hunter, executive secretary of the Phillis Wheatley association and Mrs. Minerva Taylor, matron of the P. W. A., left last Wednesday by motor for Little Rock to attend the executive session of the National Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. Margaret Carroll, E. 74th St., reporter for the local Federation of Women's clubs was ill last week.

Mrs. R. O. Smith, Birmingham, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Eugene J. Lewis, 2346 E. 55d St. Mrs. Smith came by way of Washington to attend the marriage of her son, Benjamin L. Smith to Miss Rudella E. Gordon, June 25. The wedding ceremony was reported to have been a lovely home affair. Mrs. Smith is en route to Detroit, to join her son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Smith, who are making their home there, Mrs. Smith is to be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams, 4226 McGraw Ave.

Mrs. Ralph M. Rowland and her daughter, Mrs. Helen Stovall, and son, and Mrs. Ethel Brown motored to Kokomo, Ind., and visited Mrs. Jane Parham and then visited Mrs. Rowland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Burnett at Kakamazzo, later visited Mrs. J. Walter Smith in Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Rowland and son, Paul, were called to the bedside of Mrs. Rowland's father, Z. T. Burnett, in Kakamazzo, who has been in ill health for some time.

WELLSVILLE, OHIO

Word was received by Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Turner from Vaycross, Ga., and by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter from Sharon, Pa., concerning death of their relatives, Mrs. C. A. Stives and grandson, Kenneth Carter, Mrs. Myrtle Lewis, Annie Benford, Lillian Smith and grandson, Robert Tate spent the week-end in Cleveland. Charles Black has gone to Orange Grove, City, N. J. A lawn fete given on Friday evening by the members of the A. M. E. church. Members of the auxiliary of Second Baptist church of East Liverpool, Ohio, met Friday evening at the home Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Porter. Mrs. Ada Washington and sister, Mrs. Effie, formerly of this city, have returned home after visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Ethel Mashow of Niles, Ohio, formerly of this city, is visiting among friends. Miss Dorothy Johnson has returned to Detroit, Mich., after visiting relatives. Interest is being manifested among the members of the Boy Scout troop, under leadership of William Spives. Meetings are being held on each Thursday evening. David Brown of Detroit, Mich., formerly of this city, is visiting friends and relatives. Thornton was a business visitor in Pittsburgh, Pa.

TOLEDO

By WILBIA A. DeHALL
616 Woodland

Mrs. Ella P. Stewart and Mrs. E. B. Wanzo were dinner guests of Miss Gates, executive secretary of the Y. W. C. A., at Camp Walbridge on Tuesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Carl Hoke, president of the board of directors, and Mrs. Albert Fair, chairman of the Girl Service.

Dr. and Mrs. Mercer of Chicago are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart over the week-end.

Kenneth Heslip has gone to St. Louis to take the bar examination. Mr. Heslip is planning to practice in St. Louis in the near future.

Mrs. James Slater Gibson entertained a group of friends Wednesday in celebration of her birthday.

Mrs. Walter Sasportas and Mrs. William Wood of Glenwood Ave., motored to Cleveland over the week-end.

The Excelesior club will entertain members and friends with a party at the Tandy country home.

OXFORD, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. Carol, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and family and Mr. Patterson of Middletown were the guests of Miss Fernette Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William Hargrave have returned from Chicago where they went on their wedding trip. The Bisk Luncheon Singers gave a concert at Miami university, Oxford, Sunday. Mrs. S. E. Byrd entertained them at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Husty were present. Miss Gwendolyn Holden visited in Xenia. Miss Etta June Hunt visited Miss Lucy Potter in Liberty. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cheeks and son, Stanley, attended the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Hall of Franklin, Ohio. A number of ladies enjoyed a lawn party at the home of Mrs. Charles Bradley in honor of Mrs. Paul Hasty of Madisonville. Miss Nicola Hargrave is visiting Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Williams at St. Charlesville, Ohio. Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Murdoch visited Mrs. Jack Williams at College Corner. Mrs. Hilda Vest and granddaughter and Mr. Butler and brother of Connersville visited friends. Mr. and Mrs. John Heath are in Germantown for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Lon Lewis and nephew, Marion Lewis, are at Camp Campbell.

ELYRIA, OHIO

The revival services at the Bethany Baptist church were a success. Rev. L. C. Garland left for Indiana Monday, July 7. He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell, Mrs. L. Taylor is on the sick list. Mrs. Henry of Hammond is improving. Mrs. Maggie Brown of Camden, Ark., is here visiting her children. Bishop W. H. Heard, D. D., of the third Episcopal district, was the guest of the Jones chapel A. M. E. church. Rev. J. J. Northern is pastor. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Tidwell and sister, Lillian and Bessie from Dayton spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mecon and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Baker of 142 Bath St.

MANSFIELD, OHIO

Miss Dora Clegg left Monday for her home in Columbus. See Roberson of Lincoln university and Richard Jones of Howard university are enjoying their vacation at home. J. L. Holland, D. A., Phil., was in Columbus Sunday, en route and was the guest of Miss Eva Hill of Surf St. Mrs. James Little was in Columbus Sunday. Thomas Cantile and Misses Ellice and Vertie Thomas were in Columbus Sunday, guests of Miss Eva Hill. Maurice Cotton, Miller Burton and Willie Willis made a fishing trip to Mt. Vernon. Mr. Holland is one of our best business men.

STEWARTSVILLE, OHIO

Elmore Cole and Leonard Dozier have returned home from a vacation in Va. Mrs. Beatrice Coles of Worwood, Va., were visiting here. Mrs. Alice Culling, Mrs. Maggie Davis and Mrs. Nancy Hendricks left on a fishing trip. Charlie Jones was a caller in Bellaire. Lucius Pierce was a caller in Bellaire. The First Baptist school is planning to have its outing some time soon. Tom Anderson requests any information concerning the whereabouts of his sister, Mrs. Hattie Brock. The last time she was seen was in Leeburg, Pa., in 1922. She later went to Detroit, Mich. Anyone having any information concerning her whereabouts write to Tom Anderson, Stewartsville, Ohio. Mrs. Mary Austin is doing nicely in her beauty culture in Wheeling, W. Va. Ollie Sowell, G. C. Sowell, James Sowell, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Ross and George Thomas of Bellaire, Cleveland and Wheeling were visitors of Miss Maggie Boston on July 1. James W. Banks and Miss Julia Alexander were married recently.

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO

Miss Lillie Hines of Columbus is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell. Mrs. Rev. J. W. Madison of Huntington, W. Va., visited here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Greene of Columbus have been here visiting his mother. Mr. and Mrs. George Gilmore entertained Saturday night with a surprise party in honor of the birthday of their son, George Jr. Those present were: Misses Ernestine and Isabel Scott, Mary F. Hill, Mary F. Smith and Edna Armstrong, James and William Casey, William Carr, Lester Lewis, John Robert Carnes, Floyd Mitchell, Ernest Gomer and Charles Payne. Those who attended a party given in Middletown Friday evening by Misses Earlene Cooper and Phyllis Payne were: Misses Jean Gilmore, Isabel Scott, Ernestine Scott, Mary F. Hill and Lida Brown, George Gilmore, Floyd Mitchell, William Carr, William Casey, James Bullard, Robert Carter, George Emerson, John Kimes, Thomas Lee, John Robert Carnes, Mrs. George Gilmore and Mr. and Mrs. William Cousins. Patut Creek Baptist church and John Gee chapel gave a Sunday school picnic Thursday at the fair grounds. Swimming and ball playing were enjoyed. Leone Madison of Huntington, W. Va., son of Rev. J. W. Madison, was a guest of friends and relatives this week. Miss Hamzelle Scott of Logan, W. Va., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Scott. Robert Casey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Casey Sr., is visiting in Columbus. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Armstrong entertained Friday evening with a party in honor of Miss F. Smith of Columbus, who is visiting relatives and friends. Edward Burrell continues about the same. Send news to Mary Francis Hill, 12 Pine St.

COSHOCOTON, OHIO

Mrs. Mary Lou Henderson, evangelist, was in the city visiting her son for short stay Wednesday. They have been conducting meetings throughout Ohio and Pennsylvania, where she has met with success. She is leaving for Columbus, Ohio, where she has been asked to fill the pulpit at the C. M. E. Bethel church during the illness of the pastor, Rev. J. E. Kendall. Mrs. David Gear, who has been suffering with a sprained ankle since the Fourth, is somewhat better. Will Young, who has been living here for the past three years, has been back to Zanesville, Ohio, his old home. Wilbur Stewart motored to Columbus Sunday to visit friends.

ZANESVILLE, OHIO

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Stotts of Indianapolis have returned to their home after visiting relatives here. Miss Charlotte Ratliff, a teacher in public schools at Paden City, is visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen. Mrs. Amy Powell spent the week-end visiting friends at Springfield last week. Her niece, Miss Georgea Drewry of Chicago, who was a visitor for several weeks in Zanesville, has returned to her home. Mrs. Victoria Tyler Fleming, age 80, died Tuesday, following a long illness. Her husband, William Fleming, died two weeks ago. Mrs. Fleming was a member of Union Baptist church and the Court of Calanthe. Funeral services were held Friday at Union Baptist church, under the auspices of the Court of Calanthe. Clifford Newman, after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Newman, has returned to Canton, Rev. Charles J. Powell of St. Paul, N. Y., church was a caller in Washington and Pittsburgh last week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parsons and Miss Clara Parsons of Lee St. motored to Columbus last Wednesday. Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Roberts and children, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Clifford and children, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Stevens and Lewis Newman held a basket picnic at Africa, Ohio, on lawn grounds last Tuesday. Thomas J. Robinson, aged 74, died last Wednesday at his home on Franklin St., after a lingering illness. Mr. Robinson was not married. Funeral services were held Thursday from the Trimmer funeral home,

Rev. A. M. Thomas in charge. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery. Rev. A. C. Mayle and daughter, Miss Grace A., have returned to their home in Zanesville from Giltie, W. Va., where Miss Mayle is a teacher in the public schools. Miss Edith Jackson and brother Henry A. W. Main St. recently visited their sister Virginia at Dayton. They were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Clavey Young, Mrs. Helen Russell and Mrs. Irma Young visited relatives in Columbus last week. Thornton M. Tate of W. Muskingum Ave., who met with a serious accident and is confined to his home, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Wadell Blackwell, Mrs. Dan Slaughter and son Wilbur Booth of Cleveland were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Blackwell. The Old Acquaintance club held its annual picnic at Johnson's Tea Gardens on Harris Rd. July 9. They were served a delicious dinner. Mrs. Anna Harris has returned after visiting relatives at Columbus and Dayton. The Washington and Morgan family reunion will be held at Mt. Vernon Sunday, July 20. Mrs. Mary Lou Henderson, evangelist, has just closed a successful revival at Conneville and has been appointed by the official board of Bethel A. M. E. church at Columbus to supply the pulpit while the pastor, Rev. J. E. Kendall, is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown of Baker St. announce the birth of twin boys July 4. Mother and babies doing nicely.

LORAIN, OHIO

Misses Polly and Garnette Hicks of Lockland are spending their summer vacation at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Hulda Worthington, 409 W. 16th St. Rev. G. L. Hicks, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. church at Lockland, recently was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Worthington, and while here he delivered a sermon at St. Matthew A. M. E. church. It is interesting to know that Rev. Mr. Hicks was a former pastor of St. Matthew for about five years nearly fourteen years ago. Mrs. Mild Dickson of Broadway was hostess to the members of the Lata-lot club at her home July 8. The following were elected officers: Mrs. Hulda Worthington, president; Mrs. Porter Woods, vice president; Mrs. Lenore Robinson, secretary; Mrs. Nellie McKlincy, treasurer. Mr. and Mrs. E. Worthington and nieces were recent visitors in Oberlin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett, who celebrated the first anniversary of their little daughter, Jean Garrett, on July 3. Mr. and Mrs. Herndon Tates Sr. of New London recently spent a few days in this city as guests at the home of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tates, 122 W. 15th St. Mr. and Mrs. Hutson and daughter of Detroit are visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. S. E. Bond. Mr. and Mrs. E. Dinwiddle are now residing at 202 E. 22d St. Mrs. Hannah Wofford and baby Lois of Pittsburgh are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willis, 2245 Elyria Ave. Miss Matine Brown, who resides at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Essie Wofford, 2248 Broadway, recently left to spend her summer vacation in Chattanooga. Miss Brown will probably return here about school time, where she is a student at Hawthorn junior high school. Robert Finley, who was recently a patient in Hines hospital, Chicago, has been here visiting his wife and son on Broadway. The Northern Ohio Sunday School union met in Sandusky at the A. M. E. church, of which Rev. Charles Young is pastor. The following attended from this city: Rev. G. H. Williams and son John, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Ernest Braunford, Mrs. Bragg and C. L. Whitney. New Hope A. M. E. Zion church was admitted to the union July 6 at Sandusky. Plans were discussed and nearly completed for the big annual Sunday school picnic at Crystal beach, near Vermilion, on the lake, July 22. Howard Wofford of 2248 Broadway recently returned from Chirton, Pa. Miss Anna Heavener, a former resident of this city, was recently married and is living in Oberlin. While here Miss Heavener sang in the Second Baptist church choir. The Sisters Home charity club will meet at the home of Mrs. Rena Hughes, 2157 Denver Ave.

GALLIPOLIS, OHIO

Misses Jean Gilmore and Isabel Scott have returned from a week's visit with relatives and friends in Huntington, W. Va. Returning with them were Harry Martin and A. B. Cunningham. Misses Sarah White and Lillian Lewis, employed at Columbus, Ohio, spent the week-end here with relatives and friends. Miss Jenny Hillman has returned to her home in New York city after a few weeks here. Miss Lenora Hutchinson and Leslie Howard were quietly married Thursday evening, July 5. Quite a few from here attended the big Fourth of July dance in Parkersburg. Visitors July 4 at the home of Mrs. Oma Brown and mother, Mrs. Anna Patterson, were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pourge and Mr. and Mrs. Lane, all of Charleston.